For Immediate Release: Nov 13 2026

STATEMENT FROM MISSOURI SECRETARY OF STATE DENNY HOSKINS

“With the conclusion of the 2026 midterm election day, my office is making available a new interactive map of statewide election results.

A number of counties from all over the state joined together in an exciting pilot project to further enhance the election night experience. I want to sincerely thank those counties that participated in the project. I am committed to making election night reporting transparent, interactive, and as user friendly as possible in the elections to come.

I invite you to check out the interactive map of unofficial election results for the 2026 midterm election here.”
