HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

This collection portrays life in South Missouri during the first part of the 20th Century. Images feature the Gregory family from Grandin, Carter County. Richman “Lipsy” Gregory (1876-1968) worked for the Missouri Lumber and Mining Company out of Grandin and may also have spent time with the Mid-Continent Iron Company, which is also in Carter County. Images include logging machinery and products, country stores, cattle, and family.
