Curtiss Evans being duly sworn states as follows:

Sometime in December 1864 a man unknown to me came to my house in company with Austin Herbert. Herbert introduced him to me as a Union man and asked me to pilot him (Che Trangis) to Col. Montgomery's house stating that he was a relative of Montgomery. I took him to Montgomery's land when about to leave the man came to me and said if I ever divulge a word of what I had seen or heard, he would take my life. I think Mr. Montgomery knew that the man was a guerrilla as they had a private conversation together. A man by name of Herb Walker was at Montgomery's at the time I think. He also digitally the man to be a guerrilla as he was present at the time of the conversation between them and also took the man saddle bags and arms.

On the road to Mr. Green’s house, was then the came man came to my house in company with several others, and ordered me to go and show them where to find the horses belonging to Union men in the vicinity. On my refusing,
they threatened to blow my brains out.

On the way to Col. Montgomery the first time I met this man. We met a Negro belonging to one of my neighbors. The man drew his revolver and was about to shoot
the Negro because he wore a Union blouse.
I told him not to shoot the Negro as he had never been in the army. He said Montgomery was all right and could be trusted.
He also spoke very highly of Dr. Poelwait.
Said Poelwait was going to furnish some arms, said the Walker was to furnish sein caps & cartridge. I do not know when Walker lives.

He also said General Grant was the best Rebel in the Country. Said Grant would let
Dear Judge James Reynolds

This man said there was a relative named Zerny and that he was going to take his life that night.

They went to Zerny's home, took Zerny out and was going to kill him when some man (not known to Zerny) said Zerny had never been in the office; they then released Zerny. They took two papers from Zerny worth $300 each.

This man said that Washington Bates had done more for and put more men in the Sanborn Army than any other man in the country, and that Charles O. Dunbar had assisted Bates.

Capt. (Ed.) W. C. Good
State that the Soldiers are occupying the Court House in Libbytown and requests that they be moved to the Market House. Request that more ground must be sent there.

20 June 1861 (E.M. Davis)
On the 24th. of December, 1812, I was ordered from the Court House to the waggon of Mr. John Smith, Esq., near this place, the 5th. Regt. having only 40 effective mounted men, and twenty are at Carlisle and twenty at Paris. The forge at Leetown, the other day, was a band, followed by 20 mounted men, and as soon as possible the whole country shall have mounted troops to protect it.

Your petitioners would respectfully represent,
That the Union soldiers are and have been for some time occupying the Court House in George Town Ky. that they are very careless and have injured the House a good deal and we bake fear that the Court House and public offices will be burnt up if they remain here. We feel that they are protecting our town and citizens and it is our wish that they remain with us, and we respectfully ask that you designate the Market House in George Town, instead of the Court House as a seating place, which is a comfortable place and more reliable and not so much danger of fire. Your petitioners would represent that the veterans have been in the neighborhood for several months and we ask that you would send along 25 or 20 more soldiers to our town.

Said man in connection with one Francis Tracy, a citizen in the employ of Capt. Jones, Dr. Draper's Department at 2d Corps Hospital and is master of all the forging grounds in the Hospital department, attempted to steal a horse from this depot belonging to me, and in which they were only partially successful, having been detected by our patrol after having got the horse somewhat over a mile from camp. This occurred last night at about the hour of 11 o'clock, when said Walsh was arrested but Tracy succeeded in making his escape. I have the honor, respectfully to submit the following report, in obedience to instructions from Col. Jno. 2d Cav. Dir. Proc. March, office dated Feb. 15th 1865., relating to Mrs. Julia C. Tatton, her two children and Miss Adeline Kite, her sister: This family came within our lines last Monday (13th) and are at present at the house of Mrs. Annie Jordan about 2 miles east of Prince-George C.H.

Their object in leaving Petersburg was for Mrs. Tatton to try to join her husband, who came within our lines about 4 or 5 weeks ago and with whom she wishes to go north, and for Miss Kite to accompany her sister and remain with her; they also wished to get a living which they could not in Petersburg.

Reports having visited the house of Dr. Bryant and found it half a mile outside the picket line, also visited Mr. McCann's house, No. 23.

Do not return to her home yesterday, that a young lady by name Miss Cooke resides at present with Mr. McCann whose home is outside the lines.

Capt. Schuyler,

Sir,

In accordance with orders received from you, I this day posted the pickets in the neighborhood of Mr. Bryan's, and found that his house is outside of the cavalry picket line, the nearest picket being about a half mile distant from the house, though the house can be seen from the picket post.

I then proceeded to the house of Mr. & Mrs. Cameron, 3rd Div. 5th A. C. I found that Mrs. Brodiewell had left those few hours before, yesterday the 1st Inst., the house of Mrs. Brodiewell has been inside the picket line since the 16th day of January. Mrs. McCallum brought her to his house on the morning of the 30th by permission of Gen. Crawford.

A young lady named Alice Fisher resides at present with Mr. McCallum, her house is on the left of the road about one mile outside of our picket line. Upon being asked where she came through our lines, she informed me, that on the 23rd or 24th of January, one of our men was taken prisoner by the enemy near her house, she came to the nearest pickets to give the information, when she was asked to go in and see the General. She was brought to General Braddock's tent and has been kept there since that time. She do not know the name of the officer who brought her in, or to what regiment he belongs, and in every direction of returning to her home again.

This day, E. McDougal, J. W. Garner,
residents of Jefferson County on their oaths state that they have seen Henry W. Lucas, a resident of Jefferson County for more than four years,
and have further testified that he has never given aid or comfort to the so-called Confederate army. That he has not, willingly given aid or comfort to any officer or soldiers under its command.
That he has always been a loyal citizen true to the Government of the United States, and was at the time this action originated and is now regarded by his neighbors as such to the best of our knowledge.

To Major Charles C. Robinson

Dear Sir,

Four years of the war are past, and many who have been agencies for a company of guerillas passing through our county about the time I received your communications, I delievered to Capt. Mercer your order as soon as I received it, which was about the 11th of this month. You ask information in regard to the conduct of a company of Grayson county home guards formerly commanded by Capt. David Johnston and now under the leadership of Capt. Mercer & Marty. I am living ten miles East of Litchfield and only five or six days in each week in Litchfield. The company seen of inside East of Litchfield and the majority about ten miles distant. The operations of the company has been pretty much in the West end of Grayson East part of Ohio & South part of Breckinridge County. Occasionally visiting part of Meade Hardin & Eastern part of Grayson. Of my own knowledge I know but little one of my neighbors Mr. W. A. Grayson a good Union man had his gun & pistol taken by a guard under Johnston's command I intifided and got his gun but his pistol has never been returned. Neicy C. Thomas, a Union man living about three miles from Litchfield had his pistol taken which as I understand by Marty's command which had not been returned. Thomas Summers living in the South East of Grayson had a fine valuable mare taken by Marty's command as I understand and was sold by some of the company to a government horse buyer by the name of Walker.

Col. Swain,

I have the honor to inform you the Horse Stallions &c. mentioned in Complaint are in Owen Co. W.T. having been ordered there before your order was received. It is therefore impossible for me to comply with the order at the present time. I have the honor to inform you one of the complainants N. M. Dustin was the first man to drive a rebel company in the State. I am personally acquainted with him & know him to be a Rebel. I further believe that the other complainant is also Rebels— I know that Bowman is; and although I have no reason to doubt Mr. McConnell's loyalty, I don't believe he is acquainted with A. Farnett. Satisfactory evidence can be obtained to substantiate the above facts.

Sir,

On the 17th day of December last, I continued with H. C. Wiley, an agent of the Treasury Dept. to buy out and deliver to the Government Agent at Memphis fifty thousand dollars cash in specie. On the 8th of the same month the permit for these orders, which I and Mr. Wiley were issued. In all that I may do under these permits, I desire to conform strictly to all the requirements and suggestions of the Military and desire that all my agents shall be held to a strict account and be required to obey and act upon your instructions. I have before given a permit to Mr. Scallan of Pine Bluff to locate and run one of Mr. A. A. Sams. I shall be obliged to you if you will place the proper endorsement upon Mr. Banks papers and also upon Mr. Scoular's when they shall be presented to you. Also desire you please direct them in what manner you would have them operate so that King may not inadvertently violate your orders.

Representing claim of Mr. J. T. Daniels, to pay for a farm1500.50 purchased of Mr. W. E. Meyers; in the notes of the Meyers, held legible.
A note payable at a Bank is not necessarily payable at Notes of the Bank. If due to the Bank, it may pay on its notes. If transferred before maturity, it can be paid by the real payee. If transferred after maturity, it may be paid by means of the Bank. If it were other than a bond of transfer, there (restored). If it did not hold them at time of transfer, the holder cannot demand legal tender. A note as a contract to the counterpart.
Daniel vs. Ayers,

Plaintiff vs. Defendant

The act of assembly of the State of Virginia, Chap. 58, Sec. 18, Code of 1800, upon which the defendant in error relies, to show his right to pay his notes on the Bank of the State is in the following words:

"Though a Bank have a Branch, all its notes shall be signed by its President and Counter-signed by the Treasurer of the Parent Bank. Any part of the note shall be received in payment of debt to the Bank, whether contracted at the Parent Bank or Branch."

This act of Assembly is not declaratory of the common law principle, which is applicable to all persons, natural or artificial, that in corporations or individuals—that all debts may be paid by set-off of the same nature while in the hands of the original parties, or by operation of assignment. But while the common law principle as the act of Assembly of Virginia, can apply to the case under consideration for the reason that the notes of Jones were negotiable notes payable without offset, and transferred to a third party before they became due and payable. Thus, those notes never became debt due to the Bank, having been transferred before maturity.

A Bank has the same right to negotiate its Bills receivable that any individual has, these being no prohibitions to the contrary, and when due and payable must be paid in legal tender, if it does not appear on their face that a different currency was intended.

If these notes had matured while in the possession of the Bank, and the maker or endorser, had chosen to take them up, the Bank would have been compelled to have received their own notes in payment. If they had been assigned after they became due, the assignee would have taken them subject to any prior right which the maker or endorser held against the Banks at the time of assignment or before notice of such assignment. In this case it would be necessary that the defendant had in their possession the note of the Banks in amount sufficient to take up their own notes, at the time of said notice of the assignment, for they cannot be permitted to swear that night until the note of the Banks became worthless, and then buy them off at a great discount for the purpose of discharging this indebtedness. Although these notes were tendered before maturity, the defendant had notice of the fact, and did not attempt to take them up in any kind of summary. The inference is, that they did not have the note of the Banks for that purpose at any time before notice of such transfer, or when the note became due.

And the defendant alleges that there as Smith—the first entrusee or transferee of these notes—before he purchased them from the Banks, or sold them in payment of the Banks' indebtedness to him, made a contract with the defendant, whereby he bound himself to receive payment on Banks' Notes of these banks. In this connection the first question to be decided is, whether the letter of Smith to Ogier of July 29, 1863 affords any indication of the existence of such a contract. Smith uniformly says in the first portion of the letter, that he "can enter into no agreement as to what particular notes he would receive in payment." He refuses to make any contract upon the subject. He refuses to stipulate that he will receive Virginia Bank Bills, not knowing what species might or might not be thereby written at the time to demand payment. The makes a voluntary statement to the effect that he "wants, upon nothing more than the Banks of the State a City would do at the Town he thinks make demand." (Later part of the letter seems to torture into a legally binding contract. The essential element of all contracts is wanting. There is no expression, express or implied. The Bank was the owner of the note. They were entitled to Smith on equal terms. Smith never had demanded a legal holder of the note himself after his legal rights. Being no indorse in the ordinary course, the act to Smith in payment, that Smith did only bring the consequences.

But supposing the letter of Smith to be written in a justice contract between Major Major and himself; the next question, to be decided on, whether Major Major contracted with Smith on his individual capacity, or as the legally constituted representative or agent of the Bank. It is a fact in the case that Major was President of the Bank of the Bank of Virginia at that time, but the fact that his nephew, Major Major, the maker of the note, and Major Major the owner of the note refused to agree with the fact that he did not add any official but his private signature, seems conclusive that he desired to contract with Smith on behalf of his nephew and himself, and for their benefit, and not on behalf of, or for the benefit of the Bank. If he contracted as a minor individual, the contract is absolutely void, because he had no interest in the subject matter of the contract. The note of the Bank was signed to it, belongs to the Banks and not to him.

But if his contract as the authorized agent of the Bank (which authority must be proven by the production of the resolution of the Board of Directors giving him such authority) the contract would still be void, as the Bank was not constituted to contract for the benefit of the Major who had no dissociating interest in the subject matter, and even with strangers to the transaction. It is prompt and true to assume that Smith has obtained this authority of the alleged contract with Mr. Meyers, either as an individual or as President of the Bank of Virginia. One of the notes belonged to the Exchange Bank of which Mr. Meyers was an officer. The alleged contract referred only to notes belonging to the Exchange Bank of Virginia. Both notes were put over to Smith in liquidation of the debt due by the two Banks respectively. By virtue of resolution of the Board of Directors of the respective Banks, which resolution included the Carriage of said Bank's to transfer their Bills receivable to such depositors, as were willing to receive them, in settle-ment of their accounts. The notes of these Banks were not circulating at the time and were out of circulation a few days after. Mr. Meyers knowing that Smith proposed to take these notes among others, made it known to him to receive Bank Bills in payment in lieu of the fact that they were likely to depreciate; Open the letter of Meyers to Smith. Smith replied as a matter of courtesy, and the reply they wish to turn into a contract.

