JOHN R. ASHCROFT
SECRETARY OF STATE
About this Presentation

• This presentation was created to assist brokerage industry agents and sales assistants in identifying financial exploitation of the elderly, as well as learning key steps in the reporting process.

• Unless otherwise indicated, nothing in this presentation is meant to be construed as legal, statutorily defined language.

• Unless otherwise specifically noted, the term “financial exploitation” should be read in the broad sense to include all adults whether or not dependent or incapacitated.

• The information provided in these materials is general information and is not intended, or to be relied upon, as legal advice. While the information pertains in part to legal issues, it is not intended as a substitute for the particularized advice of your own counsel. Anyone seeking specific legal advice or assistance should retain an attorney.
The Securities Division handles investigations of financial exploitation. When you file a Notice of Concern, the Securities Division will assign an investigator and attorney to evaluate the claim.

The Securities Division is responsible for the administrative enforcement against Securities Fraud.
