Resources for Youth Services Staff

Racing to Read Statewide Early Literacy Program
Racing to Read is an early literacy program created by the Springfield-Greene County library and adopted in 2014 by the Missouri State Library (MOSL) as a statewide initiative. It identifies five activities that help children to age 6 develop early literacy skills: Loving Books, Singing and Rhyming, Telling Stories, Talking and Reading, and Playing with Letters. MOSL provides grants, resources and early literacy training for library staff as part of the Racing to Read initiative.