But assuming that Smith did actually contract with Meyers, this he would receive part from the Bank of New York, or of the City would receive at the time of demand, it can not follow that he, in his opinion, Daniels, is entitled to take anything in payment of the note, other than the lawful sum due of the County. The Exchange Bank of Virginia and Harris's Bank, and the Exchange Bank of New York had not received any kind of money for over than a year, six or, in payment of debt to the Banks. Then be has been entirely performed during that time. They were closed up more than a year ago, the functions of all the officers ceased at that time. The vaults were locked and sealed and the keys placed for safe-keeping in the hands of Custodians. All this was done by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Central Bank. Since that time no one has been authorized to receive or pay money in our name by order of the General Commanding. It was only a few months ago that demands for payment of those minutes made on the Vogue. At that time there were but two Banks in the City doing business. They were the First-Time, and the First Bank of Trenton, N.J. The assignee of Smith is willing to receive such funds as those Banks can then, and are now receiving, and by so doing, the uniform system of Bank will be kept intact.

An equitable consideration it may be justly proved, that taking gold coin as a basis, the value of the Banks of the State were as valuable at the time the note of Ager was due, as they were, as the National Currency was when demand of payment was made by Smith, and the form of Ager was in due course of Bank note at the same period, than it was inconvenience Currency at the latter place of time above mentioned.

On account of the valuelessness of Virginia Bank note at the time Ager had been the greater part of the time, for he had been in the market until lately, and there is no reason in an equitable point of view, why Smith or his assignee Daniel should be the loser by having so long endured Ager in the post of pursuer of the collection of his note.

To John J. Daniels in the bonds for holden for a valuable consideration of two negotiable promissory notes,
drawn by Moses Myers payable to says Myers and endorsed by said Myers, the one of the 15th of 1863 payable four months
after date for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, and the other of June 7th 1863 payable four months after date
for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars. On or about the 16th of November 1864, Mr.
Daniel contracted with Moses Francis

Ferguson for the purchase of a tract of land in Norfolk County, belonging to Moses Myers
(The maker of these notes for the sum of Ten thousand dollars, the said Merwin
+ Ferguson, co-owners, being the agents of said Niger for the sale of said land. At the time agreed upon, the Daniels offered to settle with Mr. Merwin +
Ferguson and to deed their notes as part payment of the sum
due by him to said Niger, as account of the purchase of the land.
They refused to accept the note,
not being authorized by Niger to do so, but accepted from Mr. Daniels
the amount of the purchase money
in cash, less the amount of the notes, leaving the notes to be de-ceded upon thereafter. The Dannels brought suit in the District Court for the sum owed of getting payment against Niger, but before a decision was rendered the Court was suspended or abolished, and M. Daniels withdrew the suit from the Renaud. These notes were transferred to Mr. Thomas Smith by the Virginia and Exchange Banks in payment of their indebtedness to him, before they became due, and were transferred by Smith to P. A. Chaffin, Esq., of the City of New York. The last from pent them to one for collection, but soon after directed one to transfer them to M. Daniels, he having purchased them. I have given it my

If the Banker pays the balance of the fund out money to the agent of Moses Hyde, retaining the note for future adjudication, it is a question whether he will ever realize his debt, as Moses Hyde is a non-resident, and has anticipated of all the effect, in this part of the County.

Orders.

In the matter of the claim of Mr. J. A. Daniels to pay (in part) for a farm purchased by issue of Mr. Moody's Notes, to the note of Mr. Moody held by Daniels, application having been made to the army general for an order directing Misses Merriam and Ferguson to deliver the deed in their hands - it appears to the army general that at the time these notes were made they were payable in the lawful currency of the United States until they are always payable in the same, they can be exchanged in such currency.

There is no reason why the holder should not accept a debt against the matter, by the amount of these notes in C.S. currency with interest added after maturity, interest being at state rate.

Misses Merriam and Ferguson will deliver the deed to Mr. Daniels and receive the notes in part payment.

Office Acts Relief

To the Members of the Acts
Relief Committee,

Gentlemen,

I would respectfully submit the following statement for your consideration:

Since Saturday Morning I have issued provisions to 700 persons exclusive of Soldiers families and as the "Means of Subsistence furnished by the Appropriation for Displaced Refugees" is so limited the Consumption Quantity for each person has been very scanty. There is in this manner so scanty for about 30 families or about 130 persons waiting for Transfers at the Nebraska Quarantine There Can it be an opportunity to shift these families, something will have to be done
to prevent them while they remain here,
Respectfully,
Mr. A. _____

To Major General Reynolds

Dear Sir

I have to trouble you. I was shown a declaration made by Mr. Crowl and others, presenting their reasons why the Methodist Church House in this place should not be returned to me as the Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The object of this letter is not to induce you to change your decision in relation to the Church House in this place, but there are some facts in relating to the Church and myself that you should know. In the first place, these gentlemen claim to be the Trustees of the Church.

"I assert that they are not, and to the best of my knowledge never have been, in 1844 there was a division of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and North, that part of the Church North and that portion South of the line of separation adopted the name of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, this was done for the sake of distinction in 1845, if I mistake not, giving it some difference between the two sections, a suit was first instituted in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and after
City; in both Courts the suit was decided in favor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South; this decision gave all the church property within their limits to the Methodist Church South; and since 1846, there has been no dispute upon this subject.

The legal Trustees of the Methodist Church House in Little Rock, are Mr. Bertrand, John Barns, Dr. McAlmont, Mr. Knighton, H. T. Field, and Judge English; five out of the six Trustees are here, and there can be no doubt about their loyalty. These former gentlemen urge as a reason why I shoule not occupy the Church House in this place, is that I belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church South; I was not before advised that this was a sin, if in one case, surely they are more the least guilty; they all belonged to the same church, and if I were not very much mistaken at all, these gentlemen received from the church south, the authority to preach the gospel, and up to the time of the Federal occupation of this place were zealous Ministers and members of that church, that they now condemn. Again they assert that I was almost zealous occupiers, both in and out of the pulpit. I here refer you to such men as Bertrand, Dr. McAlmont, and others, who are members of my Congregation; they will testify to my conduct; and since your occupation of this place, the majority of my audience has been composed of Soldiers and Officers, and I know not that I have ever mentioned policies in the pulpit in any way.

They allude to my wife. Oh, how sad that Christian men should let their prejudices lead them to such error. I took the oath in good faith and have honestly endeavor to keep it. Again, they assert that I was appointed to this charge by A. Samuel, this is not true. I have each year been appointed to this charge by the Rev. J. Hunter, the President of the Conference. Rev. J. Hunter is a Northern raised man, and a better Union man there is not to be found in the State of Arkansas. In proof of this, I refer you to Mr. Bertrand, who is well acquainted with him, and also to George Hicks, Clerk in the local Liquor Office. Again they say the only knowledge that I have of my appointment was received clandestinely. Up to this time, I can assure you, that I have received no letter or communication through any channel but the proper Channel; the letter that announced my appointment to this Station, I received at the hands of Capt. Nick, assistant. And through that man that I have sought and desired, nothing back to show in my humble way to do my duty.
The reflection that I have to trouble you with things relating to myself is unpleasant, but from all that I can know of you, that you are disposed to do justice by all men, who try to be peaceable and behave themselves.

Yours Truly,

R. T. Colburn, Pastor

Dear Sir,

Union West Virginia

Your salary as postmaster, as agreed upon, has been made a visit to the Churches of the Methodist and Union and, although we had to march to Bismarck, armed with the authority of the Hon. Secretary, as he claimed to take charge of them, before ministers and select congregations, etc. etc. Although he said he had no control over the congregation when he removed the superintendent, the church was placed as a consequence. He fired several men last and left his hand on the Methodist Church after its minister, Mr. Wren.

He has been commissioned by the Archbishop of Canterbury to this office & is recognized as the head of the church in its regular constitution & order. He has also been appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury & is recognized by the church as the head of the church.

I am glad not to leave him ever from a reliable source as I think that his actions are in accordance with the true doctrine of the church & are in opposition to the sale of the spiritual estate. He has been appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury to this office & is recognized by the church as the head of the church, & his actions are in accordance with his duties. Dear Sir:

I am unable to return to you as requested. The Report in relation to the Methodist Church and the city, with my thanks for the "Sentiments" you have so kindly and with some pains presented to me. Under other circumstances I might reply and with some confidence I felt for myself, to the communication of Mr. J. Melloy, and others addressed to you. The words 'believe in you' should be perfectly clear, if in anything done good. Any time. In that I shall communicate with a friend who was in my case the President, who is now in times, and to a Gentleman, in conversation on the subject of church or discord. I'm yours The Church here, was at worst in any other part of the Territory of one of the then Chaplains in the Federal army, its the fault of the Bishop's mind. This is a fact.
Maj. Genl. J. J. Reynolds,

Sir,

For and on behalf of the First Union M. C. Church in Pittsburg, we make the following statement in response to the letter of W. B. Bertrand, addressed to the President of the United States in reference to the house of worship now occupied and controlled by the Church of which we are members.

The want of information on the part of Mr. Bertrand as to the contents of the Order of the Secretary of Sec. under which Bishop Ames acted, has led him, unintentionally, of course, into a gross misstatement of its terms, and the extent of Bishop Ames' authority under it.

The great wrong and injustice done Bishop Ames, in charging that he exceeded his authority in the premises is made manifest in reading the order under which he acted, a copy of which is here with submitted.

It will be seen that the Bishop was not restricted in his authority to "abandoned and unoccupied churchies."

The order is addressed "To the Generale Commanding the Department of, and they are directed to place at the disposal of Mr. Bishop Ames, the house of worship belonging to the Methodist Church South, in which a legal minister who has been appointed by a loyal bishop of said church, does not now officiate.

The statement of Mr. Potter that the Bishop "laid his hand on the Methodist Church, defaced its ministrers," is also an error, of fact to the prejudice of the Bishop.

The order of the Secretary of War directed on the Military officers to whom it was addressed the duty of placing "as the discretion of the Bishop, the houses of worship, in which a loyal minister, appointed by a loyal Bishop, did not officiate, the duty of laying hands on the church, and deposing ministers belonging under the order to the Military officers to whom it was directed and not to Bishop Asbury, he simply appointed Ministers to officiate in Churches from which ministers who were not loyal or who had not been appointed by a loyal Bishop had been expelled by Military authority, and so it was done here. The Major General commanding this Department having determined the question, the decision of which was devolved on him, by the Order of the Secretary of War, addressed to the ministers who were thus officiating in the house of worship in question, dated on the 20th day of Dec. 1863 his Special Order No. 120, declaring that "Pursuant to instructions from the War Department, all houses of worship belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Little Rock and Pine Bluff, Arkansas are hereby placed on the list of the Rev. Bishop Ames who will have the entire control of this case.

Mr. Bertrand asserts in his letter that Bishop Ames turned over the possession of the house of worship in question to one of the New Chaplains in the Federal Army, 'where its possession and control now is.
This is another error of fact of too much gravity
to be overlooked.

After the house of worship in question was placed at the disposal of the Bishop by Maj. Gen. Steele's order, above cited the Bishop appointed Rev.
Mr. H. Hare, of the M. E. Church, his a Chaplain
in the Army, Pastor of said Church, and Presiding Elder of the Little Rock District, of a meeting
of which a copy is herewith enclosed.

The appointment of Rev. Mr. Hare as pastor of said church re. thus made by Bishop Ames, continued until the meeting of the annual Conference of the M. E. Church
for the States of Missouri and Arkansas,
which was held in Missouri in the month of March 1864. When the preceding Bishop of that Conference, in accordance with the established laws and usages of the M. E.
Church and on petition of the members of that Church citizens and residents of this place, appointed the Rev. W. S. White
a minister of that Church, and a number
The members and spokesmen for the M. E. Church of Little Rock, which is a society, or congregation, organized in pursuance of, and in conformity to, the Constitution, Regulations and Discipline of the M. E. Church of the S. E., with a Pastor and official members, as prescribed and required by the laws of said Church, and there is but one such Society, or Organization here. This is a society here acting under the Constitution and Regulations of the M. E. Church South, and we presume that this is the church and the congregation for which Mr. Bertrand is speaking as "Pastor, Steward, &c.," and it is unfortunate that, in attempting to speak of it, he should have omitted its important part of its name - its authority to speak for the M. E. Church is denied.

The minister who formerly officiated in the house of worship belonging, as one claim, to the M. E. Church, and now occupied by them, belongs to the M. E. Church South. It is not claimed in Mr. Bertrand's letter that this minister was loyal at the time when Sen. Tate "deposed" him, and turned over the possession of the property to Bishop Chalmers. It is presumed that no one could be found who would advance such a proposition. It is claimed, however, that he afterwards took the oath prescribed by the President in his Amnesty Proclamation, and that he "has faithfully observed and kept it." He disclaims any right to judge of this man's heart or motives, and yet shall not enter into the enquiry how far the simple taking and negative observance and keeping of the Amnesty oath, by a traitor, broke a change in the sentiments of his heart, or entitled him to be regarded as a loyal man, but we have a right to judge him by his acts and words, and, judged by those, we allege that the minister of God, Mr. Durant, failed to have put in profession of the house of worship in question an oath a loyal man to the Government of the United States, and has not "observed" nor "kept" the amnesty oath in the spirit and order, form and manner, in which it was tendered to him by the President. Let facts speak for themselves. Before the occupation of this city by the federal army, this minister preached a few, not obscure, and violent rebel, and publicly prayed for the success of the rebel arms, and for the overthrow and destruction of the federal army. It is now eighteen months since the federal army first occupied this city and during all this time, this minister has been exercising his office, and not once in this time has he offered up one prayer, or one word to the Throne of Grace for the success of the Federal arms or the destruction of the rebellion. But, we are told, he is "a preacher of the Gospel, and out of politics." Is it "Gospel" to pray for the success of the rebel arms, and "politics" to pray for their overthrow?

