Historical and Biographical Notes

John David Ashcroft was born in Chicago, Illinois on May 9, 1942 to James Robert Ashcroft and Grace Larsen. He attended Springfield, Missouri public schools and graduated in 1964 from Yale University. Ashcroft received a law degree in 1967 from the University of Chicago School of Law and was admitted to the Missouri Bar. He married Janet E. Roede in 1967 and they have three children. The couple returned to Springfield, practiced law together, and taught on the business faculty at Missouri State University.

Ashcroft lost his first Congressional campaign in 1972 in the Republican primary. He was appointed to fill an unexpired term in the to the office of State Auditor in 1972 by Governor Kit Bond. After Ashcroft was defeated for the same position in the general election in 1974, he was hired by Missouri Attorney General John Danforth as a legal assistant, sharing an office with Clarence Thomas. In 1976, Ashcroft was elected as Missouri Attorney General and served in that position until 1985.

He defeated Ken Rothman in the 1984 gubernatorial election and was sworn in as Missouri's 50th Governor on January 14, 1985. He was re-elected in 1988. As governor, Ashcroft balanced eight consecutive state budgets, created the Department of Health, established the Missouri Scholars Academy and the Bright Flight Scholarship, and implemented the Excellence in Education Act of 1985. He increased funding for local law enforcement, successfully pushed for tougher sentences for gun crimes, and stronger punishment for people who brought guns into schools. Additionally, the Missouri General Assembly enacted hate crimes legislation and passed the Missouri Victim's Bill of Rights.

John Danforth retired from the U. S. Senate in 1994 and Ashcroft successfully ran for the open seat. Ashcroft served on the Senate Judiciary Committee and as chairman of the Constitution Committee. Ashcroft was defeated for re-election in the 2000 campaign. President-elect George W. Bush nominated Ashcroft as U. S. Attorney General. He was confirmed by the Senate and served from 2001 through 2005. After resigning on February 3, 2005, Ashcroft formed the Ashcroft Group, a Washington lobbying firm.

Extraditions: Foreign and Domestic, 1985-1993

Extent: 30 cubic feet (75 Hollinger boxes)

Arrangement: Chronological order by year; domestic extraditions are listed first in alphabetical order by surname of person to be extradited, followed by foreign extraditions in alphabetical order by surname of person to be extradited. Some names appear a second time in the “Miscellaneous Waivers of Extradition” files.

Scope and Content

This series consists of Foreign and Domestic Extraditions. Foreign Extraditions are the requests made by Governors of other states to Missouri for the return of criminals; Domestic Extraditions are requests made by Missouri's governor for the same.

Some materials may include Social Security numbers. Staff will provide this information in an alternative format.

Judicial Appointments, 1985-1992

Extent: 1.2 cubic feet (3 Hollinger boxes)

Arrangement: Alphabetical.

Scope and Content

This series contains the records of appointments, resignations, and other correspondence to or about judicial offices; included are circuit courts and appellate courts. Information includes applications, resumes, certificates of nomination, and miscellaneous correspondence, including letters of recommendation.

Following the gubernatorial appointment notices are documents pertaining to the appointee; if a certificate of nomination from the nominating judicial commission is included and indicates the other two nominees, the document regarding those nominees follows the appointee information.

In addition, there are several folders containing miscellaneous certificates of nomination and applications where it could not be determined if the nominee was appointed to a position or simply applied. (Some of the persons from the appointee group are included here; however, the miscellaneous applications are the applications from which the appointments were made. These may also reflect earlier attempts to secure appointments to judicial positions.) Appointments are arranged alphabetically by name of nominee.

There is also a folder of judicial resignations.

Some materials may include Social Security numbers. Staff will provide this information in an alternative format.
