Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft

The first U.S. organization devoted solely to women's suffrage, the Woman's Suffrage Association of Missouri, was founded in St. Louis.

Virginia Minor attempted to register to vote in St. Louis. After being denied, she filed suit. The U.S. Supreme Court in 1875 ruled voting was not an inherent right of citizenship.

Known as the “Golden Lane”, thousands of women with yellow parasols and sashes that read “Votes for Women” lined the streets of St. Louis for the Democratic National Convention.

Gov. Frederick Gardner signed a bill granting women the right to vote in presidential elections.

The 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was adopted on August 26, granting women the right to vote in all elections.

The women of St. Louis petitioned the Missouri Legislature to amend the state constitution to extend voting rights to women.

An initiative petition, known as the “Yellow Petition”, which would have given women full suffrage, was placed before voters. It failed to pass.

Two suffrage bills were introduced to the Missouri General Assembly and endorsed by Gov. Frederick Gardner. Neither bill passed.

The U.S. House and Senate approved the Federal Suffrage Amendment. On July 3, Missouri became the 11th state to ratify the amendment.

On August 31, Marie Byrum of Hannibal, Missouri, became the first woman in Missouri to vote in an election.
Dear Fellow Missourians,

Welcome to the second session of Missouri’s 100th General Assembly! Last year, I had the honor and privilege of presiding over the opening of the 100th General Assembly. It is an important ceremonial and procedural role set forth in state law which has provided every General Assembly clear guidance on how to open the legislative session for more than 100 years.

Just as state law provides the rules for this procedure, we all individually have certain guideposts which provide us the rules by which we live our lives. Elected officials have a responsibility to lead with integrity, humility and grace, to be candid, transparent and honest. We were elected to serve the people of Missouri, not the other way around.

The vitality of our great state depends on honest, civil debate, and we have been given an incredible opportunity to model this for the next generation. In the following pages, you will find information about Missouri’s state and federal elected officials, the roles they serve and how to contact them. I encourage you to participate in your government, contact your elected representatives and make your voice heard.

Sincerely,

John R. Ashcroft
Secretary of State
