Title 11—DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY Division 45—Missouri Gaming Commission Chapter 5—Conduct of Gaming

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the Missouri Gaming Commission under section 313.805, RSMo Supp. 2013, the commission amends a rule as follows:

11 CSR 45-5.070 is amended.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed amendment was published in the Missouri Register on December 15, 2015 (40 MoReg 1878–1879). Changes have been made to the text of the proposed amendment, so it is reprinted here. This proposed amendment becomes effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Code of State Regulations.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: A public hearing was held on this proposed amendment on January 20, 2016. Two (2) people attended the public hearing. Michael Gold submitted written comments by mail; he also provided oral comments at the public hearing. One (1) comment was also received from an MGC staff member.

Comments #1-6 were provided both orally and written. Comments #7-8 were provided orally at the public hearing. Comment # 9 was provided by an MGC staff member.

COMMENT #1: Mr. Gold suggested the language be changed to require the payout percentage signs to be posted at each entrance to the gaming floor instead of at one (1) entrance.

RESPONSE AND EXPLANATION OF CHANGE: The commission agrees with the suggestion and made the requested change.

COMMENT #2: Mr. Gold suggested the language be changed to require the payout percentage signs to be posted at each cage, instead of at the main cashier cage.

RESPONSE AND EXPLANATION OF CHANGE: The commission agrees with the suggestion and revised the language to require the sign to be displayed at each cage that redeems tickets.

COMMENT #3: Mr. Gold suggested the rule should include a detailed description of the location, size, shape, color of the background, font type, font size, font color, and that the font color must be sharply contrasting to the display background color on the payout percentage display signs. He also suggested the rule should describe the manner in which the payout percentage sign shall be displayed (hung, mounted, or freestanding). He stated that by adding the descriptions, the subjectivity of the word "conspicuously" could be eliminated or reduced.

RESPONSE: Commission staff believes the language of the proposed rule and the changes made in response to other comments are sufficient to ensure that the signs will be clearly visible to patrons. No changes have been made to the proposed amendment as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #4: Mr. Gold noted the proposed language did not include a schedule for the Missouri Gaming Commission to inspect the signs, a schedule of penalties when a casino fails to comply with 11 CSR 45-5.070, and the procedure by which compliance or noncompliance would be determined by the Missouri Gaming Commission. He included examples and photographs of payout percentage signs.

RESPONSE: The purpose of the regulations is to set out standards for the Class B Licensee when conducting business in the State of Missouri. MGC is tasked with monitoring compliance, enforcing the regulations, and administering disciplinary action when appropriate. Making the suggested changes would eliminate the discretion afforded the commission in carrying out its duties. No changes have been made to the proposed amendment as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #5: Mr. Gold suggested the rule be changed to require the casinos to post the slot hold for one (1) cent machines and the aggregate slot hold for all other denominations of slot machines, instead of the aggregate payout percentage for all slot machines. He reasoned this would draw attention to the fact that the hold on one (1) cent machines is typically twice the aggregate hold of the other denominations of slot machines. He also noted he believes patrons have a better understanding of the "hold percentage" rather than the "payout percentage." He submitted examples illustrating the hold and payout percentage for each denomination of slot machines for casinos in Missouri.

RESPONSE: The commission believes patrons better understand the meaning of the term "payout percentage" because it is self-explanatory and is the term most commonly used, whereas the term "hold percentage" is more of an industry term used by casino management. Additionally, the use of the term "payout percentage" is consistent with other gaming statutes and regulations. No changes have been made to the proposed amendment as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #6: Mr. Gold suggested the statement, "For more information on payout percentages by denomination visit www.mgc.dps.mo.gov", be removed from the payout percentage signs for the following reasons: 1) his belief that the sign should show the hold for one (1) cent slot machines and the aggregate slot hold for all other denominations of slot machines; 2) his belief that casino patrons without access to the internet would be treated unequally to those patrons who have access to an internet connection; and 3) his belief that this suggested language is the Missouri Gaming Commission's attempt to establish its website and everything contained thereon to be "common knowledge."

RESPONSE: The commission believes this language is necessary for patrons who do have Internet access and may be interested in this information. In addition, it is consistent with the State's e-government initiative to provide web-based services to the public. No changes have been made to the proposed amendment as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #7: Mr. Gold suggested the rule be changed to require the casinos to print on the back of the slot machine tickets the hold percentages for slot machines for the prior two (2) months.

