Historical and Biographical Notes

Born August 24, 1949, in Kansas City, Robert “Bob” Lee Holden, Jr., was raised on a farm in the Ozarks near Birch Tree, where he attended a one-room schoolhouse. In 1973, he graduated from Southwest Missouri State University with a degree in political science. He met his wife Lori Hauser Holden of Aurora during his first campaign for state representative and they married in December 1983.

Bob Holden served as a Democrat in the Missouri House of Representatives from 1983 until 1989. In 1992 and again in 1996, he was elected as state treasurer. In 2000, he narrowly defeated Republican Jim Talent for the position as governor. In 2004, he was defeated in the primary by fellow Democrat Claire McCaskill, who was in turn defeated by Republican Matt Blunt in the general election.

During his tenure as governor, Holden was confronted with the aftermath of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001, and the subsequent recession. To offset education cuts, he attempted to access the Rainy Day Fund, last used for the Flood of 1993, but was prevented by the General Assembly. By executive order, he gave collective bargaining rights to state workers, a contentious move later overturned by his successor. After a failed ballot measure on concealed weapons, the General Assembly passed legislation to allow concealed carry. Holden vetoed the bill but it was overridden and became law.

Some of the issues Holden championed during his administration included child welfare reform, children’s health (MC+), education, Medicaid, prescription drugs (Senior Rx), and women’s health. Initiatives of First Lady Lori Hauser Holden included breast cancer awareness, the Missouri commemorative quarter, and the operations of the Governor’s mansion.

Scope and Content

This series includes gubernatorial correspondence, including appointment, general, letters signed by the governor, requests for prosecutorial aid, State of Missouri/DC Office, student letters, and first lady correspondence.

The files labeled as general correspondence were broken into months in the original accession and have been maintained as such; they contain constituent, departmental, federal, and legislative correspondence. Some have copies of outgoing replies from the governor's office. The correspondence may be filed by date sent, date received, or date replied to (on cover letter).

Requests for prosecutorial aid usually comprise two documents. First, letters from county prosecutors requesting aid from the attorney general's office in special cases beyond their capability to prosecute, such as in murder and drug cases. Second, copies of letters from the governor (per RSMo 27.030), directing the attorney general to grant aid.

State of MO/Washington, DC correspondence includes copies of letters to and from Holden, mostly on federal matters such as the Missouri River, education, ethanol, methamphetamine, nuclear waste, and emergency grants to help laid-off American Airlines workers. The large cache of documents on Medicaid reform was removed to the Subject Files, as were those related to governors' associations. A small number of event/meeting briefing memos to prepare Holden for meetings in Washington DC in the year 2001 are also found in this series.

The correspondence of First Lady Lori Hauser Holden includes mostly letters from students, particularly thanking her for working with Leadership to Keep Children Alcohol Free.

Execution Files, 1993-2004

Extent: 0.8 cubic ft. (1 Hollinger box and 2 partials)

Arrangement: Alphabetical by surname

Scope and Content

This series relates to death penalty cases reviewed by the governor's legal staff, including many extending back to earlier administrations. Not all sentences were carried out; some were overturned by the courts, sent to retrial, commuted to lesser sentences, or pardoned.

A file may contain one or more of the following: applications for clemency and supporting documentation; correspondence; warrants and stays of execution; victim, inmate, and gubernatorial statements; witness lists for the execution; and recommendations and investigations by the Board of Probation and Parole. All copies of court records were purged except for warrants/stays and those included within the actual clemency application.

Some of the documents in these files (marked Restricted) may be viewed only at the discretion of the Reference Services Manager. These records include attorney-client work product, lawyer disbarment records, psychological or medical test results, and Social Security Numbers.

See the series Pardons for executive clemency files for prisoners in non-capital cases.

Itineraries, 2001-2005

Extent: 9.7 cubic ft. (23 Hollinger boxes and 2 partials)

Arrangement: Alphabetical and thereunder chronological

Scope and Content

This series includes daily itineraries, monthly calendars, and travel briefings for specific events for both Governor Holden and First Lady Holden. For the latter, a gap exists from May 17–September 24, 2002, and from November 15, 2002–June 30, 2003.

Daily itineraries show appointments for a span of days; often, although not always, they start with one day's schedule with a tentative schedule for the rest of the week or longer attached. Each folder contains one of these packets printed out together. Dates given are for the first date listed on the itinerary. Occasionally included are invitations, correspondence, event information forms, and travel briefings.

Some of the highlights in this series: Lewis & Clark Bicentennial Commission, including agenda, minutes, policy, work plan proposal, events task force, and Corps of Discovery II federal initiative (First Lady Itinerary: January 9-10, 2002); and a governor's briefing book for the visit of His Royal Highness, the Duke of York (Prince Andrew), including itinerary, biography, protocol, and talking points (Governor Itinerary: October 22, 2003).

