CONSENT ORDER

SUMMARY OF ENFORCEMENT SECTION’S ALLEGATIONS

1. The Enforcement Section of the Missouri Securities Division (“Enforcement Section”) alleges that Huntleigh Securities Corporation (“Huntleigh” or “Respondent”) failed to reasonably supervise an agent in Missouri who engaged in dishonest or unethical practices, and that this constitutes grounds to revoke, suspend, condition or limit Huntleigh’s registration in Missouri pursuant to Section 409.4-412(d)(9), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2009). Huntleigh neither admits nor denies these allegations as provided herein below.

FINDINGS OF FACT

11. Huntleigh is a Missouri-registered broker-dealer and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). Huntleigh is registered in Missouri through the Central Registration Depository (“CRD”) with CRD number 7456. Huntleigh has a main office address of 7800 Forsyth Boulevard, 5th Floor, St. Louis, Missouri 63105.

12. James S. McClellan, Jr. (“McClellan”) was registered in Missouri as an agent of Huntleigh from April 2003 until August 2010. McClellan is registered in Missouri through the CRD with CRD number 325492. McClellan worked out of a Huntleigh branch office located at 15400 South Outer Forty, Suite 201, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017. Prior to his registration with Huntleigh, McClellan was registered in Missouri as an agent with First Union Securities, Inc. (“First Union”) from October, 2001, to April 24, 2003. First Union subsequently became Wachovia Securities Inc. (and both hereinafter will be referred to as “Wachovia”).

13. Meadow Ridge of Door County, LLC (“Meadow Ridge”) is a Wisconsin limited liability company with an address of 7573 State Hwy. 42, Egg Harbor, Wisconsin 54209. Meadow Ridge was organized on January 4, 2002, and McClellan was one of the original managing members of Meadow Ridge and as of the date of this order continues to be a managing member of Meadow Ridge. McClellan also has purported to be the CEO of Meadow Ridge.

14. From at least April 5, 2002, until April 5, 2008, McClellan offered and sold investments in Meadow Ridge to at least eighteen (18) Missouri residents of the St. Louis area, six of whom were over the age of eighty (80). Most of these eighteen (18) residents were also customers of Wachovia and/or Huntleigh. These eighteen residents invested in excess of four million four hundred forty thousand dollars ($4,440,000) in Meadow Ridge through McClellan.

15. While employed by Wachovia, McClellan offered and sold non-voting A shares in Meadow Ridge to eleven (11) Missouri residents, most of whom were also customers of Wachovia.

17. From at least April 24, 2003, until April 5, 2008, McClellan offered and sold investments in Meadow Ridge to at least twelve (12) Missouri residents, six of whom were over the age of eighty (80). Most of these twelve (12) residents were also customers of Huntleigh.

18. On May 5, 2008, the Enforcement Section sent a letter to McClellan requesting information regarding McClellan’s sales of Meadow Ridge.

19. In McClellan’s response dated May 29, 2008, McClellan stated, among other things, the following:

b. “In March of 2007 I became . . . fully engaged in the operations of Meadow Ridge. Today, I am involved in each and every decision and work closely with an outside marketing company to promote sales at the resort.” (Emphasis added)

20. A review of McClellan’s CRD on November 11, 2009, revealed that McClellan listed Meadow Ridge as an outside business activity. In this CRD filing, McClellan stated, among other things, that:

    MEADOW RIDGE OF DOOR COUNTY 7573 HWY 42, EGG HARBOR, WI 54209
    BUSINESS: RESORT REAL ESTATE AND TIME SHARES INVESTMENT RELATED POSITION: MANAGING MEMBER TIME: MINIMAL TO NONE

[emphasis added].

21. On November 12, 2009 and November 13, 2009, the Audit Section of the Securities Division and two members of the Enforcement Section completed an unannounced audit of Huntleigh. Information gathered from the audit included, among other things, the following:

a. A June 1, 2006, memo sent to Huntleigh compliance from McClellan stating that McClellan anticipated making several sales of “C” units in Meadow Ridge.

b. On June 6, 2006, Huntleigh compliance sent a memo to McClellan stating that Huntleigh approved and gave consent for the sale of Meadow Ridge “C” shares. The memo also stated “Pursuant to NASD Conduct Rule 3040, you are required to keep this office informed of any future private securities transactions in which you wish to engage or facilitate for your clients.”

c. In an interview with the Chief Compliance Officer of Huntleigh, Catherine Marshall (“Marshall”) indicated that Huntleigh did not supervise McClellan’s sales of Meadow Ridge based on Huntleigh’s interpretation of FINRA Rule 3040.