RESPONSE: The commission believes making this change would be cost-prohibitive, in light of any possible benefit gained. Furthermore, this information is available on the commission's website (mgc.dps.mo.gov). No changes have been made to the proposed amendment as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #8: Mr. Gold requested that the rule be withdrawn until the commission can conduct further review and the rule can be completely reworked.

RESPONSE: The commission began the process of amending this regulation specifically in response to a written request from this commenter. To withdraw the rule at this time would result in further delays in revising this regulation. The commission already has the relevant information necessary to propose the amendment. No changes have been made to the proposed amendment as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #9: An MGC staff member recommended removing "on the front of" from the first sentence to allow the signs to be conspicuously placed as required by the proposed last sentence since the design of each cage is unique and not all cages could have the sign conspicuously placed on the front of the cage.

RESPONSE AND EXPLANATION OF CHANGE: The commission agrees and the change was made as requested.

11 CSR 45-5.070 Payout Percentage for Electronic Gaming Devices

(1) A holder of a Class B license shall, by the tenth day of each calendar month, display signage containing the actual aggregate payout percentage to the nearest one-tenth percent (0.1%) of all the electronic gaming devices in operation during the previous month and the following statement "For more information on payout percentages by denomination visit www.mgc.dps.mo.gov." The signs shall be conspicuously placed so they can be readily seen by patrons at each patron entrance to the gaming floor and at each cashier cage that redeems tickets.

Title 11—DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY Division 45—Missouri Gaming Commission Chapter 9—Internal Control System

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

11 CSR 45-9.117 Minimum Internal Control Standards (MICS)—Chapter Q is amended.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed amendment was published in the Missouri Register on December 15, 2015 (40 MoReg 1879). No changes have been made to the Minimum Internal Control Standards (MICS) as incorporated by reference in Chapter Q. No changes have been made to the text of the proposed amendment, so it is not reprinted here. This proposed amendment becomes effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Code of State Regulations.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: A public hearing was held on this proposed amendment on January 20, 2016. Two (2) people attended the public hearing. No comments were made at the public hearing and no written comments were received.

Title 15—ELECTED OFFICIALS Division 60—Attorney General Chapter 8—Unfair Practices

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the attorney general under section 407.020, RSMo Supp. 2014, and section 407.145, RSMo 2000, the attorney general adopts a rule as follows:

15 CSR 60-8.100 is adopted.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed rule was published in the Missouri Register on January 15, 2016 (41 MoReg 93). The subsection with changes is reprinted here. This proposed rule becomes effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Code of State Regulations.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: The attorney general received eight (8) comments on the proposed rule.

COMMENT #1: Sheryl Wright, Encore Capitol Group, supports the proposed rule and states that applying its definition of unfair practice to the entire debt collection industry will protect consumers.

RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #2: William R. Bartmann, CFS2 Inc., "strongly supports" protecting consumers from the harm caused by abusive debt collection practices as outlined in the proposed rule.

RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #3: Gina Chiala, Heartland Center for Jobs and Freedom, and Dale K. Irwin, Slough Connealy Irwin & Madden, support the proposed rule and suggest it be amended in part "to declare all lawsuits for debts not actually owed an unfair practice."

RESPONSE: The suggested change would sweep too broadly by rendering every unsuccessful prosecution of debt an unfair practice, thereby upsetting the fair balance the proposed rule attempts to strike between fairness to consumers and legitimate debt collection practices. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #4: Donald A. Horowitz, Missouri Creditors Bar, Inc., opposes the rule on three (3) primary bases. First, the comment asserts that the rule exceeds the scope of the Attorney General's authority under the Missouri Merchandising Practices Act (MMPA) in Chapter 407, RSMo. Second, the comment notes that consumers already have other adequate remedies available to protect them from the practices outlined in the rule. Third, the comment concludes that subsection (1)(C) is "vague" and should be amended to clarify what is not covered by that subsection.

RESPONSE AND EXPLANATION OF CHANGE: First, the comment cites an appellate court case, State ex rel. Koster v. Portfolio Recovery Associates, LLC, 351 S.W.3d 661 (Mo. App. 2011), as the basis for its position that the rule exceeds the scope of the MMPA. The Supreme Court expressly overruled that case in Conway v. CitiMortgage, Inc., 438 S.W.3d 410, 415-16 (Mo. 2014), holding that loan collection procedures, whether initiated by a loan originator or a loan servicer, are subject to the MMPA. Second, cases interpreting the MMPA and the plain statutory language of the MMPA indicate that it is intended as a supplement to other remedies consumers may have available individually, in addition to authorizing the attorney general to protect consumers by bringing a civil action or filing criminal charges. Third, as the proposed rule states, if a court with jurisdiction holds a contract or related debt void, filing or threatening to file a civil action on the basis of that debt is an unfair practice. The language in the proposed rule is not vague. However, we have added the phrase "or unenforceable" following "void" to subsection (1)(C) to address this concern.