Missouri Quarter Files, 1997-2003

Extent: 12.8 cubic ft. (31 Hollinger boxes and 2 partials), 2 flat boxes, and 2 small boxes

Arrangement: Alphabetical and thereunder chronological

Scope and Content

Part of the US Mint's fifty states program, the Missouri commemorative quarter was released in August 2003, amidst controversy over its design. First Lady Lori Hauser Holden headed this initiative, beginning with a call for submissions in early 2001. Out of over 3000 entries, a committee picked twelve finalists: Marvin Brown of Ballwin; Barton Burnell* of Independence; Danielle Renee Critten of Gallatin; Howard D. Franklin of Florissant; Albert Fields* of St. Louis; Charles W. Galli of Florissant; Paul Jackson* of Columbia; Lauren Keller of Mexico; Marybeth Logsdon* of Maryville; Stanze Sneller of Blue Springs; Sarah Wilson of Loose Creek; and Natasha Zerjav* of St. Charles. After a public vote, the list was winnowed down to five (marked * above) and these designs were sent to the US Mint on April 20, 2001.

A year later, the US Mint returned new versions of the five submitted designs. Their artists had redrawn the coins, sometimes radically, even misspelling the previously correctly spelled word Bicentennial. These five designs were put to a public vote and the winner was the simplified entry of Columbia watercolorist Paul Jackson, displaying members of the Lewis & Clark expedition in a canoe under the St. Louis Gateway Arch.

After negotiations on the design, ultimately Jackson's entry, with some elements added from his original design, became the Missouri commemorative quarter. However, the changes were not enough to placate the artist, who placed stickers with his original design on quarters and sold them from his gallery in Columbia. Samples of these coins are found here along with official coins issued at the state fair in Sedalia on August 10, 2003.

Design submissions, the bulk from school children, are arranged by surname. For those whose surnames were left off or were illegible, see the folder: Unknown. The original watercolors submitted by Paul Jackson were framed for a later exhibit at the state capitol and are found in separate flat boxes.

Pardons, 1981-2005

Extent: 0.5 cubic ft. (1 Hollinger boxes and 1 partial)

Arrangement: Alphabetical and chronological

Scope and Content

This series concerns executive clemency for non-capital cases. For capital or death penalty appeals, see the series Execution Files. Clemencies, commonly called pardons, may be one of three types: outright pardon, commutation of sentence, or restoration of civil rights.

Denials of executive clemency include a letter listing those denied and, often, individual summaries and recommendations. At the discretion of the Senior Reference Archivist, Board of Probation and Parole recommendations and investigations may be restricted per RSMo 549.500. Records that include social security numbers (SSNs) of living inmates must be given to patrons in alternate form.

Pardons include a copy of the letter from the governor and either a copy or an original of the pardon. (Originals are also found in the series Pardons from the Commissions Division in Record Group 5.)

Photographs, ca 1994-ca. 2005

Extent: 0.3 cubic ft. (1 partial Hollinger)

Arrangement: Alphabetical

Scope and Content

This series contains a small number of photographs. Most are multiple copies of portrait shots of the governor, his staff, and Missouri's US Representatives and Senators, the vast majority used in the Official Manual (Blue Book). Some portrait photos of Governor Holden are from his tenure as State Treasurer. Only a few events are found here, namely snapshots of the aftermath of the tornado that ripped through Pierce City and Stockton, Missouri, and of an event held at the Governor's Mansion before November 6, 2002, presumably of the Youth Cabinet, which met at the mansion the evening of October 29, 2002.

Proclamations, 2001-2005

Extent: 16.4 cubic ft. (40 Hollinger boxes and 2 partials)

Arrangement: Chronological by month and thereunder alphabetical

Scope and Content

This series contains individually foldered gubernatorial proclamations, likely kept by constituent services. Most of these proclamations are celebratory in nature, often written by the sponsor, for various special events and individual milestones such as anniversaries, birthdays, awards, and retirements. (For the complete, official series filed with the Secretary of State, see Proclamations under Commissions in Record Group 5.)

Some proclamations have supporting documentation and correspondence. Not all files have proclamations; some requests may never have been fulfilled. The date on the folder may indicate date of the request, date of the event, or date of the proclamation.

Scope and Content

This topical series was culled from subject files of the legal counsel and issue files of the governor. Files may include articles, correspondence, briefings, memoranda, reports, or publications. Substantive material can be found on child welfare, Medicaid, malpractice (tort) reform, and prescription drugs.

Of particular note are the records on child welfare reform. The death on August 21, 2002, of Dominic James, a toddler who died in foster care in Greene County, spawned a number of investigations and subsequent legislation. The investigation file on Dominic James was opened by Circuit Judge Miles Sweeney in April 2003, citing legislation that allowed information to be shared when a child dies or is seriously injured.

Two further investigations were opened into Greene County social services and the foster care system in general. Namely, the Missouri Supreme Court's Commission on Children's Justice and a special gubernatorial inquiry headed by Richard C. Dunn and Judge Frank Conley. Both of the final reports are open; however, supporting documentation may be restricted at the discretion of the Senior Records Archivist. In particular, some correspondence, written testimony, and highway patrol interviews are closed to protect the identity of minors or the privacy of informants.

This series also contains records from gubernatorial associations, such as the National Governors Association and the Democratic Governors' Association. In a number of meetings of these associations, the State of Missouri/Washington DC Office put together briefing books for Governor Holden, giving talking points on issues of interest to Missouri and legislative positions of other governors or of the Missouri delegation.
