Statement of the Case

This action was commenced befor a Justice of the peace. The Constable executed the summons in the usual & proper manner by having a copy but did not set out a full return on the writ At the return day Defendant appeared, and wanted the cause continued for want of a witness, but shewed no deligence to get him & his application was refused, and the cause tried by Justice from whose Judgment Dft appealed On the appeal in the Circuit Court Defendant moved to dismiss the suit for the want of Jurisdiction in Justice because the return of the Constable was informal Plaintiff then introduced the constable and offered to amend his return (see amended return) according to the facts, and the Court refused to permit plaintiff to amend it & dismissed the suit to which ~~Dft~~ Plff excepted

For the reversal of this Judgment the Plaintiff relies upon the 13th Section in the 8th art Justices Courts page 670 of the Stat of 1845 as well as upon Common sense and Justice
