Be it enacted by the people of the state of Missouri:

Two new sections of the Missouri Revised Statutes are hereby enacted, to be known as sections 286.131 and 143.012, to read as follows:

286.131. 1. A program to be known as "The Renewable Energy Project" is hereby created to be administered by the Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

2. Funding for The Renewable Energy Project will be provided through revenues from a tax on long-term capital gains and qualified dividends, as provided for in Section 143.012.

3. The Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations shall, within one (1) calendar year of the effective date of this section, promulgate rules necessary for the administration of this section, including a method for the expenditure of the funds collected pursuant to section 143.012 in a manner that increases the percentage of electricity generated by wind and solar sources within the state of Missouri as rapidly as possible, while creating as many jobs as possible. Workers hired through this program may form or join a union to negotiate pay and benefits. Facilities leased or constructed through this program will be located with an emphasis on creating jobs in economically-depressed areas of the state of Missouri.

4. Funds collected pursuant to this section and section 143.012 shall be used only for the purposes of employing workers and purchasing or leasing the necessary resources, capital equipment, and facilities necessary to increase the percentage of electricity generated by wind and solar sources until such time as at least 90 percent or more of the electricity generated in Missouri is generated from wind and solar sources.

5. Once the state of Missouri is producing 90% or more of its electricity from wind and solar sources, the funds generated by this tax on long-term capital gains and qualified dividends may be used, as directed by appropriate legislation, for the construction and maintenance of state-owned highways and bridges, or other infrastructure projects.

6. All subsections and all clauses of this Section, and the phrases, and the words within them, are severable. If any of the provisions within them are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or unconstitutionally enacted or invalid, the remainder of those provisions shall remain valid and the application of such provisions shall not be affected thereby.

143.012. 1. Beginning with the 2021 calendar year, a tax on capital gains and qualified dividends will be imposed, with the funds collected dedicated to providing funding for The Renewable Energy Project. The amount of the tax will be the difference between the amount of taxes paid to the federal government by each taxpayer on long-term capital gains and qualified dividends earned, and the tax rate that would have been paid had the capital gains or qualified dividends been taxed as marginal ordinary income, based on each taxpayer's tax bracket.

2. Any taxpayer whose total family income is less than 110 percent of the dollar amount of the poverty threshold, based on the poverty guidelines published by the Department of Health and Human Services, is exempt from this tax.

3. All subsections and all clauses of this Section, and the phrases, and the words within them, are severable. If any of the provisions within them are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or unconstitutionally enacted or invalid, the remainder of those provisions shall remain valid and the application of such provisions shall not be affected thereby.
