Explanation—The term "Manufacturing Industry" must be understood to include not only all factories and large works, but also the mechanical trades, such as blacksmithing, carpentering, etc. The smaller shop should not be omitted, provided the production reaches 50% annually, including at cost of materials. Enumeration will take place in each of the manufacturing establishments, large and small, within the county limits.

Characteristics—The kind of business or the character of product should be described in such a way as to be understood, that is, Sealing Machine, Chrome, Patina, etc. Printers and compositorial workers should not be included. In its new edition it will not be the same.

Characteristics—All the businesses of the above should be included in one of the classes from 1 to 10. If the total is 30 or more, it is a large business, as defined in the schedule for unincorporated trades where less than 30 months over 3 months is 11.

Characteristics—Each business is governed by its nature and trade. Some trades are of great importance. Some are not. The character of the product should be shown in such a way as to enable it to be easily included. In this case, where small shops producing goods of a similar nature, the number of the product should be the primary consideration of the shop.

Characteristics—In the case of goods produced, or being sold, for the neighborhood only, the value of the product should be the primary consideration of the shop.

Characteristics—In the case of small shops producing goods, or being sold, for the neighborhood only, the value of the product should be included.
