HOW TO CITE RULES AND RSMo

RULES—Cite material in the Missouri Register by volume and page number, for example, Vol. 26, Missouri Register, page 27. The approved short form of citation is 26 MoReg 27.

The rules are codified in the Code of State Regulations in this system—

Title	Code of State Regulations	Division	Chapter	Rule
1	CSR	10-	1.	010
Department		Agency, Division	General area regulated	Specific area regulated

They are properly cited by using the full citation, i.e., 1 CSR 10-1.010.

Each department of state government is assigned a title. Each agency or division in the department is assigned a division number. The agency then groups its rules into general subject matter areas called chapters and specific areas called rules. Within a rule, the first breakdown is called a section and is designated as (1). Subsection is (A) with further breakdown into paragraph 1., subparagraph A., part (I), subpart (a), item I. and subitem a.

RSMo—Cite material in the RSMo by date of legislative action. The note in parentheses gives the original and amended legislative history. The Office of the Revisor of Statutes recognizes that this practice gives users a concise legislative history.

Rules appearing under this heading are filed under the authority granted by section 536.025, RSMo 2000. An emergency rule may be adopted by an agency if the agency finds that an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare, or a compelling governmental interest requires emergency action; follows procedures best calculated to assure fairness to all interested persons and parties under the circumstances; follows procedures which comply with the protections extended by the Missouri and the United States Constitutions; limits the scope of such rule to the circumstances creating an emergency and requiring emergency procedure, and at the time of or prior to the adoption of such rule files with the secretary of state the text of the rule together with the specific facts, reasons and findings which support its conclusion that there is an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare which can be met only through the adoption of such rule and its reasons for concluding that the procedure employed is fair to all interested persons and parties under the circumstances.

Rules filed as emergency rules may be effective not less than ten (10) days after filing or at such later date as may be specified in the rule and may be terminated at any time by the state agency by filing an order with the secretary of state fixing the date of such termination, which order shall be published by the secretary of state in the Missouri Register as soon as practicable.

All emergency rules must state the period during which they are in effect, and in no case can they be in effect more than one hundred eighty (180) calendar days or thirty (30) legislative days, whichever period is longer. Emergency rules are not renewable, although an agency may at any time adopt an identical rule under the normal rulemaking procedures.

Title 12—DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
Division 10—Director of Revenue
Chapter 41—General Tax Provisions

EMERGENCY AMENDMENT

12 CSR 10-41.010 Annual Adjusted Rate of Interest. The department proposes to amend section (1).

PURPOSE: Under the Annual Adjusted Rate of Interest (section 32.065, RSMo), this amendment establishes the 2003 annual adjusted rate of interest to be implemented and applied on taxes remaining unpaid during calendar year 2003.

EMERGENCY STATEMENT: The director of revenue is mandated to establish an annual adjusted rate of interest based upon the adjusted prime rate charged by banks during September of that year as set by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve rounded to the nearest full percent. This emergency amendment is necessary to ensure public awareness and to preserve a compelling governmental interest requiring an early effective date in that the amendment informs the public of the established rate of interest to be paid on unpaid amounts of taxes for the remaining 2002 calendar year. The director finds that there is an immediate danger to the public welfare which can only be addressed through this emergency amendment. The director has followed procedures calculated to assure fairness to all interested persons and parties and has complied with protections extended by the Missouri and United States Constitutions. The director has limited the scope of the emergency amendment to the circumstances creating the emergency. Emergency amendment filed November 15, 2002, effective January 1, 2003, expires June 29, 2003.

(1) Pursuant to section 32.065, RSMo, the director of revenue, upon official notice of the average predominant prime rate quoted by commercial banks to large businesses, as determined and reported by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in the Federal Reserve Statistical Release [G. 13(415)] H.15(519) for the month of September of each year, has set by administrative order the annual adjusted rate of interest to be paid on unpaid amounts of taxes during the succeeding calendar year as follows:

Calendar Year	Rate of Interest on Unpaid Amounts of Taxes
1995	12%
1996	9%
1997	8%
1998	9%
1999	8%
2000	8%
2001	10%
2002	6%
2003	5%

AUTHORITY: section 32.065, RSMo 2000. Emergency rule filed Oct. 13, 1982, effective Oct. 23, 1982, expired Feb. 19, 1983. Original rule filed Nov. 5, 1982, effective Feb. 11, 1983. For intervening history, please consult the Code of State Regulations. Emergency amendment filed Nov. 15, 2002, effective Jan. 1, 2003, expires June 29, 2003. A proposed amendment covering this same material is published in this issue of the Missouri Register.

