HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Ida Blanche Shaeffer was born in Columbus, Mississippi on April 18, 1879 to Charles and Alice (Smith) Shaeffer. Between 1880 and 1900 the family moved to Sedalia, Pettis County, Missouri. Blanche married Frank Sayre Leach on October 8, 1902 in Sedalia. The couple had no children.

Blanche – nearly always referred to as “Mrs. Frank Leach” – became a renowned choreographer and director of pageants. By the 1920s she was the sought-after director for many state functions that would involve pageantry of any kind, pageantry being public performances of song, dance, poetry, parades, etc. Mrs. Leach participated in the Missouri Centennial performance at the State Fair in August 1921, attended by thousands individuals and involving hundreds performers. She served as one of two pageant queens: the Queen of Missouri.

Many other engagements took place in Hannibal, MO, Paris, MO, Norfolk, VA, St. Louis, MO, Stroudsburg, PA and Miami, FL. Blanche Leach died March 9, 1959 in Sedalia.

The Capitol Dedication Pageant was divided into five parts: a prologue and four epochs.

Prologue:

Features a woman dressed as the “Spirit of Jefferson City” accompanied by the four epoch queens and a children’s choir.

Epoch One: Epoch of the Pioneer

Picturing the early settling of the Louisiana and Missouri Territories, presided over by Mrs. Herbert S. Hadley, wife of the former Governor.

Epoch Two: Epoch of Development

Showing the growth of the state after settlement, presided over by Mrs. Elliott W. Major, wife of the current Governor.

Epoch Three: Epoch of the World War

Depiction of war scenes, presided by Mrs. Frederick D. Gardner.

Epoch Four: Epoch of Progress

An attempt to exhibit the rapid strides toward a greater civilization that have been taken in the past few years, presided by Mrs. Arthur M. Hyde.

Rain, thunder, and lightning cut the pageant short at the end of Epoch Three. The pageant closed with a fireworks display.