The only authority he ever has for exercising his holy office is by an appointment made, since he took the abdication oath, by a disloyal Bishop. This minister, at a disloyal Conference, recently held inside the enemy's lines, under the protection of rebelbayonets, and even the evidence of this appointment came to him through the lines of the federal army. Corruptly and illegally, as we are advised, and believe.

Every Bishop of the Church to which he claims to belong is disloyal, and said they have each been their times fast to assist falling into the hands of the rebel army. The Conference of which he is a number, and from which he derives his right to exercise the ministerial office has, as a consequence, formally acknowledged and succeeded the Confederate States of America as the sole legitimate temporal power in this country, and caste off its allegiance to the Government of the United States, and, with full knowledge of these facts, he receives, accepts, and discharges the duties of a minister, under and by virtue of an appointment, conferred by such a Conference, and the diploma itself expiry with power over its deliberations.

The office he holds is a sacred and important one. It is an office recognized by the laws of our State as conferring the right and power to determine the most important civil contract in life, and we respectfully submit that there is no difference in principle between permitting this minister to discharge the functions of his office, under and by virtue of an appointment emanating from the source mentioned, and permitting a magistrate or judge of a court to perform these functions pertaining to those offices under and by virtue of a commission emanating from the civil Governor Frunagari of this State.
or even Jefferson Davis himself. No more confidence can be placed in the loyalty of the officer in this one case than in the other.

Without going into further details of particular facts, in connection with this matter we earnestly protest against the prayer of Mr. Burtrant's petition being granted for the following reasons: First, it would be transgressing the trust imposed upon the person in question from a loyal church represented by a loyal minister, with a loyal congregation, to a disloyal church, represented by a disloyal minister, with a congregation who may be "truly loyal" as Mr. Burtrant above but of not the fact is not generally known. Second, the house of worship in question is the property of the M. E. Church, and not of the U. S. Church South. The facts we have here set forth are beyond proof by irreconcilable evidence before such officers' board or commission, and at such time and place as may designate and appoint for that purpose.

about a month ago.

Ex.

Lives about as far from the river as the Courthouse. It was in the evening near sundown was not dark. I work on plantation below, have seen Def. since I come to the city.
Never saw him before then. This occurred on Monday. While the soldiers fell down, this man run up to the cabin & got a bundle.
& went across. I kept off from the soldier was too far to see if Def. had a knife.
I only saw the man drop down. When I first saw them they were fighting on the bank.
don't know how long they had been. Did not see any knife. Don't know who commenced the fight.

Rebut (vol. 2) Def objects—overruled.

I did not see the fight, saw
the soldier covered up with a blanket behind
the shanty. had boxes & barrels around him
to hide him—
I met the last witness at the time it was about a month ago at 3 o'clock where the murder was. The time I saw witness it was a long time before sunset. I saw the man dead when I went around the house at that time 3 o'clock. I went direct to the house and found the body after I met witness. It was the same day he was killed. I did not see the body on the bank, did not see the fight only knew what the witness told me.

Geo. M. Ott. sworn.

I know Def lives on the right bank about 2 miles from here. The house is 20 or 30 feet back of the river. I saw the dead body lying back of their chimney about 10 feet distant. He was laying on his back with a large gash in his breast I presume it was on the 13th. It was 4 o'clock. The man was dead. Def has lived there 3 or 4 months. Is a quiet inoffensive man. I let him have the house through Charity. Never saw anything out of the way at his house.

C. Ex. Where the body was was an open place. I was there the same afternoon. I was informed of it going down.
the road, was there before the body was removed, it was covered with a blanket, or covered & they opened it & I went away. There were some soldiers there. It was about 200 feet from his house, back from the lane. Def was not there. I don't know anything about the murder.

I was present at the preliminary examination, was called to act as interpreter, was sworn, & had conversation with Def as sworn interpreter.

Counsel for Def objects to the conversation—overruled. I was told by Judge Seymour to ask Def if he had any statement to make. He said he had. I told him by direction of Judge Seymour that he was not there to exculpate himself if he could make a statement or not as he chose. He said that at 3 o'clock he started to raise his fishing lines, after he had done he came back. Then the skipper came into the shanty where he lives, the door was shut, he opened it & found the soldier in bed on top of his wife. He did not know what to say. At the same time the soldier got out of the bed & jumped on him, kicked him & knocked him in.
self-defense he drew his knife & stabbed him. He was asked if this knife was the one & he said it was. I showed this knife to him. He said the woman was a bad woman & the cause of all of it.

6. McLane sworn

On the 11th between 5 or 6 o'clock the woman came to my Coffee house. She was excited, she bought some groceries & the same pocketbook she had before with some change, can't say how much but not much.

Judge Seymour (recalled)
The soldier found dead was not more than 5 feet high; was a short thin man smiling as though he had been sick. Both pockets were burst & had the appearance of being rifled. He was not a fit man to take with Def. Malays are known for their great strength. Two such men could not cope with him.

6. Esq. The officers of the soldiers Def found in his pockets a small penknife & some small articles, but numerous persons had been there before who might have turned his pockets.

Defense
I now saw the soldier before that day, don't know his name. He came in the morning about 7 o'clock, he stood till def went across the river & brought him liquor. I was gone about an hour. He then went to his camp. He came back about 9 1/2 o'clock. I, the def & another man in partnership with def were there. Jeff was going to take up his lines & the soldier told him if he would bring over some more liquor he would pay him. He told him to hold on till he released his lines.

The soldier set down a little while & then went out & set by the river, & then came back & set down & commenced to smoke. When def came back he found me & the soldier in bed together. He came in & called him out—alcohol of a bottle. Then the soldier jumped out of bed. I jumped out after him & they got hold of each other & ran down to the store & left things fighting & did not see any more. They blinded each other. I stayed away till dark—was afraid to come back. was arrested coming from the store about 7 o'clock, had not heard anything that took place, but saw a crowd at the house don't know where the defendant went to. That is all I know.

This was on Monday about a month ago. I live with this man but am not married to him. Def said you son of a bitch. The soldier got out & I looked for his shoes. Def caught hold of him. They had hold of each other & I went out. I never saw the soldier before that day.

Sentence

The Court finds the defendant M. Santiago guilty of manslaughter and sentenced him to Portaggas during life.

The woman is discharged.

It appears that 1900 feet of lumber, the property of Leutz & Windle Co., was sold, work on the house, where their stock was taken for use of the Freedmen, and that the value of this amount of lumber is pretty close that Company makes a good claim against the Freedmen, for

Statement of James F. Roberts
A Citizen of Macon County, Georgia

My name is James F. Roberts. I live in Callow Township, Macon County, Mo. I am a farmer by occupation. I am twenty-seven years of age. On or about the 16th of October 1864, I was at the house of Caleb Morrow. I saw there William PID Singleton, William Morrow, Isaac Summers. I also saw quite a number of women who appeared to be busy in sewing and knitting. William D. Singleton told me that he was going to leave the country that he was fixing up for that purpose. Caleb Morrow said he intended going to the brush.

When I left the house, William Morrow went with me. On our way he told me that the whole Ridge was preparing to leave but that he would not go as he did not intend to violate his oath. This was on Sunday. On the day before this took place, I met William Singleton at A. W. Richardson's. We got into conversation about Shelby. Mr. Singleton informed that the Federals had been doing a great deal of mischief here and now it was the time that he was expecting for Shelby and that they would leave things this way a while. He said their head quarters was at Naplesville, Ohio Chariton County. I asked him to show
One his fo'arms. He took from his pocket some letters and gave them to the writing fo'arms. James H. Roberts.

I am a citizen of Mason County, Virginia, and thirty-five years of age, a farmer by occupation. I am acquainted with William D. Singleton of Mason County, Virginia. Some time between the fifteenth and twenty-fifth of October, 1864. I saw him in the woods in the Chantin Bottom in Chantin. I was the house of one Cain, Peter. I was in company with Peter Cain, Peter's of James Leather's crew hiding in the woods, to prevent being taken by the Rebels. When William Denson joined the crew we were. He talked to us as if he intended to join the rebel service. We tried to induce him to abandon this notion. He remained with us all night and on the morning of the 30th I saw him until he returned from the woods. After having obtained his consent to one more lifetime.

Statement of William Singleton

Macon County, Missouri

My name is William Singleton, 33 years of age. I live in Chariton Township, Macon County, Missouri. Some time in October 1864 I was in company with James Leatherwood, Peter Cain, Peter Tuff & Felix Day. We were shooting deer in the brush to avoid being captured by Rebels. About daylight I and Cain Tuff started to our houses to get something to eat. As we were crossing the bottom we saw some men on horseback near the edge of the bottom. I tried to make out why they were, but could not. And I turned my horse to swim away. When they made a dash after one and Captured him before I could reach the timber. The men were all armed, I did not know any of the Clotho who captured me. They hustled me off South towards the Missouri line next morning just at day light. We crossed the river at Millersville. We was turned on South until we came to a place they called White Oak Hills. Where we was attacked by some friends and our party broke up into small groups of 3 and two in a group. We went on into Arkansas on Carroll County. When we got there there was nothing for them to eat and we was compelled to scatter over the country to get something to live upon. We started on east and came to White River at Talbot Ferry and there we told them that we would quit
And try and get something to eat for ourselves and horses, and we started North and did not stop for a day and night, traveling in the most direct way I could. I had some relatives living in Wright County, and we concluded to go to Henry. When I got there I went to Mrs. Kenny's (which was the name of my relative), went to Hartsville and reported our case. And there we obtained a pass to Lebanon and from Lebanon, and from Lebanon we got a pass to Macon (where we came at direct as we could) and reported at once.

While Blodman and Freeman came to where I was, Freeman wanted me to take charge of a herd and have them taken back to the lake. While I would have nothing to do with it, and he turned the horses back. And told another which belonged to John Anderson. I then asked him why, he said were who had stopped back where they came to me. The old William Blodman told me they were a crowd of boys from Reserve County. And said that Thomas Miller and George S. Blodman replied that they had two pistols in the crowd, asked him to ask questions as to where they were going as Blodman had told me that he was going to join Rice when he came into the State. I told him that I knew the Freeman was going. On the evening before this occurred, I went down into the River Bottom to get a horse of mind which was out at the time. I found Milton Barnes. Chas. Statement of Thomas D. Campbell, citizen of Platte County, Missouri, in the name of the United States against William Morrow jr. I have known said William Morrow for many years before and during the rebellion. I have had a neighbor to him and have had frequent opportunities of knowing his character as a loyal man, and have also had frequent personal interviews with him and have been regarded him as a loyal man from the beginning and opposed to secession and rebellion and such is and has been his reputation at all times and with all people as far as I know. I have always been a loyal and was the first Call I volunteered in the service to uphold the union and suppress rebellion and have continually regarded the accused as a true friend of the Cause. I know too well of the manner in which he came to be in the rebel service. I served and I worked together every day for about two weeks in the fall of 1864, and repeatedly conversed upon the subject of the threat and rebel said and I am confident that accused did not think of joining.
the rebels who we worked together. I regarded them and I do now as a good union man. After we quit working together I spent about two weeks in St. Charles County in the fall during which time the rebels were conscripting and raiding in our region of the country and when I came back the accused was gone. I do not believe he would have gone of his own accord. I now live in Randolph County, twenty-six miles from the accused having moved from Macon County about two miles below the county line. I am thirty-five years of age. Since the war began I had a brother-in-law to remain in prison eighteen months and was often applied to to sign a petition to get him out but I would not do it because he was with Porter's rebels four days and I made the insinuation to the accused forging statements not to aid any rebel but as I believe firmly to aid a man who has always been loyal.

Resident of Mason County Missouri

My name is William Morrow, I live in Callao Township, Mason County, Missouri. I am twenty-three years of age. I was with Isaac Summers, James Davis, H.B. Miller, and Samuel Morrow. We were concealing our lives in the woods. Some time previous to the 18th day of October 1861, I was captured by the rebels close to where I lived. We started down to James Leather, who lives near the Chariton River. We were going down. We thought we could better conceal ourselves in that neighborhood. On our way down we were captured by a band of armed men. Came upon us as we were crossing the Cedar Hill, and took us prisoners and bound us of South. I did not know the names of any of the men who captured us. Isaac Summers, James Davis, H.B. Miller, Samuel Morrow, and myself were captured. Then they took us on down by James Leather on the Chariton River. We saw two men coming across the bottom near some of the party in charge of us. They then in pursuit of them and captured one which proved to be William L. Long. They turned us on south to the Missouri River, and next morning about daylight we crossed the River at Indian Creek. They turned us north to fight, and said they were going to join Price as soon as possible. They took us just to Long Creek, and on in the direction of Independence, then they turned around and started to the south and went on to what they called the White Oak Hills, said they were attacked by Fort Hoskins and Scattered into small squadrons, and we struggled along through the mountains until we came to White River and crossed it and went into Arkansas to find relations. We stayed three days and one night and started on and went down to a little town called Cashville. And there we turned east to a town called Yellville and made our escape from there and (Yellville and) beguised White River at Chillico, there we turned around Cashville and arrived at the little town of Yellville in Wright County where Mr. William Sampson had a relative living. We got to the house of Mr. Benton in Wright County that Sunday, from Yellville, Mr. Singleton, and Mr. Benton went to Yellville to report and myself, Isaac Summers and Thomas Wilks, returned at Mr. Benton's some time after Sampson and Benton left. A council of Federals came along and we took our trip to Head Pecan. And the next morning, Sampson came in to stay at Yellville one day and two nights, and was released at the instance of Capt. Cook of the 10th. And then we started home came by the way of Lebanon, and was there interrogated by the U.S. Prov. Off. Who ordered us to report to Wilson, which we did as soon as we could make trip through.

I need a letter informing me that three men, who claim to be conscripts by some of our officers, bearing the late Confederate paid in MO, had been sent to St Louis, Mo. The names of these men are: Mr. Morrow, Isaac Summers, and Mr. Euston; they live in Macon County.

