Extract from "An Act concerning Dower,"

Approved 29th November, 1855.

§ 1. Every widow shall be endowed of the third part of all the lands whereof her husband, or any other person to his use, was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage, to which she shall not have relinquished her right of dower, in the manner prescribed by law, to hold and enjoy during her natural life. Dower in leasehold estate, for a term of twenty years or more, shall be granted and assigned as in real estate; for a less term than twenty years, shall be granted and assigned as personal property.

§ 2. If the husband shall have made a contract for lands, and, at the time of his decease, the consideration, in whole or in part, shall not have been paid, but after his death the same shall be paid out of the assets of his estate, his widow shall be endowed of the third part of said lands, to hold and enjoy during her natural life, in the same manner as if he had been seized of an estate of inheritance in such lands at any time during the marriage.

§ 3. If the husband shall have made a contract, subsisting at the time of his death, for real estate, and paid only part of the consideration, and said real estate shall be sold after his death, under the order or judgment of a court, or by virtue of any power in such contract, or of any power or devise in the will of the husband, the widow shall be entitled to hold and enjoy, as dower during her natural life, the third part of said real estate as against every person, except such as may hold a lien on such real estate for the payment of the purchase money, and those claiming under them.

§ 4. Where the husband shall die leaving a child or children, or other descendants, the widow shall be entitled to a share in the slaves and other personal estate belonging to the husband at the time of his death, equal to the share of a child of such deceased husband, or, at her option, to one-third part of the slaves of such husband, during her natural life, and one-third part of the other personal estate, absolutely; in either case subject to the payment of the husband's debts.

§ 5. Where the husband shall die without any child or other descendant, in being, capable of inheriting, his widow shall be entitled,

First, To all the real and personal estate which came to the husband in right of the marriage, remaining undisposed of, absolutely;

Second, To one-half of the real and personal estate belonging to the husband at the time of his death, absolutely.

§ 6. When the husband shall die leaving such child or descendant, but not by his last marriage, his widow may, in lieu of dower, elect to take, in addition to her real estate, the slaves and other personal property in possession of the husband, that came to him in right of the wife by means of the marriage.

§ 7. The provisions made for the widow in the two last sections shall be subject to the payment of the husband's debts.

§ 8. When the husband shall die without a child, or other descendant, living, capable of inheriting, the widow shall have her election to take her dower, as provided in the first section, discharged of debts, or the provisions of the fifth section subject to debts.

§ 9. When a widow shall be entitled to dower as provided by the four preceding sections of this act, it shall be the duty of the county court of the proper county, when letters testamentary or of administration have been granted, to cause a notice to be served on such widow, apprising her of her rights, and requiring her to file her declaration within the time and according to the provisions of the next succeeding section.

§ 10. Such election shall be made by a declaration in writing, acknowledged before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, and filed in the office of the clerk of the court in which letters testamentary or of administration shall have been granted, within six months after the grant of the same; otherwise she shall be endowed under the provisions of the first, second and third sections of this act.

§ 11. When the husband shall die leaving a child or children, or other descendants, the widow may, in lieu of dower of the one-third part of all lands whereof her husband died, or shall die, seized of an estate of inheritance, to hold and enjoy during her natural life, elect to be endowed absolutely in a share of such lands equal to the share of a child of such deceased husband. The provisions of this section shall be subject to the payment of her husband's debts.

§ 12. Such election shall be made by declaration in writing, acknowledged before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, and filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted, within fifteen months after the grant of the same; otherwise she shall be endowed under the provisions of the preceding sections of this act.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI,

To Mrs. Jane Clarkson widow of Thomas Clarkson deceased.

The preceding extract from the law concerning Dower is communicated to you to apprise you of your rights, and you are required to file your declaration of election in the office of our Judge of Probate, for our county of St. Louis, within the time and according to the provisions now prescribed by law.

WITNESS, WILLIAM F. FERGUSON, Judge of the Probate Court for the County of St. Louis, and the seal of said Court hereto affixed, at office in said county, this 29th day of December A. D. 185*9*.

of the County of St. Louis, deceased.

Now on this 10th day of December 1859. comes the Administratrix of the Estate of Thomas Clarkson deceased, and ask the Hon<sup>e</sup> Court for an order to sell a negro woman by name of "Laura" - about fifty years of age. The property of said Estate as by Schedule and appraisement filed in said Court will more fully appear. For the reasons following: to enable the administratrix to pay the debts of said Estate allowed by said Court; and because the said administratrix, Jane Clarkson, wife of deceased, having none but young children and being alone with them, she is unable to manage the said negro woman or in any way control her; as if she hires the said negro woman out she will not stay where she is put. And said administratrix stands daily in fear and dread of the said negro woman, when about the premises of said administratrix all of which reasons and ~~petition~~ petition for order of sale, are duly submitted to the Court.