COMMENT #5: The Center for Responsible Lending supports the proposed rule and suggests amending it by adding language declaring it an unfair practice: 1) "if such lender threatens or commences a collection lawsuit against a consumer with no intent of bringing such lawsuit or proving the debt;" and 2) "for any person to assess fees and interest above the usury limit without written documentation evidencing an agreement to pay the higher interest or fees."

RESPONSE: The first suggested change limits its impact to the "lender" and adds an intent element otherwise not present. In contrast, the proposed rule applies to any individual or corporation acting in the proscribed manner and avoids adding the evidentiary hurdles associated with proving intent. The second suggested change does not address the propriety of bringing a particular civil action and therefore is beyond the targeted conduct of this proposed rule. Additionally, section 408.020, RSMo already caps interest rates at nine percent (9%) per annum except when another rate has been agreed to by the parties. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #6: Susan K. Lutton, Mid-Missouri Legal Services Corporation, supports the rule and states that it would preclude hundreds, if not thousands, of unfair and financially crippling debt collection cases and related judgments obtained by creditors against low-income Missouri debtors each year.

RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #7: Robert L. Swearingen, Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, Inc., supports the rule, stating that it will "even the playing field and protect consumers from abusive debt collection practices." RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #8: Montague Simmons, Organization for Black Struggle; Rev. Dr. Cassandra Gould, Missouri Faith Voices; Nancy Cross, SEIU MO/KS State Council; Barbara Paulus, Women's Voices Raised for Social Justice; Joan Bray, Consumers Council of Missouri; Rev. Karen Anderson, Metropolitan Congregations United; Jeanette Mott Oxford, Empower Missouri; Bradley Harmon, Communications Workers of America Local 6355; Rev. Michelle Scott-Huffman, Faith Voices for Jefferson City; and Rev. Susan G. McCann, Communities Creating Opportunity, "support strong new laws to prevent unfair debt collection practices in our state," "appreciate the Attorney General's efforts to make rules aimed at stopping ... unfair practices," and suggest amending the proposed rule. They support the rule's application to debt "that is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes" and suggest that it be amended to apply to debt from "credit cards, medical bills, utility bills and others." They also suggest adding language declaring it an unfair practice to bring "lawsuits without ever intending to actually prove they owned the debt or the debt was owed."

Orders of Rulemaking

RESPONSE: By its own terms, the MMPA applies to "objects, wares, goods, commodities, intangibles, real estate [and] services" so the first suggested change would be redundant. As written, the proposed rule avoids the evidentiary hurdles associated with proving intent. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment

15 CSR 60-8.100 Threatening to File or Filing Suit on Certain Consumer Debt

- (1) It is an unfair practice for any person to threaten to file a civil action, or to file a civil action, for a debt that is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, if such debt has been—
- (C) Declared void or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

Title 15—ELECTED OFFICIALS Division 60—Attorney General Chapter 8—Unfair Practices

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the attorney general under section 407.020, RSMo Supp. 2014, and section 407.145, RSMo 2000, the attorney general adopts a rule as follows:

15 CSR 60-8.110 is adopted.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed rule was published in the Missouri Register on January 15, 2016 (41 MoReg 93). The subsection with changes is reprinted here. This proposed rule becomes effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Code of State Regulations.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: The attorney general received eight (8) comments on the proposed rule.

COMMENT #1: Sheryl Wright, Encore Capitol Group, supports the proposed rule and states that applying its definition of unfair practice to the entire debt collection industry will protect consumers.

RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #2: William R. Bartmann, CFS2 Inc., "strongly supports" protecting consumers from the harm caused by abusive debt collection practices as outlined in the proposed rule. He suggests the proposed rule be amended to include a "'bright-line' definition of 'valuable consideration'" to protect against debt collectors who interpret that phrase to mean "something nominal in value."

