HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

The A. Priesmeyer Shoe Company opened in 1874 in Jefferson City with John Tweedie as manager. By the 1910s, the company employed 420 operators and had the capacity to produce 2,000 pairs of shoes daily. It was one of several shoe factories in Jefferson City and up until 1915 used prisoners of the Missouri State Penitentiary as labor. The prison side of the factory closed and a new building on 108 Jefferson Street was opened. This collection includes photographs of this Jefferson Street site taken in 1918. A few years after these photos were taken, the company was re-named Tweedie Footwear Corporation with Charles Tweedie as owner.
