Recd at Unitarian March 18, 1864
to the City of St. Louis and confined in the State of Missouri. Thus the moment was come when we had to decide upon the best means of reaching our destination. During the course of these many long and sleepless nights, I wrote down the various ideas that occurred to me, but I was still anxious to return to those days of simple and peaceful life in the country. I knew that a farm was more to me than anything else, and I longed to return to it with the greatest of joy and happiness.

May 19th, 1861.
Head Quarters, Department of the Missouri,
OFFICE OF PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL,
St. Louis, Mo., May 1st, 1864.

Captain,

You will inform Jas. H. Davie and Elihu Hood prisoners in your charge, that their cases have been referred to the Secretary of War,
who alone can order their release.

Respectfully,

J. S. Barlow.

Ass't Proct. Marshal.

To,
The Commanding Officer.

dt

Gratior Person.
St. Louis, May 14th, 1864.

Capt.

An order has been issued from this office releasing Major Russell, Tyrone & Flus all of Cape Girardeau Co. on the payment of a sum of $50 dollars each. It is too late to have them released today, but as I have taken some considerable interest in these men, I deem it right that you know of the order and you will please do inform them. They may during tomorrow make such arrangements as to be able to receive the silver early on Monday.

Jno. Caldwell, Jr.
There is great need.
Office Capt. W. M. Price
St. Louis, Mo. May 13th

Col. J. A. Woodard
Capt. W. M. Price
St. Louis, Mo.

Col. S.

Respectfully request that you forward the above to the Agent of the U. S. and ask for Evacuation, and not returned by Jno. C. Kaiser, Fred. Martin, or Theodore Rudder.

Respectfully yours,

Jno. W. Caldwell
Capt. 3rd Art. Cav.
Head Quarters, Department of the Missouri,
OFFICE OF PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL,

St. Louis, Mo., May 12, 1864.

Captain,

I return you under guard the prisoner
Andrew J. Scott as he is too sick to remain. Thos. E. Harper will have to be taken to P.O. in an Ambulance as he cannot sit up as one — if you have one please send for him.

Very Respectfully,
Your obedient,

W. F. Winter
A. M. Reed.

From Col. Joe Davis

Communication in reference to Special Order No. 10 and to order Capt. Allen to give a correct list of the Occupants of the Officers' quarters.

Reconnoiter Kincaid Grant's St.
Head Quarters, Department of the Missouri,
OFFICE OF PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL,
St. Louis, Mo., September 18th, 1864

I have received your Special Order withdrawing certain privileges from the prisoners in the Officers Quarters at Grantor St. Proven. To you as Provost Marshal I am concerned. I have to request that this order be modified allowing them the same privileges as hitherto, as they are held as hostages only.

You will direct the Commanding Officer at Grantor St. Proven to furnish Captain Meyer with a list of all residents of the Officers Quarters, so that he can issue his permits accordingly.

This restriction might be removed by requiring all who use these quarters to pledge the words not to offer to escape in any way, or to pritate the rules of the serics, ad that they will give prompt information of any plan they may hear of, proposed by others, to escape. If they refuse to do this, they will be removed to other rooms.

Very Respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

Joseph Davis

Lt. Governor Marshall

To Capt. G. Heidrich,
Superintendent, H. of Prison

Christophers will be excluded from all.
