Dear Sir,

Dr Daniel M. Jones of Somerset Co. Md. lately arrested upon the charge of disloyalty is a prominent rebel & a man of considerable influence, which influence he has always exerted to the detriment of the Government. The charge upon which he was last arrested is in substance as follows "I would rather attend a good Southern rights man for five dollars than a Black Republican for all the money he could pay me & then give all I make, & sell my horse under me also, to give the proceeds to the Southern Confederacy." An effort is being made sustained by the affidavits of known & avowed rebels to impeach the veracity of the men who have preferred this charge against Dr Jones, but the parties alluded to have always been staunch supporters of the Administration to my personal knowledge.

The said Dr Jones was arrested about twenty months ago for attacking an Enrolling Officer & was released by Provost Marshal McPhail by giving bond.

Sir.

I would most respectfully call your attention to the case of Dr. Daniel W. Jones, of Somerset County, who has been under arrest for some two months, and confined by the military authorities.

I would state that it is the ~~possibility~~ opinion of the loyal citizens of the two districts in which he has been practicing his profession, that his arrest was caused through malice, and that he should be released. My number of names could be obtained asking for his release.

He is the physician relied upon by nearly all the residents of the 4th & 15th districts of the County, and has a very large and extensive practice. From my knowledge of Dr. Jones, and the opinion entertained by the Union Men generally, who are acquainted with him, I believe his release would by them be considered an

An act of justice, and tend to advance the loyal cause in that section.

I have at all times, been an unflinching Union man, and only make this request, believing this to be a case in which the Military Authorities have been misled, by false statements, and that longer Confinement under such facts, would do more injury to the Cause of the Country than his release.

For my own loyalty, & standing
I would refer you to Hon Comdr

James Alfred Bowman, a lawful citizen, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Some weeks or two after the draft in 1863, and since the parole of, and being read by, Dr. D. W. Jones, I heard him say, in a public manner, at Maj. White's place in Davis' Quarters, 1st Suss Co. Div., that any man who was drafted and went into the service of the United States was a damned fool. That he would rather go to Dixie and as far as his influence would go, he would use it in sending men there. He was sure the South would gain her independence in a short time, or would to that effect. He continued speaking in this strain all the time I heard him.

Since this conversation, I have heard him use honorable language upon various occasions but the precise words I cannot now recollect.

For further testimony I would refer you to Maj. White and Andy Bowman. They were present as were several others. Also Mrs. Bowman and Washington James Emery, upon another matter.

Head Quarters, 1st Reg't. E.S. Md. Vols.
Salisbury, Md. May 5th 1864.

Col. John B. Keene,

Sir:— In pursuance of orders received from you, of which the following is a copy:—

Head Quarters, 1st Reg't. E.S. Md Vols,
Salisbury Md. May 3rd 1864.

Special Orders
No. 38)

x x x x x x x x x
II. Adjt. John E. Rustell will proceed immediately to Princess Anne, Md. with a squad of ten (10) men of Smith's Independent Cavalry, and arrest Henry Crosswell, Isaac J. Whittington, Dr. D. W. Jones and James F. Dashiell. If necessary he will use the jail at Princess Anne, in which to lodge any or all of said prisoners, until he can bring them to these Head Quarters.

John B. Keene
Col. Commanding
1st Reg't. E.S. Md Vols.

I proceeded to Princess Anne, Md., and vicinity, and arrested James F. Dashiell, and Doct. D. W. Jones. The other two named in my order having heard of the testimony being taken against them, and undoubtedly anticipating their arrest, effectually escaped, or eluded me. It is the impression among the people, that they have left the county and crossed over to the Western Shore; though one of them (Whittington) was seen at Beachville, five days before my party arrived, and shot at a soldier who attempted to wrest him. The soldier was unarmed. I kept a party all night, and a great portion of one day, but was unsuccessful. I also got the assistance of a portion of Company "K," but without avail.

In accordance with your verbal orders, I took the testimony of Mr. Wilson, in the case of Daskill, and obtained the parole and bond which Dr. D. W. Jones has repeatedly violated. I also took the evidence of a clerk in the employ of Mr. Woolford, the County Clerk of Somerset. All of which please find enclosed.

At the request of many loyal citizens of this County, I will state that their condition is pitiable in the extreme. No Union man dare express his opinions openly. Violence done to them is passed by unnoticed. A case I will give. Mr. Avery Taylor, one of the strongest Union men in the County, went to the polls upon election day, and challenged the votes of the disloyal. That night James F. Daskill, (the prisoner arrested, tho' on other charges) came up behind him and struck him on the head with a spoke of a wheel, felling him senseless to the ground. This man occupies an humble position it is true, but he is loyal, and that seemed to be the provocation for the assault. He remained insensible and at the point of death for eight days before he was able to recognize those around him. He bled profusely at the ears, and at this time is scarcely able to keep up, while his family is in a suffering condition. The assault was doubtless made because he is a Union man, and not afraid to proclaim it. The evidence against Daskill in regard to the assault, was quite blank, but not finding a witness willing to swear that the motive suggested prompted the blow, I could not consistently interfere, or take the testimony. Every loyal man is satisfied that this was the reason he was struck, but they cannot succeed to it. The Grand jury of Somerset County, who are all Rebels, passed the matter over, and took no notice of it; The act was committed in the little town where some of them live. The Sheriff, who has charge of these matters, was the first man who raised a Secession Flag in Somerset Co., in the early days of the war. The State's Attorney is a rebel, and since the war began, has been in the South more than a year! John J. Dushell, the Register of Wills, is a strong rebel, on the day of election urged men to take the oath who were indiscreet — telling them it was not binding; Levin Woolford, the County Clerk — but you have already heard of him — so it is with almost every official in Somerset County. The loyal need protection — that protection that cannot be obtained from those who administer their own Civil Laws. I could fill a volume with the simple stories of this people — showing how they are persecuted by these cunning, fawning traitors. This man, J. F. Dushell has proclaimed himself, time and again, "a rebel," from the porch of a public Hotel kept by Mrs. Wilson in Princess Anne. He preaches treason to the people there daily, and makes no secret of it. Since his arrest, he has boasted to his friends, that he would be shown among them in a few days. Referring to the "Oath of Allegiance" as a man would to a "sugar coated pill" — soon taken and soon forgotten.

There are but few troops in Somerset County, and I was waited upon by many citizens, to urge the authorities to give them protection. This I have done respectfully, I could do no less, if I did my duty. In what manner this protection shall be given, I leave to the judgment of my superiors.