Title 15—ELECTED OFFICIALS
Division 30—Secretary of State
Chapter 200—State Library

EMERGENCY RULE

15 CSR 30-200.030 Public Access Computers in Public Libraries

PURPOSE: This rule establishes procedures for the administration of public library public access computers for the purposes of limiting access to material that is pornographic to minors. These procedures are administered by the state librarian under the direction of the secretary of state.

EMERGENCY STATEMENT: This emergency rule informs state agencies, public libraries, and the public of procedures public libraries can follow to certify compliance with regulations listed in statutes 182.825 and 182.827, RSMo. These procedures pertain to the administration of public access computers and the limitation of access to material that is pornographic to minors. This emergency rule is established for the compelling governmental interest that statutes 182.825 and 182.827, RSMo require public libraries to be in compliance with the procedures included herein by January 1, 2003. Due to the statutory requirements for filing a proposed rule, there is no possibility of filing compliance procedures in time for the deadline of January 1, 2003. If no procedures are available on January 1, 2003, public libraries will have no means by which to certify compliance of these regulations. A proposed rule, which covers the same material, is published in this issue of the Missouri Register. The scope of this emergency rule is limited to the circumstances creating the emergency and complies with the protections extended in the Missouri and United States Constitutions. The Missouri State Library believes this emergency rule is fair to all interested persons and parties under the circumstances. This emergency rule was filed November 13, 2002, effective November 23, 2003 and expires April 29, 2003.

(1) Definitions. As used in this rule, the following terms shall mean:

(A) "Public library" is a library established and maintained under the provisions of the library laws or other laws of the state related to libraries, primarily supported by public funds and designed to serve the general public. A public library must be legally established according to the provisions of current or other laws of the state related to libraries;

(B) "Secretary" is the Missouri secretary of state;

(C) "State librarian" is the Missouri state librarian;

(D) "Pornographic for minors," as that term is defined in section 573.010, RSMo;

(E) "Minor," as that term is defined in section 573.010, RSMo;

(F) "Public access computer," as that term is defined in section 182.825, RSMo.

(2) The state librarian will administer procedures in accordance with the provisions set forth herein and in applicable state laws.

(3) One (1) of the following requirements must be met by a public library in regards to limiting access to material that is pornographic to minors:

(A) A public library must equip any public access computer with software that will limit minors' ability to gain access to material that is pornographic for minors or purchase Internet connectivity from an Internet service provider that provides filter services to limit access to material that is pornographic for minors; or

(B) Develop and implement by January 1, 2003, a policy that is consistent with community standards and establishes measures to restrict minors from gaining computer access to material that is pornographic for minors.

(4) Certification of Compliance.

(A) In order to be found in compliance with the state library's rule, a public library must certify itself to be in compliance:

1. By filing a certification form, designated by the state library and available on the state library's website <http://www.sos.state.mo.us/library/> with the state librarian or his/her designee; and

2. One or the other of the following:

A. Attaching a copy of the library's Internet usage policy; or

B. Naming the filtering software to be used.

(B) This certification is to be submitted—

1. In the first year of certification, by the date set by the Missouri State Library.

(5) Noncompliance.

(A) Any "public library or public library board member, officer, employee or trustee" not willing to submit such certification of compliance will be found noncompliant with this rule.

(6) Compliance forms, designated by the state library and available on the state library's website <http://www.sos.state.mo.us/library/>, should be filed with the State Library, which is located in Room 200 of the James C. Kirkpatrick State Information Center, 600 West Main Street, Jefferson City, Missouri.

(7) Public libraries filing certification should include in their filing a signed and dated copy of the appropriate compliance form as well as all required paperwork which includes the following—

(A) Compliance form, available on the state library's website <http://www.sos.state.mo.us/library/>;

(B) Copy of:

1. Library's Internet Usage Policy; or

2. Name of the Internet filtering software in place on public access computers in the library.

AUTHORITY: sections 182.825 and 182.827, RSMo Supp. 2002. Emergency rule filed Nov. 13, 2002, effective Nov. 23, 2002, expires April 29, 2003. A proposed rule covering this same material is published in this issue of the Missouri Register.