RESPONSE: Based upon their plain meaning, particularly in a legal context, "something nominal in value" does not equate "valuable consideration." What constitutes "valuable consideration" depends in whole or in part upon the circumstances of the particular parties and transaction in question such that a bright-line test would be impracticable. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #3: Gina Chiala, Heartland Center for Jobs and Freedom, and Dale K. Irwin, Slough Connealy Irwin & Madden, support the proposed rule and suggest it be amended in part "to declare all lawsuits for debts not actually owed an unfair practice." RESPONSE: The suggested change would sweep too broadly by rendering every unsuccessful prosecution of debt an unfair practice, thereby upsetting the fair balance the proposed rule attempts to strike between fairness to consumers and legitimate debt collection practices. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #4: Donald A. Horowitz, Missouri Creditors Bar, Inc., opposes the rule on three (3) primary bases. First, it asserts that the rule exceeds the scope of the Attorney General's authority under the Missouri Merchandising Practices Act (MMPA) in Chapter 407, RSMo. Second, it notes that consumers already have other adequate remedies available to protect them from the practices outlined in the rule. Third, it concludes that subsection (1)(C) is "vague" and should be amended to clarify what is not covered by that subsection.

RESPONSE AND EXPLANATION OF CHANGE: First, the comment cites an appellate court case, State ex rel. Koster v. Portfolio Recovery Associates, LLC, 351 S.W.3d 661 (Mo. App. 2011), as the basis for its position that the rule exceeds the scope of the MMPA. The Supreme Court expressly overruled that case in Conway v. CitiMortgage, Inc., 438 S.W.3d 410, 415-16 (Mo. 2014), holding that loan collection procedures, whether initiated by a loan originator or a loan servicer, are subject to the MMPA. Second, cases interpreting the MMPA and the plain statutory language of the MMPA indicate that it is intended as a supplement to other remedies consumers may have available individually, in addition to authorizing the attorney general to protect consumers by bringing a civil action or filing criminal charges. Third, as the proposed rule states, if a court with jurisdiction holds a contract or related debt void, filing or threatening to file a civil action on the basis of that debt is an unfair practice. The language in the proposed rule is not vague. However, we have added the phrase "or unenforceable" following "void" in subsection (1)(C) to address this concern.

COMMENT #5: The Center for Responsible Lending supports "strong rules against unfair practices" and suggests amending the proposed rule by striking the phrase "to seek or obtain without valuable consideration a reaffirmation of" and replacing it with "to sue, collect, or attempt to collect."

RESPONSE: Adopting the proposed changes would render this rule nearly identical to proposed rule 15 CSR 60-8.100. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #6: Susan K. Lutton, Mid-Missouri Legal Services Corporation, supports the rule and states that it would preclude hundreds, if not thousands, of unfair and financially crippling debt collection cases and related judgments obtained by creditors against low-income Missouri debtors each year.

RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #7: Robert L. Swearingen, Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, Inc., supports the rule, stating that it will "even the playing field and protect consumers from abusive debt collection practices." RESPONSE: No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

COMMENT #8: Montague Simmons, Organization for Black Struggle; Rev. Dr. Cassandra Gould, Missouri Faith Voices; Nancy Cross, SEIU MO/KS State Council; Barbara Paulus, Women's Voices Raised for Social Justice; Joan Bray, Consumers Council of Missouri; Rev. Karen Anderson, Metropolitan Congregations United; Jeanette Mott Oxford, Empower Missouri; Bradley Harmon, Communications Workers of America Local 6355; Rev. Michelle Scott-Huffman, Faith Voices for Jefferson City; and Rev. Susan G. McCann, Communities Creating Opportunity, "support strong new laws to prevent unfair debt collection practices in our state," "appreciate the Attorney General's efforts to make rules aimed at stopping ... unfair practices," and suggest amending the proposed rule. They would change the proposed rule to "prohibit the resurrection of debt that a borrower clearly does not owe" and suggest changing the rule so that it applies to "any"

RESPONSE: The proposed rule does "prohibit the resurrection of debt that a borrower clearly does not owe" by expressly prohibiting reaffirmation of four (4) categories of non-existent debt. Because the rule is promulgated pursuant to the MMPA, its scope is coterminous with the MMPA's broad reach yet it cannot be extended to all debt. No changes have been made to the rule as a result of this comment.

15 CSR 60-8.110 Reaffirmation of Consumer Debt Without Valuable Consideration

- (1) It is unfair practice to seek or obtain without valuable consideration a reaffirmation of an obligation arising out of any debt that is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and—
- (C) That has been declared void or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction; or
