Cover Letter

Every rulemaking filed with Administrative Rules must have a cover letter.

The letter needs to—

- 1. Be addressed to the secretary of state;
- 2. List the rule number and title (more than one rule may be listed);
- 3. Certify that the attached copies of the rulemaking are complete and accurate;
- 4. State the economic impact on small business (for proposed rulemaking);
- 5. State that a takings analysis has occurred (for proposed rulemaking);
- 6. Contain an authorized signature, which must be on file with Administrative Rules, of the department director or his/her designee;
- 7. Be dated with the date the proposed rulemaking or order of rulemaking is filed with Administrative Rules. If no date is on the letter, the file date will be stamped on the letter by Administrative Rules' staff and will serve as the date of the letter; and
- 8. Comply with HB 191, effective August 28, 2009, which resulted in changes to the information required in the letter.

A cover letter containing the required information is available for use on the secretary of state's website at http://www.sos.mo.gov/adrules/forms.asp.
