PURPOSE: This rule defines hour, commission approval of suggested courses and attendance required.

(1) The prerequisite to sit for the general certification examination is one hundred eighty (180) classroom hours of courses in subjects related to real estate appraisal. The prerequisite to sit for the residential certification examination is one hundred twenty (120) classroom hours of courses in subjects related to real estate appraisal. The prerequisite to sit for the state license examination is ninety (90) classroom hours of courses in subjects related to real estate appraisal.

(2) For the purpose of the course offerings, an hour means sixty (60) minutes, at least fifty (50) minutes of which shall be devoted to actual classroom instruction. In any given calendar day, no course(s) shall exceed eight (8) hours in length and a one-half (1/2) hour break, or more, must be given to students after four (4) hours for any course(s) exceeding four (4) hours in a given day.

(3) A certificate of satisfactory completion shall not be issued to any student who fails to attend one hundred percent (100%) of the required classroom hours of study during the student's term of enrollment. The provider of an approved course, at its discretion, may allow a student to be absent up to ten percent (10%) of the required hours, but only for reasons of personal illness, illness or death in the student's immediate family or hazardous road conditions.

(4) Credit toward the classroom hour requirement may only be granted when the length of the educational offering is at least fifteen (15) hours and the individual successfully completes an examination pertinent to that educational offering.

(5) Credit for the classroom hour requirement shall be obtained from the following as approved by the commission:
   (A) Colleges or universities;
   (B) Community or junior colleges;
   (C) Real estate appraisal or real estate-related organizations;
   (D) State or federal agencies or commissions;
   (E) Proprietary schools; and
   (F) Other providers approved by the Missouri Real Estate Appraisers Commission.

(6) There is no time limit regarding when acceptable qualifying education credit must have been obtained, although the commission must review and approve this education as acceptable for approval.

(7) The commission may grant credit for courses where the applicant obtained credit from the course provider by challenge examination without attending the courses, provided that the credit was granted by the course provider prior to July 1, 1990, and provided further that the commission is satisfied with the quality of the challenge examination that was administered by the course provider.

(8) Various appraisal courses may be credited toward the one hundred eighty (180) classroom hours' education requirement for the state-certified general real estate appraiser. Applicants must demonstrate that their education included coverage of all the following topics with particular emphasis on the appraisal of nonresidential properties (residential is defined as one to four (1-4) residential units):

(11) The commission may accept for credit towards the education requirement for appraisal certification or licensure those appraisal courses offered by colleges or universities, nationally recognized appraisal organizations or real estate organizations, or agencies of the state or federal government, or other qualified providers approved by the commission. Each credit hour received from an approved college, university, or both, shall count as fifteen (15) classroom hours of education.

(12) The commission may accept a course of instruction designed to fulfill the educational requirements for certification or licensure without the prior approval of the course.

(13) Credit toward the classroom hour requirement may be awarded to teachers of appraisal courses.

20 CSR 2245-6.015 Examination and Education Requirements

PURPOSE: Effective July 1, 2007, this rule defines the examination and education requirements for each level of registration, licensure, and certification.

(1) Examination and Education Requirements.

(A) State-Certified Real Estate Appraiser.

1. To obtain certification as a state-certified general real estate appraiser, an applicant shall successfully complete the Appraisers Qualifications Board (AQB)-approved State Certified General Real Property Appraiser Examination. There is no alternative to successful completion of the examination. On or after July 1, 2007, to qualify for taking the AQB-approved Uniform State Certified General Real Property Appraiser Examination, an applicant shall satisfy the educational requirements set forth under subsection (2)(A) of this rule. Prior to July 1, 2007, an applicant for examination as a state-certified general real estate appraiser may either satisfy the educational requirements set forth in this rule or in 20 CSR 2245-6.010.

(B) State-Certified Residential Real Estate Appraiser.

1. To obtain a certification as a state-certified residential real estate appraiser, an applicant shall successfully complete the AQB-approved Certified Residential Real Property Appraiser Examination. There is no alternative to successful completion of the examination. The Certified General Real Property Appraiser Examination is not equivalent to the Certified Residential Real Property Appraiser Examination. On and after July 1, 2007, to qualify for taking the AQB-approved Certified Residential Real Property Appraiser Examination, an applicant shall satisfy the educational requirements set forth in subsection (2)(B) of this rule. Prior to July 1, 2007, an applicant for examination as a state-certified residential real estate appraiser may either satisfy the educational requirements set forth in this rule or in 20 CSR 2245-6.010.

