HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

William Joel Stone was born on May 7, 1848 near Richmond, Madison County, Kentucky, to William and Mildred Ann Phelps Stone. He moved to Boone County, Missouri as a teenager and graduated from the University of Missouri. Admitted to the Missouri Bar in 1869, Stone practiced law briefly in Bedford, Indiana and spent a few months in Columbia, Missouri as the city attorney before settling in Nevada, Vernon County, in 1870. He married Sarah Louise Winston on April 2, 1874.

Stone was elected Vernon County prosecuting attorney in 1872 and held the position until 1874. He was a presidential elector for the Tilden ticket at the Democratic National Convention in 1876. Stone was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1884, serving until 1891.

Stone defeated his Republican opponent William Warner in the 1892 gubernatorial election and was sworn in as Missouri's 28th governor on January 9, 1893. Missouri economic conditions were bleak at the onset of the Stone administration. U.S. gold reserves plummeted and the ensuing financial panic accompanied by the most serious drought recorded to date forced banks, railroads, businesses and family farms into bankruptcy.

The Stone administration paid off the balance of the state's 6% bonds and further reduced state debt. Also during the Stone administration, new facilities at Lincoln Institute in Jefferson City were constructed and the administration building at the University of Missouri, destroyed by fire in 1892, was rebuilt. In 1893, labor reform legislation was passed protecting union workers from harassment by employers. Requirements for mine ventilation were improved in 1895. A new cell block was constructed at the Missouri State Penitentiary; the insane asylums in Fulton and St. Joseph received improvements; and bank examiners were appointed in 1895.

In 1896, Stone was named as a member of the Democratic National Committee and also practiced law in St. Louis from 1897 until he was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1902. He was re-elected in 1908 and 1914.

Stone served as Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee during the critical days leading up to U.S. entry into World War I. On April 4, 1917, he was one of six senators to vote against Woodrow Wilson's Declaration of War.

On April 14, 1918, Stone suffered a fatal cerebral hemorrhage. Following funeral services in Washington, D.C., his body was brought by train back to Jefferson City where he lay in state at the Capitol Building. Stone is interred in Deepwood Cemetery in Nevada, Missouri.

Scope and Content

The collection focuses on appointments. Supporting materials include appointment orders, certificates of election, correspondence, court orders, funeral notices, newspaper clippings, oaths of office, petitions, receipts, reports, resignations, and telegrams. The collection also contains limited Missouri attorney general opinions.

The collection is arranged according to type of appointment and thereunder in chronological order.

All references to places are within the state of Missouri unless indicated, and county is specified when known. The spelling of proper names varies greatly. When correct spelling could not be determined the original spelling was retained. Officeholders are Missouri officials unless noted (U.S. Senator, U.S. Secretary of State). State Representatives are referred to as Representatives. U.S. Representatives are noted with the title Congressmen.

When the collection was microfilmed, it was determined that some of the collection required rehousing. As a result, some folder numbers have changed. The new folder number is listed first with the original folder numbers noted within parentheses. For example, under the folder heading, 7 (5) indicates that the item originally in folder 5 is now located in folder 7.

Appointments for county assessor, county circuit clerk, county clerk, county collector, county coroner, county surveyor, county treasurer, county public administrator, county court judge (often used interchangeably, the terms court judge and presiding judge are combined together), and labor commissioner comprise Box 1. Undated supporting petitions are filed before dated material (folder 11). Numerous supporting petitions for labor commissioner appointments are dated only with the year. These items are filed after full date documents in chronological order. For example, Appointments—Labor Commissioner, January–August, 1894; Appointments—Labor Commissioner, 1894.

Box 1A contains appointments to labor commissioner, 1893-1895 and appointments in 1894 for recorder of deeds in Barry, Cass, Douglas, Johnson, Linn, Pike, and Scott counties. Miscellaneous applicants for recorder of deeds are filed in chronological order.

Appointments for recorder of deeds continues in Box 2. They are filed together by surname of applicant and thereunder chronologically.

Box 3 includes appointments for school commissioner for Boone, Caldwell, Cass, Clark, Clay, Cole, Cooper, Harrison, Henry, Howell, Jefferson, Johnson, Lawrence, McDonald, and Randolph counties. The files are arranged alphabetically by county and thereunder chronologically (Appointments—School Commissioner—Boone County, 1894; Appointments—School Commissioner—Cass County, 1893 and etcetera). Folder 4 contains a mass mailing of post cards from Cass County in support of A. A. Wirt of Belton. The cards are arranged alphabetically by surname. Supporting petitions for school commissioner appointments are dated by year. These items are filed after full date documents in chronological order.

James P. Dougherty was elected Jefferson County school commissioner on April 5, 1887. Documents relating to this position are filed under Appointments—School Commissioner—Jefferson County (folder 16). Dougherty was also recommended by numerous correspondents to Governor Stone as an appointee to the St. Louis County school commissioner post in 1889-1890 and again in 1896. They are filed under Appointments—School Commissioner—St. Louis County (box 4, folder 5).

Appointments for school commissioner for Ray, Reynolds, St. Charles, and St. Louis counties continue in box 4, which also includes appointments for county surveyor and miscellaneous appointments. Miscellaneous appointments are arranged chronologically regardless of type of appointment or county location.
