HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Edwin William Stephens (1849-1931) was a well-known newspaper publisher in Columbia, Boone County, Missouri. He also was Chair of the Capitol Commission during the planning and construction of Missouri's new Capitol Building after a 1911 fire destroyed the previous one. He attended the capping of the dome on December 5, 1916 as part of his Commissioner duties.

SERIES

Ephemera, 1916

Scope and Content

This is one of the trowels used in capping the Capitol dome. The underside of the trowel is rusted. For photographs of the ceremony, see RG395 State Capitol Commission Photographs. Photographs of the trowel itself are available on Manuscript DVD #1 in the Reference Room.

The trowel was put on display in the Capitol Rotunda on January 4, 2017 as part of the 100th anniversary of the dome capping (12/5/2016) celebration. The celebration was organized by the State Capitol Commission. The box also includes the signage used for the 100th anniversary exhibit.
