Last Will and Testament of Elbridge Arnold.

I the undersigned Elbridge Arnold being in feeble health but of sound mind, and knowing the uncertainty of life make this my last will and testament and wish that the following wishes and orders of mine be strictly complied with.

First; I revoke and recall all former wills which I have made.

Secondly: I order all my just debts to be paid first.

Third: I order that the remainder of my estate, after all my just debts have been paid, shall go to my beloved wife Finitte Ann Arnold and ~~be~~ by her to be managed and controlled so long as she remains my widow; and I further give her power so long as she remains my widow to manage my estate as she deems prudent and best, to sell, lease, convey and alien ~~and here out any part or the whole~~ of my estate whether real or personal as she deems most conducive to the welfare of my family.

Fourth: I make it obligatory upon my wife Finitte Ann Arnold to raise my children in a Christian way and to provide them so long as they are under the age of twenty one years, or so long as they are not married, with the necessary schooling, clothing and boarding; and I order that she may sell any part or parcel of my estate, if the revenues of my estate should not be sufficient, for the purpose of giving my children a good and sufficient education.

Fifth in order, ~~that~~ in the event that wife Finette Ann Arnold should marry again, that my estate shall be divided between my children share and share alike after first deducting the one third thereof, which one third shall go to my wife Finette Ann Arnold to be held by her during her natural life and after her decease to be divided amongst my children, share and share alike.

Sixth in ^{appoint} order that my wife Finette Ann Arnold be app^{oint}ed as my administrator and my friend Henry Hill as my administrator and wish that both jointly settle up my affairs in the best manner possible.

Given under my hand and seal this 10th day of October 1855.

We the undersigned have this 10th day of October 1855 witnessed the signature of Elbridge Arnold and have at his request signed our names to this his last will and testament.
