NOTICE: You are advised that in addition to the express amendments, repeals, and modifications as set forth below, this proposal may repeal, change or modify by implication, or may be construed by some persons to repeal, change or modify by implication, Article IV, Section 4, Article V, Sections 8, 19, 25(a) and (b), 25(c)(1), 25(c)(2), 25(d), 25(e), 25(f), and 25(g) of the Constitution of Missouri.

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:

To amend Sections 8, 19, and 25(a), and enact Sections 1(a), and 25(h) of Article V of the Constitution of Missouri to read as follows:

Section 1(a). 1. Judges of the supreme court and court of appeals shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

2. The people's elected representatives, rather than committees controlled by lawyers, should control the selection of appellate judges. This follows the original plan of the Missouri Constitution and the plan of our federal government. It derives from the principle that all political power is vested in and derived from the people, and all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole, and further, that all courts of justice shall be open to every person without sale, denial, or delay. Judges shall therefore be accountable to the citizens of this state, this constitution, and the United States Constitution, and not beholden to any particular association or alliance of lawyers, judges, or interest groups. To accomplish this purpose, as set forth in sections 25(a) through (g), judges of the supreme court and court of appeals shall henceforth be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, and shall no longer be selected by the governor from nominations made by commissions of lawyers, judges, and the governor's chosen appointees. Voters in most circuits shall continue to have the ability to choose the method by which circuit and associate circuit judges are selected. Section 1(a) and sections 25(a) through (g) shall be known as the "Missouri Nonpartisan Court Plan."

Section 8. [The judges of the supreme court shall elect from their number a] The chief justice [to] shall preside over the supreme court en banc, and the judges of the court of appeals in each district shall elect from their number a chief judge of the district. The terms of the [chief justice and] chief judges shall be fixed by the courts over which they preside. The chief justice of the supreme court shall be the chief administrative officer of the judicial system and, subject to the supervisory authority of the supreme court, shall supervise the administration of the courts of this state.

Section 19. Judges [of the supreme court and of the court of appeals shall be selected for terms of twelve years, judges] of the circuit courts shall be selected for terms of six years, and associate circuit judges for terms of four years. The governor's appointments of judges of the supreme court and court of appeals shall be for life except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The governor rather than other judges of the supreme court shall appoint the chief justice. No vacancy on the supreme court or court of appeals shall be filled and no person appointed by the governor shall have authority to act unless the senate has actually provided its advice and consent.

Section 25(a). Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of [judge of any of the following courts of this state, to wit: The supreme court, the court of appeals, or in the office of] circuit or associate circuit judge within the city of St. Louis and Jackson County, the governor shall fill such vacancy by appointing one of three persons possessing the qualifications for such office, who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by a nonpartisan judicial commission established and organized as hereinafter provided. If the governor fails to appoint any of the nominees within sixty days after the list of nominees is submitted, the nonpartisan judicial commission making the nomination shall appoint one of the nominees to fill the vacancy.

Section 25(h). The following transition provisions shall apply to the judges of the supreme court and court of appeals after the approval of new section 1(a)1. After 5:00 p.m. on December 8, 2022, the Appellate Judicial Commission shall dissolve, and every vacancy then existing shall be filled as set forth in section 1(a) 1. Each judge shall hold office for the remainder of his original term, after which the office shall be vacated and subject to appointment under section 1(a)1.