Why they are sent to St Louis I cannot understand. The testimony before Maj. Gen. McCay, Pro. Marshall, at Macon, shows fully that they were kidnaped, or conscripted. They made their escape returned.

I am fully posted in respect
to these men, and know them well. And must say that any further adoption or imprisonment of them is
wrong and unnecessary.
I much therefore ask
for their immediate release.

I see that decisions
are being made in the face of evidence, against men who never did any wrong (as in the Case of Henry Davis of Macon) which
is giving our Union friends, Lucy Rain.

These men, in nine cases
out of ten, who went out willingly to join Price, have enlisted for service with other deserters, into other States, and places of safe retreat. Illinois is reported to be full of them, Kentucky was her share and in the spring many of them will appear in armed guerrilla bands in the brush to rob and murder. Not so with those who appeal to us for protection. If their appeal were false, they knew their falsehood would be detected—
I desire to know why these men are ordered here and what is in contemplation to be done with them.

Yours Respectfully,

Statement of John H. Summers, late of Lincoln, Licking County, Ohio, who was 74 years of age.
I have been a loyal man since the commencement of the Rebellion.
James Summers and William Henson have been Union men since the commencement of the Rebellion and have been good citizens.
William Singleton and William Henson.
Thomas A. Meade was at the time a good Lincoln man in the earliest part of the Rebellion, distinguished in Southern sentiments but has been at home during the entire time until consecrated.
Meade would say anything in regard to his position until this fall when he has declared himself a loyal man.

v. 61
David Griffin
T. F. Knight being duly sworn deposes and says

I am thirty-three years of age—a farmer by occupation—a resident of Brunswick Township, Chariton Co., Mo. I was at home on the 5th during Prices' raid. I understand that David Griffin is a prisoner in St. Louis, claiming to be a Conscript. To my own knowledge he was in the habit of acting as a leader or Conscripting officer. I have met him on the road at different times decked off with ribbons &c. in regular bushwhacker style armed well. This during Prices' raid. He had many opportunities to make his escape if he wished to be desired, but he was one of the most officiating men in this section. I am confident that but few men were forcibly conscripted from this county as they might have kept out of the way if they desired.

Rouses Point, Dec. 24, 1864

I, P. Knight, being duly sworn says I am thirty-three (33) years of age, a farmer by occupation, a resident of Rouses Point, New York, at the time of the said patrol, I was at my home.

I further declare that David Griffin is just over 25 years of age, and by virtue of my claim, I am to be a conscientious objector to my own knowledge, he was in the service of the state as a conscripting officer, or leader.

I wish him at one time to accompany me, with our Company, both armed and rigged up with ribbons.

This being the time of the raid, he had plenty of opportunity of making his escape if he wished to do so, but he was one of the most efficient men of this section. I also know that Abram Brown, an uncle, Jacky Magruder went off with their own accord. I am confident that but few were forcibly conscripted from this county, as they might have been out of the way if they desired.

I, P. Knight,

This is to certify that I have been personally acquainted with Elies Coltrill and Watson Coltrill for some nine years and I have every right to say that they are peaceable, good citizens. Elies Coltrill was with me a short time and returned home to the US. Marshal and was as good an peaceable a citizen as our country afforded. I saw Elies Coltrill a few days before he was taken by the Bushwhackers and he told me on positive terms that he was afraid of Jackson's band and I verily believe that neither of the boys would have gone if they had not been forced to go.

Statement of

Matured Cathills

Taken by Capt. G. H. Miller
Statement of Nathan Austin about his five year old son will be next April. I reside in Sandy Township in the County of Sharon. Mr. Halliday and Mr. Brown or some of them came to my house or about the first day of August last just after dark in the evening they ran up to the head of the house, they ran up to the door and told me that I had to go with them. My brother was with me, they ordered him also to go with them. They ran about thirty minutes at my house. They there went down into the back of the Sharon road. They took my brother by the arm and I left my family alone and ran and to leave them with a box of clothing with me not what I had on. I made my way down a way to make it back home. We went into Sharon and there was some kind of stone in all. The company split up into small bands in Sharon and Mr. Brown wanted to come back into Sharon and with some other for the purpose of going into town to get a horse that I would go with him. He told me that I would go with him when he first spoke. My horse I asked them to let me go home and give up things to wouldn't join him as he came back he said that he would be back in about a week.
I went down and agreed to meet him at a particular place on Wednesday night about five miles from where I lived, we did not go there at all, this was only a place which my brother and myself had to get off from the road. I told all of my crop that I was going to New to town. I sent my wife a week a letter to Col. Porter at Brunswick informing him that we wanted to get into the militia.
My brother, my self and Eliza observed was an
way to New to when we were expected.
He was arrested in Macon Co., and was with the gang just five days. They had me and often before during the time that I was with them. I disturbed my peace. I was in the militia in the winter of 1862. Commander Capt. John Stealsville. I was in the militia about one month.
and not deserting during the time I was in the militia. I was enrolled in 1862 as a loyal man.

I live in Rosene Howard Co. Mo. I am well acquainted with Eliza Butterfield and Matrona Corters. They live near Kittelville, Chariton Co. Mo. They each married to sisters of mine. In July last I heard that they had been taken from home and started to see my sisters. In the Charitons about five miles East of Kittelville, my brother was on the road at the time of the guerrillas. I asked Jim Jackson, who asked me where I was going. I told him I was going to see my sisters. He asked me if I had seen anything of my brother-in-law. The Corters. He said that he had taken two by force of arms about five days before between daylight and dark. After this if he caught them he would put a Minnie ball into them for devotions. The next day before I went up to my sisters, found the boy in a cornfield and took them home with us. Jackson was frequently inquiring after them, and they finally in order to get away from him concluded to go to Denver. They started on the 1st of September and were arrested on the 9th. I have seen these men at least once a week since the war broke out, and they were never engaged in bushwhacking. They heard from utter any disagreeable language. I was born in Washington, County, Va.
I was captured in Mason County, Mo.

on or about the 11th day of September, 1864.

The cause of my capture was because I was returning to a farm I had just bought. I was also ordered to go with them about 3 or 4 times during the first week of about the 28th of July, 1864, and told us that the Southern side was posited.

I reported that I was a soldier in the Fifty-Second Regiment, 8th Infantry, 8th Infantry.

I was in arms against the United States, and was a member of the Rebel service.

I was sworn into the Rebel service about the Twenty-First day of July, 1864, by Mottjellou, Governor of Arkansas.

I was sworn in Chantilly, County, Ala., for three years.

This is the only time I have been known with any Rebel service.

When captured, I was first taken to St. Joseph, Mo., and remained there about 6 months, and was examined there by Gen. Grant, and was sent to St. Louis, Missouri, about the 31st day of February, 1865.

I took the oath of allegiance to the United States, about the 1st day of February, 1865.

Mr. Frederick Tharp, a citizen of this county, has just received a letter from his two sons, Frederick and George Tharp, from Kearneys Ferry, stating that they were arrested and confined in the United States at Fort Place, on suspicion of being deserters.

We, the undersigned, respectfully beg leave to state that they are citizens of this county and that they are not and never have been in the army and that they went on their way to Washington to seek employment. They left this place in company with a black slave who was going to Georgetown. The letter they write is not definite, but it appears they were anxious while on an attempting to get to the Ohio somewhere.

Mr. Keys is a peaceable and respectable citizen of this county & is loyal.

Respectfully submitted

Says he owns the keg. Got it from an Irishman on 6" St. Can't remember the name. The Irishman put it in a barrel for him and sent it to the Market House in Georgetown. Cost $2.25 per gal. Did not know Mcdaniel carried any out before. And never carried any out for him, and the same with regard to Clemens et al.

Joe Mahoney is his father, and the flour was for himself, because he got the whiskey and going to have a party, keg contains ten gallons.

Gentlemen:

I send you three persons arrested at Chain Bridge for smuggling whiskey and other articles without permit, also their permits, and statements.

I have suspected M. Daniels, and Clemens, for some time but had not been able to fix my plan to catch them until this time. I left directions at the Chain and Aqueduct bridges for their arrest; they were taken yesterday with the articles sent to you by guards. Mahony is the party who had the whiskey in the barrel, I had no suspicion of him until day before yesterday when these three parties came together.

Promptly came in the room, asked if he was a Democrat, he replied that he was a Confederate soldier from Union Army, and belonged to Webster company. "Died, Burt Fonder, was on the train at the time. I went away for certain. This day, 18th, I paid call, saw in the room at the time, he said that he wanted the picture. I was always ready, made over and left it. Burt Fonder, the man that his name was. Yes, I would have reported the facts to the Confervean at Robinson's. But there were no one there until the bushwhacker went out of the corral. Now I do not think it was enough to report. Deaver saw my bushwhacker and left the one that was at the Finches. That Tuesday of November, 1865.

Mrs. Sarah Stover, a prisoner at this post, makes the following voluntary statement: I am 19 years of age. Resided at my father's in Mills County, Missouri. At the time of the fight at Lexington in 1861 I made a Yank for the use of the Confederate soldiers. The ladies in the vicinity made clothes to send and went with the rest. The clothing was delivered to Mrs. Hamer Kraft, to be sent to Lexington. In the summer of 1864, while Melvin's men were equipped in the vicinity of Millville, one of his men by the name of John came to my father's house and told Mrs. Maggie Price, my sister Betty and I to each make a shirt for them, and we did so. He used no threats, but as my father was in company with a Kansas man in the store. We thought that if we did not make them they would a way might be. I knew it was my duty to report their presence to the authority. I was afraid to do it. Some men who had been captured and had reported were cut off.

Col

I have the honor to transmit herewith the papers together with the prisoners in charge of William D. Fagan Lt. 9th U.S. I.
The females simply made clothing for volunteers
men. And it may seem strange to you, that we would forward females that are guilty of so slight an offense. But these girls live in a neighborhood
where such notorious guerrillas are fed, clothed,
harbored, and in order to have peace in this country
if we can not catch the guerrillas themselves,
we must do the next best thing, imprison them
who harbor, conceal, feed and clothe them. I hope Col. You may concur with me in my opinion in this regard. I at present see no prospect of muzzling them off, so I forward them hoping you may
house them, safely.

I am Col.

Very Respectfully

February 27th, Mrs. Bessie. You look so promising at the post office the following day. I was twenty-one years of age, write to Helvellyn Roy County. We spent our time in the month of September in October. On one of your letters, you mention the name of the town where we are. On the 27th, Mrs. Maggie, also our sister, is in the room, and she said there was three girls and they could make them. My father was in the town, and he knew that.

We discussed various topics, and I was afraid to say otherwise, than to make them laugh at the expense of the other married girls, because a chat was not as easy as my self.

Did you make any threats at the time? He was at your house, if you could not reach the place.

Did he order you to make them, and I was afraid to refuse.

Did you ever see any of the other schoolmates at Helvellyn, and yes, I saw them pass through once, wherein was points and towns.

Did you know it was your duty to refuse this to your kinder friends.

Once, I thought it was, but ess, even was a fool to refuse to, until the buckwhackers were.
As we rode out of the County, thus & did not think it worth while to report,

Do you make any clothing for the rebels in 1861?

And I made one overcoat and helped to make another one. They were torn up with some other clothing. These were collected together at the neighbors and sent to the rebels. I think they were sent to Pilgrims after the battle for the wounded soldiers.

Do you know any others that came for or gave clothing to the rebels at the Rebecca,

Yes, I do not know for certain of any one, but have heard that the following parties gave clothing:

- Mr. Henry Taylor
- Mrs. Joseph Boston
- Dr. Alfred Austin
- Mrs. W. Cotton
- Dr. John Wild
- Dr. C. Groves
- Dr. Washington
- Mrs. Nicholas
- Mrs. David
- Mrs. Sarah Ford
- Mrs. Perry
- Mrs. Waddam

As there was the clothing collected at our encampment, did you take the cloth you wore,

Yes, I think the cloth was taken to Miss Bounds, but do not know when the clothing was collected together.

I understand that Miss Bounds had some cloth, some clothing at Pilgrims after the battle was over.

Col,

The two M'rs. Crawler and M'rs. Brier, manifest a desire to take the oath and leave the State. If they will do so, I would respectfully request that they be released upon their terms. This is the last known to me upon the 10th of their leaving for St. Louis, the train being ready to start. I have not time to change the papers, or I would thus deal with them myself. This much by way of explanation.

The following telegram received at New Orleans:

12 No. 1st 1865

From Capt. [illegible] M

Dated, 1st May, 1865.

Very, Gen'l S.A. Hurlbut

Cnclng.

As to the Cotton of White and

Hun House, I respectfully report that the character of the parties is very bad. They are the father and sister of the veteran Thomas White. The Cotton was brought in on Treasury permit, coming only products raised within the lines of actual military occupation. There was no military safe conduct. I did not consider the product in question as raised within the lines, suspicion fraud. I directed the Cotton to be held during investigation, finding upon examining that they appear ed to be non-fraudulent intentions respecting the Cotton, considering the past practice here. I directed the Cotton to be released but I declined to allow each person to go to A. O. and with my approval the parties selected W. H. Goodale as their agent to receive the Cotton now turned over. I also required the parties in question to leave this place by some convenient way. Their permit was left here, in proper facility to send the Cotton to A. O. upon proof the parties were detained here about two days while I was trying to arrest Virginia White according to order.

Lieutenant

Lieutenant,

I have the honor to call your kind attention to the cases of Joseph Elliott and David Cowan who have been in close confinement in the Police Jail arresting by military authority since May last. They were arrested on suspicion that they were in some way connected with the burning of steamboats here in April or May last.

They are not aware, so far as I understand the case, that any regular charges must against them. I am not aware that the fire itself was established to have been excruciating in its origin.

