HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

John Henry Otto Kroeger was born April 6, 1884 in Jefferson City, Missouri. For a time (roughly 1901-1909) he lived in Elgin, Illinois after the death of his father in 1900. Otto, as he was called, moved back to Jefferson City. He married Catherine "Kate" Heislen on November 21, 1911. Together they had five children and lived in a home on Mulberry Street. Professionally, Kroeger was a mail carrier and he worked in that capacity until his retirement on May 31, 1944. He dabbled in photography in his free time. This collection contains many of Kroeger's images from roughly 1910 to 1951 as well as historic images by other photographers that he collected. Some of his portraits of family members and friends are quite humorous, especially for this time period when most other contemporary photos feature serious-faced individuals. Kroeger died on February 28, 1957 and is buried in St. Peter's Cemetery in Jefferson City.
