NOTICE: The proposed amendment revises Article I of the Constitution adopting one new section to be known as Article I, Section 36.

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended as follows:

Section A. Article I of the Constitution is revised by adopting one new section to be known as Article I, Section 36, to read as follows:

Section 36. 1. No person shall conceal and carry a firearm without a conceal and carry permit issued by the sheriff of the county in which the person resides. All applicants for conceal and carry permits must pass a background check using the National Instant Background Criminal Check System, as described in 18 U.S.C. § 922(t), and meet the permitting requirements as provided in sections 571.101 to 571.126, RSMo, as those provisions exist on January 1, 2023.

2. Any person who conceals and carries a firearm without the necessary permit is guilty of a class E felony.

3. Law enforcement agencies responsible for issuing conceal and carry permits may charge a fee to implement the provisions of this section in connection with the costs that may be associated with running the required background check. Such fee shall not exceed one hundred dollars per background check.
