Cypress trees cut to make room for canals that would drain the bootheel swamps, 1915.

Missouri State Archives
ANALYZING PHOTOGRAPHS & PRINTS

OBSERVE

Study the picture closely. Describe what you see.

_________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

What details can you identify? Use the chart below to list people, objects, and activities.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>People</th>
<th>Objects</th>
<th>Activities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

REFLECT

What clues are there as to the date of this photo/print? ____________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Who or what do you think is the subject of this photo/print? _______________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Why do you think this photo/print was created? _________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Where might you expect to find this photo/print? _______________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Based on what you have observed list 3 things you might learn from the image.

1. _______________________________________________________________________________________

2. _______________________________________________________________________________________

3. _______________________________________________________________________________________

QUESTION

What questions does this photo/print raise? _____________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Where could you find answers to them? ____________________________