May I request for them a release? They have been most confined nearly ten months.

Yours truly,

Having adopted the plan of vigorous and timely measures for the relief of the upper counties of the state, I have the honor to submit the following plan of operations.

The main object is to move the troops of our army in force against the vicinity of Rhinebeck and to concentrate at that point, to secure the enemy from making further efforts to obstruct the advance of our forces. The following is the plan of operations:

1. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Schuyler will move to the vicinity of Rhinebeck and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

2. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Morgan will move to the vicinity of the Schenectady and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

3. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Anthony Wayne will move to the vicinity of Saratoga and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

4. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Johnny Adams will move to the vicinity of the Hudson and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

5. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Charles Lee will move to the vicinity of the Mohawk and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

6. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Jonathan Trumbull will move to the vicinity of the Connecticut and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

7. The division of the army under the command of Major-General Ethan Allen will move to the vicinity of the Massachusetts and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

Upon the arrival of the above-named divisions, the commander-in-chief will move forward with the main body of the army and take up a position on the opposite shore of the river, in such a manner as to prevent the movements of the enemy from that direction.

The above plan of operations is submitted for your consideration and approval.

New Orleans, February 26th. 1865.

Captain,

I have the honor to report that three Carondelet prisoners escaped last night; they were confined in cell No. 1. They got away through the ceiling and the garret. From there through the yard, they had a rope made out of bed sheets, which they fastened to the lightning rod and by which they lowered themselves to the ground. Their names are D. F. West, N. T. Rike, and J. S. Shipley, alias Shackle Shipley. I now send a description which unlocked Shipley. He now resides in New Orleans, and in care of his confinement. I found a warder's key which unlocked Shipley, as well as possibly the tools they had utilized to make into a saw. They had all been angered by being in confinement. In what manner they had these tools passed to them I am unable to tell, but one had been passed to the Repp, or Preblett, but Repp's mother had had passage to her in New Orleans, and Mother, the two soldiers who had often tried to make their escape, had also a hole through the ceiling of their cell, but were discovered before they got away. The man they informed me that he made his escape 3 minutes before five o'clock, and everything seemed quiet on and about the prison. At 10 minutes past five o'clock, and discovered a rope at the front of the prison; the alarm was given and it was found that the above named prisoners were missing. I have a description of these escaped prisoners telegraphed to the different Police Stations at 5 o'clock this AM.

Appointed, I would like for yours.
and an officer to investigate the matter or if possible come yourself.

I would ask for a commission to investigate it, but fear it would not be granted, as I made the request on a previous occasion and it was not granted, the above are all the facts of the case as far as I know.

I have the honor to send you under guard my arrestee, Mrs. Brouca, who I arrested at Mr. Lewis Eggers. I made a thorough search but nothing was found to lead to any detection. Their trunks contained nothing but wearing apparel with the exception of Mrs. Brouca's last piece for two dresses that were not made.

Mrs. Brouca, you will find by cross questioning, does not keep one story. I love the long to be among Obs Scott.

Lient Col. Wm. N. Thornton

Sir, may it please your honor, we Oliphant & Thos. Steagall do call upon your honor to be so kind as to look over this our statement for which reason we are here confined between the 15th & 16th of Dec. We were acqainted with a Lient Dearing at DeSoto on the 15th. And he asked me if I knew any way of catching a man living a delinquent miner and promised me one half the value of his goods he had if I would find out his time of going and let him know it, so he could catch him. I told him I would try to do so but I thought it a hard matter to find out any thing about him on this side of the lake that I had been acquainted with long long before I came into the lines and he was not alone in this business for he had been at Times a short time after the fall of Shiloh in Partnership with Mr. Grant who lives on the Tennesse. I told him I saw them often on the Tennesse River with goods while I was on the dodge from the Confederates and if it was over there I could very easy find out when the time the boat then it would be easy for to trap him but since I came into the lines I could not hear from him until he had left which was too late to try to catch him and also I could see him after his return but to find out the time of his departure was impossible. So I told Lient Dearing I had a family on the Tennesse River and my Wife was to be confined between the 15th last of January and if he would permit me to go out and take to her some little things to him for her confinement (which thing you find a memorandum of) I would at the same time find out when Steagall was due and I would put him into his hands, for I knew
The place where he landed his goods for hauling, which is at the junction of Mr. Jud Hayfield who knows within 2 or 3 days of his coming. He told me it was impossible for him to do so to permit any one to pass out but still insisted that I would try to help catch him. I told I would and left him. I was staying with Mr. Hayfield on the frontier and asked him to help in finding out Long's tribe and we would make something in helping to catch him. He agreed to do so and as soon as we found out Long had returned from the confederacy having obtained the small articles that my wife needed at the store for my mother which is now in her 70's. I set out for Sandipah River but did not reach the mountains before we were arrested and brought back on the 20th Nov l 44.

Believe therefore pray if we have done wrong to be forgiven and hope the next time we under take any thing of this kind to be better prepared with documents to show our mission. I also pray you not think it a thing incredible for a man to help his wife in a time of confinement. We are both fugitives from the confederate army and both poor men having not a dollar in the world what little stuff we had we have left behind at the mercy of the confederates, which mercy I suppose your honor knows how far it goes with a deserter. Which man I would be ashamed to own if I thought I had been in the right cause. WE close praying you will have us released if possible helping never to offend again God being our helper.

Yours Respectfully Robert Jud Hayfield

Sir:

I very respectfully, would draw your attention again, to these cases containing, good horses, which I have killed before you, some weeks ago. There are two of them. (Rebels') pistols have been found, against those men that have taken the horses. If there is no other charge against you for doing anything in this matter, I believe you surely have the power, to issue an order, which will take this goods of nice law, out of the hands of the magistrate, and bring it before you. By doing so, if nothing else can be done at present, you will very much oblige all the concerned here in this matter. You have heard enough, and are not to underpay, to pay Rebels' money, which the law is not intended to.

The cases I refer to, is Henry Bolleman, who has taken a horse from Caleb Bagg, for which Caleb Bagg is indicted before the Justice of the Peace.

The second is Louis Goates, who have an mare taken from John Hieatt, who the John. You'll have preserved the same by the sheriff, and comes before the Circuit Court.

Sir, hoping that you will take the matter, in your hands, and by this stopping all such matter, for the further time, you could be assured that you will do what is right, more concerned.

I live in the following article (small) one arrested and ever one calf from Mr. Eary from fort and cloves live one small ten den-do re and one with whom I was living in Rolla Mo. When the goods were taken from me the goods were taken from the gar. And by the house I have lived the goods when they were taken. I recognize the goods and on Court as any goods the reason that were taken from me. I now state the goods are mine.

Edna Dillinger

Said Peter, for the State, on the 9th day of February 1865, to the Hon. J. G. Dillinger, and the townspeople of Springfield, on the 9th day of February 1865. I was at his house all night, there were those who came, and from St. James Winemore on the day named of one of the witness and there, when I got a witness and a boy left with one and when I was returning I met a witness and he company with one Cusquante. Each of them had rode past one witness and them, they gave them to me and the boy who was with one to carry a witness. When Cusquante then went some where else and Cusquante came in some half hours, went away as we and Cusquante took with Cusquante, and in about an hour. He asked me if I was to go with them, I went with them to the hotel called at the terminus of the Road Lead me to the hotel they had some things inside away from the hotel Hotel there were two walls times one hundred one and a half and another a pot or a bucket. They gave me the alcohol to the boy with one and trying to carry the same to Cusquante house which he did, Cusquante at Cusquante came have six times 1/4 of an hour. I knew Cusquante and that he came cannot wear being carry when he got the hotel. I know of my own knowledge that a witness and Cusquante were at the Penny Hotel house in the night my eyewitness saw John Cusquante take one pot and bid the same oven and one small blow lean little one bucket and have and hand them to Cusquante, who was standing behind a stable about 60 steps from the place, at which the witness the wood I was standing about 35 paces from Cusquante when the wood was burnt taken Cusquante took a bear every pot of the same line.
This was on or about the 20th of December, 1849. I can account for the fact that the barn was open and the cattle and live stock were in the barn, not one, but two. Beckett was taken from Mr. Pennington at that time. The said Article is now in the hands of Mr. Pennington and I have never seen or heard of Mr. Pennington losing it. I knew at the time that Mr. Pennington lived at the place from which the Articles were taken. I afterwards asked Mr. Pennington where his goods were, told him they were at the house of the defendant. The reason that I did not tell Mr. Pennington sooner than I did was because I had sworn the crew would tell me the name of the man who owned defendant's house, and that I knew to be correct. I gave the crew that night all the gold, silver and copper in the house that might be all this because I knew that I was in the neighborhood.

Of the prisoners that I sent in to you last night, viz. Bellamy, Wife, child, P. Brahan, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Clement, 3 negroes, came down hand in hand on a small flat boat. Mr. P. Brahan owned the boat, and with the three negroes was simply transporting the rest of the party to some points from which they could get entire on ruins. When questioned they pretended to be innocent refugees going to Bayou Bolivar from there to N. Orleans, with the exception of the crew of the boat, who intended to return up the river with his boat. He claimed that he had permission from Capt. Rice of the 31st to bring persons in from the S. S. lines, whom he pleased without being mistreated by our pickets. The bundle of sealed letters tied together with twine were found on the person of Mr. Bellamy, and the loosen papers, including Mrs. Monroe's Bath and all of Mr. Bellamy's private papers, were found on the person of Mrs. Monroe. I consider Mr. Bellamy and his friends, as shown by his papers and his own admissions, to Suspicions that I thought it best to arrest Mr. Shahan and the negro for transporting him, Mrs. Monier for having his letters in her possession. Other letters for being in bad company.

Mr. Isaac Finin & Mr. R.A. Charleville with two Negroes came down Bayou Bridge. I consider their letters rather suspicious. For instance Mr. Finin has his catch with him and also a Confederate receipt of 100 New Orleans horse. Also a bill of sale he calls family supplies, but in my opinion rather too large a quantity to be intended for one family. Mr. Charleville also has a very large bill of family supplies, and a letter from some other party requesting him to send them 100 lbs. of coffee, but the two letters together and its looks as though he was in the habit of supplying other families besides his own. I did not think it best to let them go back and give information of being here and concluded to keep them in this spot. Have sent a party of the Scouts down Grand River in @ 150 with instructions to return tonight, also a small party of them up the opposite side of Bayou Pete with instructions to return tonight. If neither party learn anything important I will then have recurred the boat to arrest certain persons and will attend to it immediately. Any instructions or suggestions will be gladly received from you and Monthly actio.

I went down to the store No. 213 & 217 Old Second St. with Sgt. Office Crichton. I went in & told the colored clerk I wanted a suit of clothes, I stripped and told him I did not want the old clothes any more, to put them away. That I was going away, that I was sick of being a soldier. He said "It was all right, I put on the suit." Officer Crichton came in & arrested him. A policeman took me then on Monday last to show on what kind of clothing some soldiers bought them on Saturday last, so that I could identify them.

Ebensberg, Feb. 25, 1865.

Dear Sir:

You will recollect, I doubt not, the fact of A. C. Mulquin Esq., himself calling on me some 10 days since in reference to the cases of Joseph Cole and Francis P. Dinwiddie. You had before you the charge against Joseph Cole, but not those against Francis P. Dinwiddie. On our return to Hanover we called upon Capt. John J. Shoemaker, judge advocate, who informed us that he had given a trial at one of the two cases, and had given a decision in favor of the defendant. We had not yet been sent to him.

Upon learning the cases brought to a trial I at once wrote to Capt. Shoemaker, P.M. of the 23rd, 1865, of this dict. where the arrests were made, who informed me that the charges had been sent to Capt. Shoemaker of Hanover. I then wrote to him, and he returned my letter endorsed thus: “No. 23, 1865. Respectfully returned to Capt. John J. Shoemaker.” with the information that charges against the within named men were forwarded to Maj. John A. Huston, Adj. Gen.
Philadelphia. in January last."

"P. S. The 7th, Sept. 30th, 1816.

As the charges against Deery are not in the profession of that L. Johnston, it occurred to me, you might possibly have overlooked them, and hence my present letter. Any thing you can do towards facilitating an early trial will be gratefully acknowledged, as an addition to my desire to have the man released, if innocent and punished if guilty. I have the personal grounds that on land at Eberstadt, consumes my time from the 1st, till the third Monday of March.

Maj. Gen. Dana,
Comrdy. Dist. West Tenn.

We, the undersigned citizens of the district of West Tennessee, being desirous of protecting the portion of our once prosperous state, from the tyrant exercised over us by the unconfederate authorities, and desiring to defend our homes and property, do hereby request you to organize a company of volunteer infantry in each county, and we pray that you furnish Capt. W. H. Smith with the proper authority to organize the same for us. We have known him as an officer for the past nine months, and have unlimited confidence in his military ability, judging him by his past achievements. We have found him a gentleman, kind, but brave, daring, and energetic. And see in our opinion just the man to undertake the difficult and hazardous task of organizing our militia. Capt. Fox

Dr. lei,

Permit me to offer you my views in regard to raising and organizing a company of volunteers in each county in West Tennessee as proposed by Capt. Linder. The first question that presents itself is this: is there a present necessity for such an organization? Unquestionably there is and always will be a condition of the state of affairs in the country demands immediate relief to her citizens. It is not only their right but their duty to do so. The great and powerful force of the people in the Union prove their fidelity and devotion. There is also another class of arms, men in this country who are deserting from the Southern army. Wherever in this country a man, woman, or child is found, there is also another class of arms. Men in this country who are deserting from the Southern army who remain in arms merely for purposes of resisting recapture by Federal commanders, than for disturbing the citizens through having no other means of support forage off their neighbors, then a force much like them in hundred from each county would at once give terror to the first class who would at once commence hiding and fleeing from an armed enemy and finally almost unite to suppress this would at once advise the other chiefs from the danger of conscription or recapture by their own party who thus released would in my opinion be easily disposed of being already satisfaction with fighting for their rights, could they be assured that they would be permitted to remain at home as non-combatants would willing surrender their arms take the amnesty oath and become law-abiding citizens.
If I am asked the question what form all this would do, I answer much and say much and why because there are over fifty thousand human beings in west Tennessee who are entirely destitute of all means of support except what is derived from the products of their small farms. These persons are widows and orphans who have lost their husbands or fathers in the service of this country, and a few helpless and aged parents, who are not only citizens of the United States, but loyal citizens to government of the United States of America. Their petitions complaining any denote the government for immediate aid and protection.

