HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

The donor's father Leonard Johnson worked for Brunson Construction, which was based out of Cape Girardeau, MO. Brunson received one of the contracts to build the Hotel Governor in Jefferson City, which was designed by or for William C. Berberich of St. Louis. Construction began at 200 Madison Street in March 1941 and was completed in 1942. Construction was briefly halted during the summer of 1941 because of a steel workers' strike in St. Louis. The building opened for business on September 4, 1942.

Hotel Governor was abandoned in 1988. The State of Missouri acquired it in 1993 and renovated it, turning it into state offices. The State Public Service Commission takes up a majority of the space.

During Johnson's time in Jefferson City, the Construction Company was also contracted to build Mitchell Hall on the campus of Lincoln University.
