MISSOURI SECRETARY OF STATE

John R. Ashcroft
Missouri Secretary of State
600 West Main Street
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Ashcroft:

The past millennium Lady Liberty was honored to the core.

“Give me your tired, your poor, your
Huddled masses yearning to breathe
Free. The wretched refuse of your teeming Shore. Send these, the homeless, tempesttossed to me. I lift my lamp beside the golden door!”

The millennium is new. The responsibility of bringing the honor up to speed is on us the American citizens and officials.

My way as an American citizen is to add a female only clause to Miranda Rights. In 1966 U.S. Supreme Court decided based on the Fifth Amendment, anyone in police custody must be told four things.

- 1.You have the right to remain silent
- 2.Any thing you say can and will be used against you in the court of law
- 3.You have the right to an attorney
- 4.If you cannot afford an attorney one
Will be appointed for you

If I had my way a fifth thing would be said to females only.
They have right to a big shirt.

The welfare of America can no longer go neglected. Every day the police foot is not in door, sort of speak, of melting pot society homes homeland security suffers. Lets make America Great Again.

Public indecency ordinance reflect moral disapproval of people appearing in the nude, among strangers in public places. This particular law follows a line of state laws dating back to 1831, banning public nudity. The States traditional police power is defined as the authority to provide for public health, safety, and morals. Signatures for Miranda Rights Female only clause can fulfill those obligations.

Sincerely