The country this year cleared of an armed enemy and held by friendly powers. I sincerely believe that those who are at their homes and who in this time is aided by the aid of the present applicants as a commissary agent for relief would be at their homes with an competency for the next year. In conclusion allowing respectfully to urge that under the circumstances which exists shall be enlisted or allowed to carry arms of any kind, within the state.

Col. S. M. Leatherman,
Memphis, Tenn.

My dear Col. You will remember that about the 8th of December last, I went to Memphis for the purpose of getting a pass through the lines for my father, mother, and family. In Memphis, I obtained a pass from Gen. Buckner for them and their personal baggage, and they started for the lines. I have not heard directly from them until this morning, when I received a letter from one of them dated Hannibal, Mo., 15th, 1863, in which she states they were detained several hours at the ticket line and subsequently sent back to Memphis under guard and taken to the office of the detective police where their baggage was opened and where they were rudely insulted. Of their wearing apparel and that of the little children every thing of value was seized by the officers. His drawers, under clothes, children’s under clothes, stockings and an extra pair of shoes for each of the children, work boxes, and several handkerchiefs, and even the “dolls” and little play things of the little children were taken from them, and when they demonstrated and asked permission to return to the State and send for...
for me, that they might go back to their duties, rather than go through the lines stripped of everything, they will demand that freedom and association with the living God, and after serving long detention, they stripped of their clothing they were sent through the lines under guard.

I write to you for the purpose of asking you to my friend, to learn the opinion of the detective chief at that time and to lay the matter before God. Dana! I do not intend to rest in this matter until the full facts are elicited and the justices punished. I have applied to the President for authority to embark in investigation to seek the men to punishment and am assured that it is if any application to God it does.

I have however the fullest confidence that God will not hesitate to put in your hands inquiry to accomplish the end in view. He is a teacher and a gentleman, and cannot permit unoffending women and helpless children to be thus repeatedly robbed and plundered by men under his control.

Will you do or the kindness to see God. Dana, and of those ladies are not now in Memphis. Do not when they are I will follow them.
No matter where they are,
I am very respectfully,
I truly yours,

My dearest Peter,

You must not be afraid when this reaches you as I am guilty of nothing of what I am about. This morning Mr. Bankes sent me to see if the U.S. Frigate Colorado had come to the Navy yard to send things to a shipmate. So on the way I happen to fall in with this ship today & talked with some sailors below going to her. One invited me on board to look at their guns. After being on board a little while I was surrounded with a herd of men with fife band. They got me below in Iowa & in a bad place.
I want you to come bring the

Déposition de Duprés

Relative au seigneur Maurice Le Marie

Nous sommes venu vers les 5 heures de l'après-midi du 24 janvier 1863, et nous nous encontrons dans un café tout près du bâtiment. Cet homme entre alors, se racle à notre conversation et ne dit qu'il a fait engager il y a peu de temps un homme dans l'armée des États-Unis, sans qu'il ait donné 600 francs et que 74 heures après il avait fourni les moyens de combattre avec l'argent reçu. Nous sortons alors et nous trouvons le dernier il m'engage directement de l'avoir

Dester avec lui en promettant de me faire gagner cette somme et de me faire de même ensuite. Je monsieur, m'insiste, me met la main sur l'épaule et cherche à me retenir presque par force de m'éloigner d'ainsi demes camarades. Il répond même à l'indien qui était revenu vers moi me chercher qu'il allait me conduire à bord avec mon instant, je fis alors semblant d'accepter son offre, mais reprenant je voulais entrer pour tâcher de prendre dans ma poche l'argent que je disais avoir, il m'accompagne et monte à bord m'attendre. Le capitaine demeure me voyant arriver et demande. Je lui maintenai que lui même qu'il serait de chercher un ménage. Je suis de temps après je le vis saisir par la force et mettre en fure.

Nous sommes de ce temps que les échevins de la préfecture de 29 janvier 1865, nous avons arrêtés dans un acte tant juré et testé.

Cet homme entre alors, se mêle à notre conversation et nous dit qu'il a fait engager il y a peu de temps un homme dans l'année de notre comice qui des fantômes donnerait 600 francs et que 24 heures après il lui avait fourni les margons de Soudet aux larges ceur. Nous sortons alors et Dupre reste seul avec lui, signant l'acte et qu'il est un problème.

Je m'approchai et je lui dis qu'il demandait combien on gagnait dans la marine française ; lui ayant répondu, il dit que les Américains payaient bien une fois, et qu'il les payait deux fois.

Il ajouta qu'il avait fait des deux quatre sommes de la Guerrière et Cing et un bâtiment d'Amour, la Victoire, et qu'ils étaient enchantés de leur sort, il nous dit que les Matelots voulait en faire autant et il les chargeait d'Eau.

Je le pris alors à part demandant de me laisser m'entendre avec lui et je appris que la maison était tout prêt, et que c'était que j'y étais il me fournirait un déguisement qui me permettrait de rentrer en totale liberté.

Je lui dis alors que j'allais le suivre, mais qu'avant je m'entrainais à bord pour prendre quelques effets, il m'y accompagna pour m'attendre, et était sur le pont, je lui livrai au Chef de 1er armes Comm. en Embuscade.

According you will find a copy of the order of Gen. J. T. Wilson, brigadier-general, dated Oct. 19th, 1863, together with a copy of proceedings of a public meeting of loyal citizens of Antietam county held at Martinsburg, Oct. 19th, 1863, attached to these proceedings is a list of damages laid by loyal citizens of said county claimed to have suffered from the hostile people they refused said society last summer.

I have concluded in the part of said loyal citizen, consisting of Capt. J. H. Lees, J. B. Martin, John Widner, and James Stein and Aaron R. Smith, of Martinsburg, have applied to me to issue an order of the loyal citizens, and check the assessment of 1862, 1863, and 1864, saying they believe the amount of damages they claim to have suffered...
during the said invasion.

They were represented to me very many cases
their property was removed out of the local shops by their colored neighbors and that while they have been unquestionably of nothing, the white inhabitants said County have not been induced to any restraint. They also aver the while in Butler County would not be at all understandable by the payment of such assessed assessments.

I have sought to refer the matter

General Orders
No. 20

It appearing to the Commanding General that in the recent raid made by the rebels into the County of Berkeley, State of West Virginia, a large number of loyal citizens were wantonly plundered by rebel officers
and soldiers because of their attachment for and fidelity to the Government of the United States; and it also appearing that a large number of citizens of Berkeley County are hostile to the Government of the United States, in symp-pathy with and giving aid and comfort to these plunderers of citizens because of their fidelity to the Government of the United States — as a mental punishment to such disloyal citizens for their disregard of their obligations to their Government and countenancing these outrages of the public enemy it is ordered, that the Commanding General of the Post of Martinsburg W.Va. organize a Military Board of Inquiry and Assessment (whose duty it shall be)
to ascertain the loss of each individual loyal citizen of the County of Berkeley, by the siege or destruction of his or her property by the Rebels, and when so ascertained, to assess the whole amount against the disloyal property holders of the said County of Berkeley, which paid assessment shall be collected by proper Military Orders; and when so collected shall be duly paid over to the several loyal citizens who shall be found to have sustained losses as above set forth.

The Commanding General assures all parties concerned that he will invariably assess all losses sustained by loyal citizens at the hands of the Rebels against the property of the disloyal sympathizers wherever the necessity to do so may arise.

Provost Marshal, Dist. Eastern Virginia

Requests permission to employ W. W. Smith in detective service, suggests that W. T. B. Bowden be retained as Financial Clerk, enclosing his communication to the General Court.

[Signature]

Received: 22d, Dist. Va., Mar. 27, 1865.
General,

In reply to your circular of the 27th inst., I have the honor to state, that, in accordance with orders received from Maj. Genl. McD. I have discharged three deserters, Scotts, in the office, two of whom received $100 per month each, and one $75 per month.

I have also discharged Mr. H. Smith, who has been in the detective service, and shall, per order, discharge Mr. Broden, financial clerk, at the end of this month.

I would respectfully request permission to employ Mr. H. Smith on a salary of $125 per month. Mr. Smith is very efficient in assisting deserters many of whom reach this place while endeavoring to get north. He is a very shrewd, candid and honest man, and will save double his salary to the Government in the arrest of deserters alone. He is a very useful man in other respects, and I earnestly hope the Maj. Genl. Commanding may deem it proper to retain him to this office.

I would further suggest that Mr. Broden be retained on a salary of $100 per month, and that, in addition to his present duties, he have charge of the finances of the Prison and Jail. I need a Clerk for this position very much, especially while the finances of the City Schools are conducted under the auspices of this office. Mr. Broder is thoroughly competent and under heavy bonds for his fidelity in office. I forward herewith his communication to the Maj. Gen. Commanding, which I approve.

Provoost Marshal's Office,
Head Quarters District of Eastern Virginia,
Norfolk, Va., February 27, 1865.

Major Gen'l Ord,
Commanding Dept. E. Virginia.

General,

I have the honor to state that on the 10th day of August, 1864, I was appointed Financial Clerk of the Front Marshal of this Department, a position which I have held until I was informed your late order had removed me therefrom. I am an Union exile from the City of Williamsburg, Va., having left that place on the 20th day of August, 1862, when Gen'l McClellan was evacuating the Peninsula in conjunction with my brother (late Hon. Samuel J. Broder, representative from this State). Since my arrival in Norfolk, I have not pressed the soil of my late home, being fearful of injuries inflicted upon me by Rebel raiding parties, and have no means of deriving any assistance from my property, now beyond the Federal lines. When I first reached here, in view of my sufferings entailed upon me by Virtue of my Unionism, Gen'l Ord appointed me to an important position which I filled with satisfaction until elected by the Citizens of Norfolk, Clerk of this Circuit and Corporation Courts, Upon the suspension of Civil law by Genl. Butler, I was by his order appointed Financial Clerk a position which I have filled with entire satisfaction to all concerned, For the faithful discharge of the duties of my office I am placed under bonds penalty $10000 dollars.

Driven from my home, and a handsom estate for my devotion to the Union, Having adhered to it, and Refused to Vote for the Ordinance of Secession, when only four men could be found in my native City with myself who could withstand the influence excited in behalf of the Secession Cause, Now in wandering exile; All being endured in behalf of the Country, I respectfully request—If deemed proper by yourself that I be restored to my late position!

Very Respectfully,
Your Obed-Servant

Sir,

In the midst of the auspite of some of the Union troops of this place, I have got the names of twenty-five or six of the raiders that came in there last Thursday morning, and I stole our house with some other property. I will give you as near a correct statement as to (their names and circumstances) in regard to their property. There is some few men in the upper part of this county that had some things that was on the raid a short time back that came to Madisonville, that ought to be held equally guilty, as they have been bad rebels and have all their property yet. Mr. Joseph Young, for instance, a brother in law of Mr. Vaughn that is believed to be one of the places of Madisonville for the raiders. When the raid came in to Madisonville, & they had a brother in law of a Seneca law that was there and since then, only a short time since his daughter went through the lines a crop by the way of Murphy, etc. It is not known certainly whether either of them was here or not in the raid upon this place.

In the first place Capt. Martin of McMinn Co. was said to be in command of the raiding party on this place. I am informed by Mr. Jimm bridal, one of the agents for the U.S. Government that Mr. Martin property has all be disposed of. I know nothing about this friends or relations. Capt. W. B. Smith has all his property. His father W. B. Smith had a great deal of property, but the son of Smith and the Agent (Mr. Pickle) has taken this farm in possession. In my last, I say there is a house and lot at Athens. With some personal property that has been seized. Lieutenant John Roberts has nothing himself, but has a mother, brothers, and sisters here, living on a good farm and have some personal property. Captain Rob Rowan I do not know whether he owns the farm where his father Joseph Rowan lives or whether it belongs to the old man. It is a good farm, and they have some property aside from the farm. Lately John W. Leppaugh has a fine farm, but the agent for the U.S. has taken possession of it. His wife is here and has some personal property. J. R. Brownes has a good farm and plenty of personal property with his family living on it, not owned by the U.S. agents. James Reagan, a son of the late Gen. James H. Reagan, is a young man that nothing in his own possession but his heir to one of the largest estates in this neighborhood. Joseph Rowan, a son of the late Col. John C. Rowan, who has nothing in his possession but this. Mother Mrs. Polly Rowan has a fine farm with some personal property. Augustus Walker has nothing in his possession. His mother married a man by the name of Lawrence. They live in McMinn County. They have a fine farm in this county. I think the right is in the Walker family. If so Augustus is an heir. Yet, Rain has a farm it is said to be in Roan County about two miles from this place. It is supposed a poor place. Thomas Herald has nothing in his hands. His father, Michael, Herald is gone south, but has a poor farm here with his family on it. Walter Lenoir has nothing in his possession, but this father, W. J. Lenoir is wealthy.
A. R. Nancy. He is nothing in this profession. His father, Jack Henry, who is gone south has a farm farm with this family on it. Larry Hook is worth nothing, his father lives in Madisonville in this County. I do not know what he is worth but I think he has a house and lot in Madisonville. Jefflitt has nothing, nor any relations that I know, any County or any where else. Joseph Kimbro I do not think that any thing, his mother is a widow and it is said she has been barbering, drinking for some time as he has bin in there stealing horses for some time of four weeks and said to be a bad man. I do not know the family myself only from character. John Hill is worth nothing, he has bin arriving with the runner. His father Ely Hill I do not know whether he is worth any thing or not. A. J. Boyd & Hein Boyd son of Old Joseph Boyd has nothing, then fathers that I know of but the father has plenty and it is said to be one of the places of Retreat for the help and thought by a good many that the old Lady Boyd is the regular channel by which the mind is kept up from here to Athe. The Boyd is the Gatherin' house of the rebel Sam Vaughan. As to the mail carrying I know not only what is thought by the Men in the neighborhood. John Parker, worth nothing. I think this father, Robert Parker is not worth any thing. Clipper. J. Henry has nothing, their silas, and their father J. D. Jones is loyal and always has bin and is all right in every respect. Josiah Randolph I think has some property though I do not know how much. His father Robert Randolph is very well off. Hugh Henderson I do not

Very Respectfully Submitted

R. T. Read
Capt. 1st Inf. 5th US M.
Fernville, Tennessee
February 7th, 1863

Brig. Gen. Tolson,

Sir,

We regret the circumstances that require us to beg the protection for our homes at the hands of Military Authorities. We are both loyal citizens to the U.S. and have been from the inception of the Rebellion. And as it is almost impossible to live and work and try to be together (outside of Fernville) we humbly ask that you will grant (at least) protection to our property. As to our political history we can give the best references in Knox County. And this with the highest respect. We are.

