HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

These small cards were collected for E.C. Steele and his wife. Jasper County Representative D.A. Preston (elected in 1880) presented them as a gift to the Steeles “as a slight token of many favors received.” Erben C. Steele (1847-1901) was a lawyer from Wright County who also served as a Representative in the State Legislature in 1874, 1876, 1880 and 1884. Steele was a Radical Republican. Most of the portraits in this collection are of Republicans.
