HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

These postcards were collected by Fred D. Grobe (1888-1969) of Springfield, MO and donated to the Archives by his daughter Mary Alice (Grobe) Hansen (1924-2007). Grobe moved from Springfield to Carrolton, MO and then to Reno County, Kansas sometime before World War I. He served in the War as a Kansan with the 163rd Depot Brigade. Grobe worked as a high school teacher.

SERIES

Postcards, 1880-1915

Scope and Content

The postcards cover several towns and cities in Missouri; all are pre-1922 and public domain. They range from black and white lithographs to colorized photos and lithographs. A few of the postcards have messages and postmarks on the back. Cities are Hollister, Springfield, Joplin, Webb City, Columbia, Monett, Branson, Nevada, Trenton, St. Charles, and St. Louis.

These postcards have been digitized and are available as TIFFs and JPGs on the Z Drive. Images are also on Missouri Digital Heritage at http://www.sos.mo.gov/archives/mdh_splash/default.asp?coll=hansen, and ten selected images are on Flickr.