Respectfully,

J. F. Chamberlain

We understand your instructions that we were captured to our own surprise while on our way to Carthage. This is a mistake. We were indeed captured, but without giving us the chance to resist. We are the following.

The undersigned prisoners request your intervention in our behalf. We were captured while attending to our own private business. We are employed by our government, and I suppose entitled to our liberty at once, yet we are held by the rebels without giving any reason for so doing, and we therefore beg your assistance to effect our release. Dear Sir,

I would most respectfully ask transportation for Easter Wright, Caroline Archer and one White colored, to Sturgeon Station on N. M. R. R.

These are contrabands whose husbands are in the service of the U. S. They have an opportunity of getting employment at Sturgeon Station. They will thus be able to support themselves, and relieve cost from any further expense.

I have the honor to be,

My dear Mr. Bandy

Sir,
We were arrested yesterday and faced in our office with our books and papers, and after having been informed that we were about to be arrested, we asked for an inventory to be taken in our presence, that we might have a specification of the charges against us, and an opportunity to make our defense. We are entirely ignorant of the causes of our arrest, being deprived of our books and papers, and we are entitled to my a specification of the charges against us. We are entirely ignorant of the causes of our arrest, being deprived of our business, books, and business facilities. We are informed that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of a Justifiable Cause.

We have the honor to submit,

They also claim to belong to Mobile but all were found in their pockets some of a different character.

They were sent by Capt. John Craven, Agent, U.S. of Vicksburg, and forwarded under guard from South of his command to the office of the Rear Admiral, Vicksburg, to whom the letter of T. J. Torrance.

A large amount of Rebel and Johnston Exchequers, and Confederate Bonds, was found on their persons, also a large mail.

The Rebels of Echols and Confederate Rebels have done their part, led by the U. S. District Court and transferred over to the U. S. Marshal.

The only paper of a few characters found in the pockets of the papers, one letter, by D. B. Cravens, for mobile, except the others signed by Capt. J. Cravens, from移动 to the "Windsor Hotel, W. H. Woodward, E. B. Ford, Mr. Torrance, 1865, being the last the Rebel picket posts."

New Orleans.

Sir,

We have to call on you for advice and assistance in the following matter.

We left Mobile, Ala., on 16th January last, with the intention of going to Great Britain, via this place, and arrived on the Mississippi River on our way here, on 22nd or 23rd ulto., where we expected to get a pass to come to this city. Capt. Scowen, of the U.S. Sloop Kenwood, however, refused to give us permission to come here, and having taken several letters from us (the contents of which we are ignorant of) and bore of
of the confederate States, amounting to about twenty five thousand dollars,
belonging to ourselves, sent to under guard to this place, where we have been detained since the 8th of this month. We were detained ten days on board the U.S. Sloop from Cape Fear.

The bonds and other property
which have been taken from us, have all been labelled, and well, we are informed be perhaps, confiscated, but it may take weeks ere the case be closed, in the meantime, we work to get a pass to get out of the city of New Orleans, so as to be able to go on to Great Britain
and the authorities here having refused to grant such pass, we have to apply
to you for assistance in the matter.

There is no change that
we are aware of, against either of us

Hon. Abraham Lincoln,

I submit the following dispatch, which I have just received from General Grant:

"I have just received your dispatch of the 6th instant, and am glad to say that I have been able to procure supplies for the army. The enemy has been driven back, and we have regained ground. The military situation is now favorable, and I feel confident that we shall be able to carry on the war as we have desired. I have, therefore, directed that the army be moved back to its former position, and I trust that all will be as you desire."

The inspection of surplus ordnance to be turned over as authorized by orders from your Head Quarters, has been delayed for want of the necessary blanks. Mr. Hodges has not paid the laborers on the Dick Taylor plantation. He has taken off about 600 tons of sugar belonging to the estate, and he owes the Government $800 for work done which he took from the plantation during the year.

Furthermore, a man named Kemping, whose ancestors are free, at the interest of Hodges, and who is Adjutant of the 1st Wharler's Co., a interfering with the negroes who are working that plantation. I therefore beg you, Sometame since Mr. Jodges informed me that the Negroes at New Market were planting cane and using wood which belonged to him, as I was just leaving for the city, I gave Mr. Keighly (my clerk) a verbal order to the head man of the place, not to plant any more cane till further notice. When I came back to the matter, Mr. Shackley, an Inspector of Cane, has told me since that he gave the same order to the Negroes, by order of Capt. Scott.

As to the payment of the hands, the necessary money has been in my hand for three times, but I deferred the payment of it, at the request of Mr. Jodges, till he could adjust his claims. Since receiving your order, the payment... has been made so full.

LaTouche Plantation, Parish of St. Mary, May 21, 1763

Sir,

In obedience to your order to the Board of Managers of the LaTouche Plantation, that no more of our gentry would be touched with special written instructions from any qualified persons, I beg to inform you that a waggon with Eight Mules was employed on Saturday last in hauling our Wood that one or more gangs of hands were employed same day in stripping cane preparatory to more planting that they have already planted 31 acres which is six acres in excess of what the order calls for, and further that they have been cutting the saw mill two or three days with our Wood to the extent of from 5 to 6 cords per day and as far as can be judged there has been from 20 to 30 cords removed from the pile in from 28 weeks. Respectfully request, therefore, that you will be good enough to Exercise your Authority being the only tribunal open to me & arrest these men so that I may have an opportunity to examine them on oath & thereby arrive at an estimate of all they have appropriated, and fix the responsibility upon the proper parties. The men who I think should be arrested and dealt with as may seem proper in your judgment are the "Master", the "Head Driver", and a man named "Dancy Hammond", the Driver of the Eight Mule team, who is said to be the "head muleman", also.

I beg further to inform you that all is now ready to pay off more Negroes, at the same time in consequence of the facts stated above, being both violates your orders and appropriates our property, I appeal to you again to defer the payment to give me time to appeal elsewhere — to make the proper parties accountable and to obtain authority to deduct from their wages whatever sum may be considered proper as a set off against what they have so unjustly appropriated. — Sam B.
Further to impress upon your Memory that the very wages which we are now called upon to pay is for the cultivation and reaping of the identical Crop which they seek to deprive us of — in short they expect to be paid for making the pudding and to have the satisfaction of eating it also.

In order however to prove to you and to the proper parties elsewhere that we do not wish to see the innocent suffer for the guilty or to make any frivolous excuses for not settling with these people I propose (if it meets your Views) that a payment be made to them on the day one third (or round figures) of the sum they are entitled to which will suffice to keep them in Commerce necessary until this matter can be placed in its true light with the Military Authorities which so far has been misdirected.

Dear Mr. Marshall,

I am hereewith to furnish you our reply to the charges made against us by Mr. Hardin, this the office of Gen. Hardin, Military Command.

First, as regards the payment of the Negroes on the Taylor Plantation, you will remember that the warrant (for this purpose was deposited in your hands prior to the date of Gen. Hardin's Communication) and that the same reasons I have before given, just for withholding the payment, I now repeat in writing: Secondly, as to the corn. We deny having removed any whatever, but that which we are jointly and fairly entitled to. Hereewith will be found a copy of an order addressed by a collect to two of his assistant Inspectors under date, Feb. 31st, this order was complied with on our part to the satisfaction of the Inspector upon this occasion (as expressed by his opinion at the time). At all events we left more than the required 1000 hogsheads (which amount you will please bear in mind in all that the inventory called for) and we then in accordance with that order and other General receipts, copies of which I shall give you herewith, we proceeded to remove the balance, we have moreover subsequently supplied Major Flanders with evidence from respectable and reliable sources to the effect that this was no more than One Hundred hundred of Cows on the plantation before it was lowered
of it, although they seek to make us responsible for a larger quantity which protest is used as an excuse for detaining the balance of our property now on the plantation.

Thirdly we answer to the Charge of having sent away 5,000 of value of molasses. We have and believes that any all deficiencies in this particular were included in and have been satisfied by one or more payments made to Mr. C. in order to adjust the deficiency of the inventory.
The molasses having formed a part of said
inventory, but if this be not the Case
we now repeat as we have before stated that we are ready to dispose of any just Claim in this or any other particular.

Furting this explanation will be satisfactory to you. Persuade you to place the Matter in its true light to Gen. Herlong.

Sir,

I have got no word of Snider. The last heard of him he was North of Leavenworth going to Nebraska.

Stewart who lives a mile East of Independence has permission to trade with the Cheyennes from Mr. Davis. Has about 100 heads of cattle and horses and mules in settlement at low figures and knows many things about him. Before the Pike train stuck in passing through this city in the hands of men of suspicious circumstances unusual small droves say 30 to 50 head and I have now trying to further the matter out. If you have anything for me please let me know. If I should have come before this I should have rested if there is anything done. The river I could go down in

Commander 3rd Cent Inf

Sir,

We the undersigned prisoners and legal citizens of 3rd Ca Inf. now in your custody for a violation of civil order No. I. beg leave to state the following statement of the real facts.

We reside in the country from 8 to 15 miles from Lex. The charge is this that on or about the 14th day of January, while at Mt. Hebron Church attending a contractual meeting, Bushwhackers, 7 or 8 times attended that church and we failed to report the facts as that order directs and are therefore subject to military punishment. In the first place some of us say prisoners did not know of the existence of any such order. I am well aware that order No. 1 first made its appearance in the St. Louis papers of Jan 14th about the same time of the alleged offense and some of us have not seen the order to this day.

In our instance, one of us was advised to do threatening that it would cost us our life if it was done. Only 3 of our number had ever seen a board of such an order and were either prevented by threats of personal violence or with the firm conviction that the news had been conveyed directly to the head of Lex and known as better until ordered to report. While we plead ignorance to the existence of the order, we do not pretend to say, or be understood as entering the views that are duty to report the presence of such

or any other order.

The unsex misery we have suffered by their presence in our County, the Constant alarms to us and our families, the brutal war of retaliation which they have occasioned in our County; the poverty and want which walk us and around us, independent of all military orders, have prompted us do prompt us, and still continue to prompt us, to use every exertion that does not threaten our immediate destruction to have them exterminated.

You fear, our any other man, more tardily, desires our County, dedicated from their destruction, than are your persons. Not one of us has a son in the brush nor even had. Neither have any of our neighbors. The only known of our disturbances the and the presence of Marauders in our neighborhood is some refugees who came into our neighborhood in poverty and we believe they are fed and sustained by these bands, and when we would report it, done with the same sort of security that a man would join the Blury Gang.

We would further state, but isolated, unarmed, unprotected condition in the Country makes us timid in doing what we feel to be our duty.

We are watched, harassed, run by Out-laws. Suspected by the Federal authorities, and we are sorry to say.
sometimes uncharitably dealt with, the one our allegiance, we claim our allegiance to any other Government than that of the United States. We claim its protection and promise obedience to its authority.

Sir, I have the honor to forward you two persons suspected of being connected with this theft of property. Two Negroes, one perhaps an old fellow, complicated, the other a young fellow, evidently a part of this theft of property. They have been in this town, and I have reason to believe they are connected with it.

We have carefully watched them, and I think they are a regular couple. We shall visit them tomorrow. Perhaps some new light can be thrown on the matter.

We have this morning received a letter from the Governor, and I am bound to do what he requires.

On the 1st of October, 1803, I was called to the bar of the United States Supreme Court, and appeared for bond holding.

The case as follows: Saturday, a week ago, I took my morning horse on the farm of Mr. Jones, said my horse belonged to a man named Clark. The next day I arrived at another farm and took the horse to the house and arrived there on the next morning. I found the farm hand, Mr. Johnson, living on the farm. He told me that the horse was taken charge of by Captain Allen.

I have three horses of my own, and one black, and four horses on another farm. I am going to sell them before the end of the month, to Capt. Allen.

Subscribed before me, January 10, 1803.

I will also say that on the 2nd of October, I called at the farm of Mr. Jones, and was met by Mr. Allen. He told me that he had been to the house of the man who took the horse, and that he was going to sell the horses. I was not at first satisfied with the arrangement, but finally took the horse. He has been taken care of by his former owner, and the farmer who bought it.

