Title 19—DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SENIOR SERVICES

Chapter 4—Coordinated Health Care Services

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the Department of Health and Senior Services under section 191.411.1, RSMo 2016, the department adopts a rule as follows:

19 CSR 10-4.020 J-1 Visa Waiver Program is adopted.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed rule was published in the Missouri Register on November 1, 2019 (44 MoReg 2689-2690). No changes have been made in the text of the proposed rule, so it is not reprinted here. This proposed rule becomes effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Code of State Regulations.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: The Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) received five (5) letters of which contained seven (7) comments on the proposed rule.

COMMENT #1: The Citizens Memorial Hospital District commented that Health Professional Shortage Areas (HPSA) are only one data point and may be unreliable in determining healthcare needs in a community.

RESPONSE: This comment does not contain any specific recommendations or concerns regarding any of the language in the proposed rule. According to the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA), HPSAs are federal scores given to areas “with a shortage in primary care, dental health, or mental health. These shortages may be geographic-, population-, or facility-based.” Applications must be submitted to HRSA and reviewed to determine if they meet eligibility criteria for designation, at which point a score will be received. Following federal guidelines through a process designed to meet the health needs of high-need areas is a valid and reliable way to ensure that the areas of high-need are being met in the state of Missouri. Therefore no change has been made to the proposed rule based on this comment.

COMMENT #2: The Citizens Memorial Hospital District commented that relying primarily on HPSA may lead to a disproportionate number of J-1 waivers being allocated to very few areas of the state. RESPONSE: The department finds that following federal guidelines through a process designed to meet the health needs of high-need areas is a valid and reliable way to ensure that the areas of high-need are being met in the state of Missouri. Therefore no change has been made to the proposed rule based on this comment.

COMMENT #3: The Citizens Memorial Hospital District commented that if all of the J-1 waivers went to one or two communities in Missouri due to the new HPSA criteria, one unintended consequence could be the inability for other providers across the state to get even one waiver for a desperately needed service.

RESPONSE: The department finds that following federal guidelines through a process designed to meet the health needs of high-need areas is a valid and reliable way to ensure that the areas of high-need are being met in the state of Missouri. Therefore no change has been made to the proposed rule based on this comment.

COMMENT #4: Donald J. Babb, CEO of Citizens Memorial Hospital District, and Steven Zweig, Interim Dean of the University of Missouri, commented that the proposed rule places an undue emphasis on primary care HPSA scores and that the following factors are better indicators in selection of the need for a specialist to receive a waiver: Lack of specialty in the service area; number of open positions; length of time and difficulty to fill open specialist positions; wait times to see new and existing patients; number of patients on Medicaid and Medicare; number of uninsured patients; and number of veterans served.

RESPONSE: The department finds that following federal guidelines through a process designed to meet the health needs of high-need areas is a valid and reliable way to ensure that the areas of high-need are being met in the state of Missouri. Therefore no change has been made to the proposed rule based on this comment.

COMMENT #5: Steven Zweig, Interim Dean of the University of Missouri, and Mark T. Steele, Executive Medical Director of University Health Physicians, commented that the proposed rule would change existing practice of the Agency of referring employers who qualify for Health and Human Services (HHS) and Delta Regional Authority (DRA) waiver to one of those programs to maximize the usage of the thirty (30) Conrad waivers.

RESPONSE: The waiver programs above are both options for many applicants. The applicants who do not get recommended by the department under the Conrad thirty (30) waivers have the opportunity to apply in either of the other programs to fulfill the requirements for a J-1 visa. The Conrad thirty (30) waivers are given to the state, which holds full discretion in how they are distributed. There are only thirty (30) slots available for applicants to apply and be selected. There is no guarantee of a recommendation for any applicants, however, primary care physicians have highest priority under Missouri’s selection criteria.

COMMENT #6: Steven Zweig, Interim Dean of the University of Missouri, commented that the proposed rule needs to be revised to either use a wide range of factors or provide some discretion in selection of J-1 waivers for specialists, or provide academic health systems with preference over other employers if waiver slots are available for specialist physicians.

RESPONSE: The department finds that following federal guidelines through a process designed to meet the health needs of high-need areas is a valid and reliable way to ensure that the areas of high-need are being met in the state of Missouri. Therefore no change has been made to the proposed rule based on this comment.

COMMENT #7: Steven Zweig, Interim Dean of the University of Missouri, commented that the department should have the ability under the emergency regulation to allocate slots to specialists who will be employed by a tier one safety net hospital (or its primary affiliated schools of medicine).

RESPONSE: The department finds that following federal guidelines through a process designed to meet the health needs of high-need areas is a valid and reliable way to ensure that the areas of high-need are being met in the state of Missouri. Therefore no change has been made to the proposed rule based on this comment.
