Explanation: RSMo Section 21.140 is set forth hereinafter with the new matter underlined and deleted matter in brackets; [thus]

Be it enacted by the people of Missouri:

Section 21.140 of the Revised Missouri Statutes is amended, to read as follows:

21.140. Each senator and representative shall receive from the treasury an annual salary of [eighteen thousand seventy-eight dollars] fifty thousand dollars, effective the first day of January, 2017, plus any salary adjustment provided pursuant to section 105.005, after the first day of January, 2018. The speaker of the house and the president pro tem of the senate shall each receive as additional annual compensation the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars, and the speaker pro tem of the house and the majority and minority floor leaders of the house and senate shall each receive as additional annual compensation the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars. Upon certification by the president and secretary of the senate and by the speaker and clerk of the house of representatives as to the respective members thereof, the commissioner of administration shall audit and the state treasurer shall pay such compensation. Senators and representatives shall receive, weekly, a mileage allowance as provided by law for state employees, in going to their place of meeting in Jefferson City from their place of residence, and returning from their place of meeting in Jefferson City to their place of residence while the legislature is in session, on the most usual route, if the senator or representative does travel to Jefferson City during that week.