(C) State-Licensed Real Estate Appraiser.

1. To obtain a license as a state-licensed real estate appraiser, an applicant shall successfully complete the AQB-approved Licensed Residential Real Property Appraiser Examination. There is no alternative to successful completion of the examination. On and after July 1, 2007, to qualify for taking the AQB-approved Licensed Residential Real Property Appraiser Examination, an applicant shall satisfy the educational requirements set forth in subsection (2)(C) of this rule. Prior to July 1, 2007, an applicant for licensure as a state-licensed real estate appraiser may either satisfy the examination requirements set forth in this rule or in 20 CSR 2245-6.010.

(D) Trainee Real Estate Appraiser.

1. There is no examination requirement for registration as a trainee real estate appraiser other than as is required to earn credit for completion of the prerequisite educational courses.

(2) Qualifying Education. The Missouri Real Estate Appraisers Commission does not accept on-line qualifying education with the exception of the courses listed in paragraphs (2)(A)2. and (2)(B)2. and the “Appraisal Subject Matter Electives” as noted below.

(A) State-Certified General Real Estate Appraiser.

1. Applicants for the certified general certification shall hold a bachelor’s degree or higher from a college or university accredited by a regional accrediting commission recognized by the United States Department of Education or an equivalent approving agency for out-of-state schools, unless the requirements of the following paragraph (2)(A)2. are satisfied.

2. In lieu of the bachelor’s degree, an applicant for the certified general certification shall successfully pass thirty (30) semester credit hours, or its equivalent, including each of the following collegiate subject matter courses from a college, junior college, community college, or university accredited by a regional accrediting commission recognized by the United States Department of Education or an equivalent approving agency for out-of-state schools:

(1) General.
(A) The case study course is an educational offering which shall be designed to investigate the intellectual development and practical application of constructing and reporting a real property appraisal. Any such course shall include both classroom and on-site instruction and experience, including the passage of a final examination for pre-licensure education credit, and the submission of one (1) or more acceptable appraisal reports for experience credit.

(B) Case study courses shall be at least thirty (30) hours of instruction. For each case study course, experience credit hours may not exceed three (3) times the education credit granted, and in no event shall the experience credit granted for a single course exceed ninety (90) hours. An applicant for licensure or certification may receive thirty (30) hours of pre-licensure education credit upon passage of an examination approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board (AQB) course approval program or by an alternate method established by the AQB. A licensee may receive twenty-eight (28) hours of continuing education credit for a case study course as allowed pursuant to 20 CSR 2245-8.010. An applicant for licensure or certification will receive the experience credit upon completing one (1) or more Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) compliant appraisal reports for the course. The USPAP,
A case study course shall include the following for each appraisal report completed, if applicable: inspect the subject property and neighborhood, view and photograph the comparable sales and rental properties used in the three (3) approaches, research and analyze data to apply the three (3) approaches to value, and reconcile the estimated values from each valuation approach to develop a final value opinion. The course may visit the courthouse, use data accessible via the Internet (multiple listing service (MLS), sales/listings, public information, demographic websites, etc.), and other sources, to collect the necessary data to perform the appraisal. To obtain experience credit from the course, an applicant for certification or licensure shall write a USPAP compliant appraisal report(s) and find acceptable by the course instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer. Before experience credit will be granted to an applicant for certification or licensure, the course instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer shall certify to the commission that a case study course has been approved by the AQB.

(3) Course Administration Requirements.

(A) Prior to enrolling a person for a particular case study course, the course provider shall require each prospective student to provide documentation of satisfactory completion of all course work required to obtain the license or certificate that is required under 20 CSR 2245-9.010(3) for an appraiser to perform the type of appraisal that is the subject of the case study course.

1. If a student is not licensed or certified when enrolled in a case study course, the documentation shall include completion certificates for all pre-licensure courses required for licensure or certification.

2. If a student is already licensed or certified when applying for a case study course, the documentation shall include a copy of the student’s state license or certificate and, if USPAP reporting deficiencies in the appraisal report. The provider will notify the student of any deficiencies noted in the appraisal report. The student shall correct all deficiencies to the satisfaction of the instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer.

(H) All audio or visual teaching aids used in the course shall be used under the personal supervision of the instructor approved to conduct the course and may not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the total presentation. Guest speakers may not be used for more than ten percent (10%) of a course presentation and such guest speakers do not have to possess instructor credentials.

(2) Course Approval Application Process.

