HISTORIC PRESERVATION CERTIFICATES, 2000-2018

Arrangement: Chronological by date filed

Scope and Content

This series contains copies of certificates generated by the Department of Natural Resources' Historic Preservation Program in recognition of Missouri property having been placed on the National Register of Historic Places. The certificates are signed by the governor, the secretary of state, and the state historic preservation officer.

Because the date filed may be much later than the date the property was listed, check later years if not found in the listed year.
