*Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:
To include Parental Rights as part of the state Constitution.*

Article XVIII.

Sec. 1, Parental Rights

All parental rights are reserved to the parent of a minor child in this state without obstruction or interference from the state, any of its political subdivisions, any other governmental entity, or any other institution, including, but not limited to:

(a) The right to direct the education and care of his or her minor child;

(b) The right to direct the upbringing and the moral or religious training of his or her minor child;

(c) The right to apply to enroll his or her minor child in a public school or, as an alternative to public education, a private school, including a religious school, a home education program, or as authorized by law other available options;

(d) The right to access and review all school records relating to his or her minor child;

(e) The right to make health care decisions for his or her minor child, unless such decision is prohibited by law; and,

(f) The right to access and review all medical records of his or her minor child, unless prohibited by law or if the parent is the subject of an investigation of a crime committed against the minor child and a law enforcement agency or official requests that the information not be released.
