NOTICE: The proposed amendment revises Article III of the Constitution by adopting one new section to be known as Article III, Section 39(g).

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended as follows:

Section A. Article III of the Constitution is revised by adopting one new Section to be known as Article III, Section 39(g) to read as follows:

Section 39(g) 1. Any entity licensed by the Missouri Gaming Commission may offer Sports Wagering in this state. Sports Wagering means wagering on professional athletic or sporting events.

2. The Missouri Gaming Commission shall promulgate rules to regulate Sports Wagering including, but not limited to, requirements that licensees cooperate with investigations conducted by law enforcement agencies or professional sports leagues.

3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Section 39(d), to the contrary, a wagering tax of 6.75 percent is imposed on the adjusted gross receipts received from Sports Wagering conducted by a licensed entity. Fifty percent of the revenues received from any tax imposed on Sports Wagering shall be appropriated to support pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade educational institutions and fifty percent of the revenues received from such a tax shall be appropriated for the construction, repair, or maintenance of highways, roads, or bridges.

(b) The state auditor shall perform an annual audit of the revenues received and appropriated pursuant to this section to ensure that they are being used only for authorized purposes. The state auditor shall make such audit available to the public, the governor, and the general assembly.

(c) The additional revenue provided by this section shall not be part of the “total state revenue” within the meaning of Article X, Sections 17 and 18. The expenditure of this additional revenue shall not be an “expense of state government” under Article X, Section 20.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Article III, Section 39(9), to the contrary, the general assembly may enact laws consistent with this section.

5. All provisions of this section are severable. If any provision of this section is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or unconstitutionally enacted, the remaining provisions of this section shall be and remain valid.