(A) Any course provider desiring to provide a case study course to licensed and/or certified real estate appraisers and/or to applicants for licensure or certification as real estate appraisers shall obtain from the AQB, or by an alternate method established by the AQB, approval of each case study course, its instructor(s), and any other USPAP reviewer(s), if any, prior to enrolling any students in the course study course. A course provider shall submit verification to the commission that a case study course has been approved by the AQB.

(D) A case study course shall require completion of one (1) or more appraisal reports of the type of property to which the course pertains. The appraisal report(s) may value any real property interest, including, but not limited to, fee simple, leased-fee, leasehold, sub-leasehold, fractional interest, physical segment, or partial holding. Personal property and business valuation issues shall be addressed if related to the appraisal of real property, but shall not be the primary focus of the course.

(E) The provider shall assure that the course includes review of the appraisal process, including an in-depth review of the methods and techniques used in the three (3) approaches that pertain to the type of property appraised and the development and reporting requirements of the USPAP. The instruction regarding USPAP principles should include, at a minimum, discussion regarding the scope of work, the type of report used (self-contained, summary, restricted-use, or oral) and the other specific methods and techniques required in the report. Other appraisal report preparation issues that shall be discussed in the course include report format (narrative or form), grammar and syntax issues, quality control, and details relating to pertinent addendum for the type of property or report. The instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer shall be available to answer questions from and provide input to the students as to the deficiencies in the submitted appraisal report(s).

(F) A case study course shall include substantially the same content in the field as well as in classroom instruction. The case study course shall include the following for each appraisal report completed, if applicable: inspect the subject property and neighborhood, view and photograph the comparable sales and rental properties used in the three (3) approaches, research and analyze data to apply the three (3) approaches to value, and reconcile the estimated values from each valuation approach to develop a final value opinion. The class may visit the courthouse, use data accessible via the Internet (multiple listing service (MLS), sales/listings, public information, demographic websites, etc.), and other sources, to collect the necessary data to perform the appraisal. To obtain experience credit from the course, an applicant for certification or licensure shall write a USPAP compliant appraisal report(s) and find acceptable by the course instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer. Before experience credit will be granted to an applicant for certification or licensure, the course instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer shall certify to the commission that a case study course has been approved by the AQB.

(C) A course provider may offer case study courses in the following areas:

1. Residential, including but not limited to, single family, modular, condominium, two (2) to four (4) family residential, manufactured, and other unique residences;
2. Commercial, including but not limited to, the following uses: office, retail, shopping center, hotel or motel, convenience store, restaurant, apartments (five (5) or more units), subdivisions, or any combination thereof;

7. Appraisal consulting, including but not limited to, feasibility studies or marketability studies in any of the areas listed above in this subsection;
8. Appraisal management, including but not limited to, 1) supervisory appraiser responsibilities, functions and liabilities, and 2) management of an appraisal office including but not limited to staff management and supervision, database, and plant set-up;
9. Miscellaneous, including but not limited to, condemnation appraisals in any of the areas listed above in this subsection; and
10. Any other area approved by the AQB.

(A) Prior to enrolling a person for a particular case study course, the course provider shall require each prospective student to provide documentation of satisfactory completion of all course work required to obtain the license or certificate that is required under 20 CSR 2245-9.010(3) for an appraiser to perform the type of appraisal that is the subject of the case study course.

1. If a student is not licensed or certified when enrolled in a case study course, the documentation shall include completion certificates for all pre-licensure courses required for licensure or certification.

2. If a student is already licensed or certified when applying for a case study course, the documentation shall include a copy of the student’s state license or certificate and, if USPAP reporting deficiencies in the appraisal report. The provider will notify the student of any deficiencies noted in the appraisal report. The student shall correct all deficiencies to the satisfaction of the instructor or other approved USPAP reviewer.

(H) All audio or visual teaching aids used in the course shall be used under the personal supervision of the instructor approved to conduct the course and may not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the total presentation. Guest speakers may not be used for more than ten percent (10%) of a course presentation and such guest speakers do not have to possess instructor credentials.

(2) Course Approval Application Process.

(A) Any course provider desiring to provide a case study course to licensed and/or certified real estate appraisers and/or to applicants for licensure or certification as real estate appraisers shall obtain from the AQB, or by an alternate method established by the AQB, approval of each case study course, its instructor(s), and any other USPAP reviewer(s), if any, prior to enrolling any students in the case study course. A course provider shall submit verification to the commission that a case study course has been approved by the AQB.

(D) A case study course shall require completion of one (1) or more appraisal reports of the type of property to which the course pertains.