22. FINRA Rule 3040 states as follows:

    “No person associated with a member shall participate in any manner in a private securities transaction except in accordance with the requirements of this Rule…”

    …In the case of a transaction in which an associated person has received or may receive selling compensation, a member which has received notice… shall advise the associated person in writing stating whether the member:
1) approves the person’s participation in the proposed transaction; or
2) disapproves the person’s participation in the proposed transaction.”

“If the member approves a person’s participation in a transaction… the transaction shall be recorded on the books and records of the member and the member shall supervise the person’s participation in the transaction as if the transaction were executed on behalf of the member…”

…”selling compensation” shall mean any compensation paid directly or indirectly from whatever source in connection with or as a result of the purchase or sale of a security… not limited to, commissions; finder’s fees; securities or rights to acquire securities; rights of participation in profits, tax benefits, or dissolution proceeds, as a general partner or otherwise; or expense reimbursements.”

23. As the managing member and CEO of Meadow Ridge, McClellan had a right to participate in the profits, tax benefits, dissolution proceeds, and expense reimbursements at Meadow Ridge.

24. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities confirmed that there was no registration or notice filing indicating status as a “federal covered security” for any securities offered or sold by Meadow Ridge and McClellan.

25. Based upon its investigation, the Enforcement Section alleges, among other things, that McClellan engaged in unethical and dishonest practices in the securities business by failing to disclose, among other things, the following:

a. that the investments in Meadow Ridge were not registered in the State of Missouri;
b. that sales of Meadow Ridge were not under the supervision and control of McClellan’s employing broker-dealer;
c. that Meadow Ridge was in financial difficulty; and
d. that McClellan failed to follow the policies and procedures of his employing broker-dealer in the sales of securities in Meadow Ridge.

26. Huntleigh failed to reasonably supervise McClellan, by among other things, the following:

a. failing to have adequate policies and procedures relating to the OBA of its agents;
b. failing to record the private securities transactions of its agent on its books and records;
c. failing to review the private securities transactions of its agent;

d. failing to determine that the private securities transactions its agent sold were not registered in the State of Missouri;

e. failing to have adequate policies and procedures relating to the use of margin in its customers’ accounts;

f. failing to adequately review the use of margin in its customers’ accounts;

g. failing to have adequate policies and procedures relating to the sale of securities to elderly customers;

h. failing to adequately review the sale of private securities in Meadow Ridge to elderly customers; and

i. failing to have adequate policies and procedures relating to reviewing investment portfolios of elderly customers for concentration in unsuitable securities.

27. Huntleigh failed to reasonably supervise McClellan and this constitutes grounds to revoke, suspend, condition or limit Huntleigh’s registration in Missouri pursuant to Section 409.4-412(d)(9), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2009).

ORDER

28. Huntleigh, through its execution of this Consent Order, and without admitting or denying the Commissioner's allegations of violations, accepts and consents to the entry of the following Order by the Commissioner; and

3. The Consultant will prepare follow-up reports twelve (12), eighteen (18), and twenty-four (24) months following the effective date of this Consent Order unless the Consultant affirmatively determines that such follow-up reports are unnecessary. These follow-up reports, if any, will make further recommendations and discuss the extent to which Huntleigh has implemented the Consultant’s earlier recommendations;

4. Huntleigh will provide to the Enforcement Section copies of all reports prepared by the Consultant. The Enforcement Section may speak with the Consultant at any time during the period that the Consultant is retained by Huntleigh. Any costs and/or fees associated with the Enforcement Section’s speaking with the Consultant shall be borne by the Enforcement Section;

5. Huntleigh will promptly adopt and implement the processes, procedures and practices recommended by the Consultant. However, Huntleigh may propose alternative procedures (“Alternative Procedures”) designed to achieve the same objective or purpose as those that were recommended by the Consultant. Huntleigh may adopt the Alternative Procedures if the Consultant agrees that Huntleigh’s proposed procedures will achieve the same objectives or purposes as the Consultant’s original recommendations. In the event that Huntleigh and the Consultant disagree regarding any recommendation by the Consultant, Huntleigh shall have thirty (30) days to appeal such recommendation to the Commissioner and shall be bound by the decision of the Commissioner;

6. Huntleigh will make available upon request by the Enforcement Section all written communications between Huntleigh, its employees and the Consultant, as well as all documents that the Consultant has advised Huntleigh in writing that the Consultant reviewed or relied upon in connection with this engagement;