On or about the last of August a man whom I afterwards knew to be poor Rayner came to my house. Before he rose up he cocked one up. I was out on the porch and could hear there was another man below in the lane of the house of the Hodges. Rayner was dressed in Rebel uniform. He had his pistol in his hand pointing directly at me. The pistol was cocked. He Rayner asked me "can you not a strong word" I answered yes, he said he had orders to take and to demand that I was a rebel. I told him I was not that I could prove I was a rebel by saying John Billings he then said I did not get word beau and I went some on my business any else there need not and told one to go out the house the then took his business and sent some Brandys and gave a lick to know in the meantime another man came up. After he got the Brandys they both went away. I did not see Rayner for some time afterward when he came onto my house let his flag and shouted off it was about one half of the time, it is about the 28th or 29th of the month of August I came home from Lincoln County my wife came out of the house while I was at the lane and informed that there was two rebels near the house I then went with the two three of them to the Rayner house after looking at them some time I told them to get out I did not want them there, they replied they would not go they desired they would stop all night and also go to take the oath see the morning for one to go to bed not to be sorry about it they would stay all night. I then went to bed leaving them sitting at the fire. They asked me to go with them to bed.
Then scholtte the bath. I proposed to go to tell them to go to Mr. Ellisaps as he was better acquainted with them than I was. About a week ago the Federal soldiers came and assisted them at my house. The officers foresee this interest asked my wife when they sued her for her. There all the battles were. I was a young man. Ellisaps was the first time they met. I cannot state that I heard from my. But I knew they had said it and informed the Ellisaps. Father is that event. Three more came to me and it was a dark. At the time they finished one with a gun and preach me out of bed when I got up. I asked them what they were. For they said that I had sold to Dr. and reported from Church Church had not said report them. They asked if I had not died to Dr. Had day Quaker Church. They then left my house. Mr. Hand was present at the time. I said when the Regan away and hand the connection a day and report them. They Regan became A who's afraid they would their own. In case I went to leave the house.

I reside about six miles below Vincennes. Frankish is a town. I am married. My husband's name is Luke Kelly. On or about sundown two men named John Ragan and Sam Newcomb rode up to the house,innamon and entering the house by the back door and said they wanted to see Kelly to induce him to see Mr. Guffey to induce him to intercede for them to see if they could get out of brushing. I told them Kelly my husband would not be at home that night. They said they were going to stay at my house. I answered they could not that my husband was not at home. They said they would stay after Kelly came home they expected him to intercede for them in order that they might return to their home. They then looked around the fire and remained in that position until the Federal soldiers arrived. They remained in their house and told me to make a light. They came and talked and asked if any one was in the house. I told them there was no one in the house except where I said and the next room. The man who came in the room made some show of excitement but was soon pacified by the soldiers. After doing this the Federal soldiers asked if I could get breakfast for them. I said I thought I could if they would help me. They agreed if they thought any good things I let them they did not. This was all the conversation. I stood as passing between company and the presence continued. As soon as they had each breakfast they left. With the strength, they thought my husband and myself. Along with them. They arrived and after I told them Kelly was not at home for the brushing. Being there, this is all I remember of the conversation. Matilda Jane Kelley Deeply returned with the following information, Edward Bennett, Matthew Bennett, and Samuel spending were all found in the train house, about 300 yards from the picket station at White Oak Swamp Bridge, they were partially dressed in clothes of the Confederate Army - a gun was found in the house - and they refused to give me any information relative to the pickets, etc., which they must have been in possession of. I would recommend you, in case they take the oath of allegiance, that they may receive employment in the Army, as we can use their services. And also to return them home at present.

The enclosed furs have been delayed in this office for some time. Having been received at the date fixed for the delivery by inspection which occupied all my available time prior to the commencement of the late campaign I have been unable to give them any attention before.

Upon examination I find the claims drawn up in a very loose and irregular manner consisting of a mere statement that certain damage was inflicted by U. S. soldiers supposed to be the 11th A. S. I did not.

It requires in any opinion more testimony to establish the validity of the claims. The prices charged for many of the articles ap-
I call your attention to the demand for the amount of $10.00 which is unpaid. It is from the checking account of the firm. The amount was due on 12/31/2018. Please make payment as soon as possible.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 9th inst. relating to damages said to have been committed by my Command. When at Putnam,

I should like to reply that the charge of itself against this Regiment, or any portion of it is unjust, as they had nothing whatever to do with the outrage committed at that point, which I have here just reported in writing through the proper Military Channel.

I would again state for your information that this Regiment was in Camp at Bagg's Island, N.Y., nearly one mile from Leafport, and at no time was there more than one (1) Company of my Command at Leafport. I rely upon the brief of leading & then the two (2) Companies were under the Charge of the Lieut Col (Kenyon) & the Lieut (Sage) of this Regiment.

Every one who was there, whether of my Regiment or otherwise, cannot but know that 2 were innocent of these Charges. I have respectfully begged a full investigation, before addressing the Claim Officers. Which I am prepared to say does not in the slightest degree belong to this Regiment to pay. Unless upon the general principle that the Innocent Should Finally Suffer with the guilty.

I have the honor Captain

Saw a man that wore a black cap and asked me where I was going. I told him I was going to camp. He asked me what camp I was going to. I told him I didn't know. He asked me if I had been to the camp before. I told him I hadn't.

Mr. Reynolds. 9th Iowa, 1862.

Lived August a party of 10 Delaware Indians at Reynolds. On the 10th of May, a man went to Reynolds' house to find where he was. When he came, he asked him where he was. He said he had been in the woods. His wife said he had gone to buy some wheat. About a month after this, we heard he was at home. We went to his house and accused him. He said he had been over the river in a boat. The boat was camp of Buchanan. A man took him to the camp and delivered him to Capt. Saunders, who took him to the camp. He was released by him. He was paroled two days. He went back home and didn't report. We went after him and found. He had left his brother there. He had gone back across the river to Reynolds' camp. August, we had a fight with some Confederate. We took Reynolds, Clay, and Stoner were with them and took part in the fight. Said there was

I don't know of Mr. Robinson. He was known to me to oppose the Federal Government in every way he could, and he instructed me to instruct him to go to a military officer to report on his own son who had joined the Confederates. He said he would capture him or shoot him to keep him under arrest. During the late Confederate States he came to my house, being also a Unionist. He came to my house, and as we were in conversation, he said he had begged and offered the God of Heaven to get off all that he could, and then be shot, then to leave her children to suffer worse harm than he himself had ever known, or as a rebel commander.

Mr. Smith, S. A. Delaware, stated, Army 24th Oct. 85, on my way to Vicksburg, took charge of a prisoner delivered by Capt. R. L. Seamans Prov. Mar Corps, and forwarded me on my way to St. Louis with orders to deliver the prisoner to Col. W. Baker Prov. Mar Corps. Here the train left Col. Baker's line, after an interview with him. All present, soon after his guard reported to me that one of my prisoners had escaped. I was informed that the prisoner had entered the waters and escaped through the window while the train was in motion, as an agent,
I, John Smith, hereby certify that I was present at the scene described above. I cannot attribute the escape to any particular individual.

James Smith
Officer, 3rd. Corps, Va.
Jefferson City, Jan. 31st.

A.P. Wm.

M. D. Barnum, Mrs. D. Barnum were at the scene in Potosi. They report three black women were located in the woods near the enemy lines. One woman, named Elizabeth, was captured. She was killed in Nov. about 4 miles of my house. The circumstances remain unknown.

On the morning previous to the battle, a woman named Jane Sprouse was at the enemy's house. She later came to my house and told me that Pender had come there and that the woman was at my house and 8 times during the fall. I have a son in arms in the Union Army, and he does not know to what extent the blacks have not been heard. Since the fall, I have left the enemy and have not heard from them. I have two brothers in the Rebel Army, one of whom was killed in the Rebellion and one escaped. They are now in the South.
Mr. McAvoy stated, Saturday, the 9th of December. I heard the old men say, they are in the South, I desire to see the South succeed. I would like to see Mississippi invaded by the Rebels, if I thought they could remain there permanently. We have one brother killed in the Rebel army, have one uncle and a number of cousins in the Rebellion. My uncle is a soldier, my father was killed last fall, my mother and all the rest were aquired to us two years before the war. I was in Cantonville the day before he was killed and there for the purpose of taking Miss Inez to town and to Savannah to see my uncle. So we took the train to go into Cantonville. We arrived there in the evening, went to the house, left there the same evening and went to Savannah. We arrived all night at last, recognized everybody coming the river side. That evening, saw no Southerners. That evening did not see anything. Next day of January 4th, to where we were, lady, both were the ladies I went. They belonged to Mr. Taylor of Johnson, the lady who was in Cantonville do not see her very often, because she would be at her house. They do not see the lady, Ford would be at her house for breakfast. Remained at Ford Savannah for about a week longer and then we Boston for the war.
The federal soldiers burned Mrs. Carraugh's house while I was there. Mrs. Carraugh afterward moved to Rockport. I never saw Boskborough at Mrs. Carraugh's house but once. Capt. James Scott was there during my stay in Cape Fear. I never lived very long in that neighborhood. I have seen that some of the Carraugh family conveyed the intellec to help some of the free land in the neighborhood. Do not allow them to approve the conduct of Edmund Gould and others who do not enforce fully the actions of those men yet I am a friend to the cause of the South and all those who honor a fight for it. The reason of my visit to Cape Fear, besides, was to get a letter for Mrs. Carraugh which I undertook to send here.

Philip Pace. James A. Mc Coy states he own acre. There are 4 years old 17 1/2 heeds high, few who have hay, for hay a night for a foot, while a few able to have not a side in the property of Chas. A. Stetson. Geo. Pace, having done so many miles to two farms, one of books 4 1/2 miles in the east of Hillsborough. Scott the last day or two that is near on property of Mrs. Pace at Hillsborough and Cape Fear.

J. L. Daniel's Horse was串联izing with the above Antonio.
Robert Adams states, A boy born March 19th, 1841, and lived in Ludlow, Mass., until he was 12 years old. He moved to the property of Josiah Johnson and lived there for about 4 years. He has been employed by the Trust and has served in the capacity of the Trust at this point as a Confidential.

D. W. Resolved, stated same as above.

H. Adams states he left Ludlow, January 25th, by order of the Trust, to look for vacant lands in the area. He remained there for about two days before returning to Boston. During that time, he observed no Rebel activity in the area. He states that the sleepy of the legal proceedings have been in the habit of traveling to and from the area on business. The Trust, through its agent, has made sure that the area remains peaceful and quiet. It is the understanding that the area remains peaceful and quiet.

D. W. Resolved, stated same as above.

This is a sample of a page from a document. The text is handwritten and contains a mix of sentences and paragraphs. The handwriting is somewhat legible, but there are some areas where the writing is difficult to read. The document appears to be a legal or official record, possibly related to a legal proceeding or a record of events. The text includes references to people and places, and there are some references to events that occurred in the past. The document is not a complete page, and the text ends mid-sentence in some places. There is no additional context or information provided about the document or its purpose.

Report for Fed fr. 15th to Col. J. H. Baker

Pre. Miss. Genl. Dept. Miss
Mr. T. C. mentioned that he first became acquainted with Allen Bell in 1861. Said Bell took the side of the Rebel Party in Jackson County, Mo., by carrying arms and promoting with the Rebels, using Rebel language. Col. Bond had Allen Bell arrested for harboring and aiding the Rebels. Reuben creado in Jackson County, Mo., in 1863. How Allen Bell has for three years in the Pen with the Rebels they have been dynamiting, &c., since the commencement of the present Rebellion. Mayor for Allen Bell as a邢ARONINGE DREAM was tampered by 11th Farmers' Order on Oct. 11.

Mrs. Elizabeth of L. M., Dr. Peters, Anna Mary, and Mary Ann Web, corroborating with same statement.

W. A. Smith, states he personally acquainted with Dr. Peters and his family, knows his parents to be true Union people. Town of the Religious sect committed by August, 1863, at his house by the 11th Farmers' Order. He was conscripted in the Rebel Army.

Mr. Peter G. W. was conscripted at F.纸条, states corroborating with same statement.
Sarah Harnes states that after being in Wallace's house she demanded
from her husband to pay the amount
she sustained by Miss Anderson's niece. Wallace having been captured by several Rebel soldiers who took their times home, her husband refused to pay it. They forced him to stay 2 days to pay it. In my opinion, the action was taken shortly after this on the 18th inst. from J. H. Taylor and Wallace came to her house and took
one of the cattle and told her husband
if he would pay the money he could get the cattle. They drove their neighbors at her husband and the cattle rounded him into a rock.
January 18th, he went South and returned with a horse buying he had bought it. He rode it to his Brother-in-law near Clark. Nelson & his wife May shot him off while gone. This was a red barrel horse 4 or 5 years old and some white in patches 15 hands high. Saw him race yesterday a large tong yarn horse which I never saw them have before. About 16 hands high good looking strong farm horse.

John May left Friday morning early & returned Saturday with this horse.

William Cherry States Jacob George owns a 12 year horse, 7 years old this Spring. The same is found in possession of Th. Moore.

John Ingram States Saturday a week ago I shot up the Bay horse on the farm of Henry Wells. Thought the horse belonged to a man who had that day been looking for some horses. This is the horse to May. And just have left with morning. Named him Love the horse was then under charge of R. C. St. John. May has had 6 horses since I knew him 3 Grays & One Black.

The Colt had been caught by the prairie and rode off, she brought him back.

Mr. Lawrence and Ethen started to hunt the horse and found him in possession of William Moore of Laclede Co., Mo.

Stephen Rhodes states last Spring, my plow was stolen from my field some time after William Moore came to me and told me that May told him that he had stolen the plow and that my plow was in a hole of water in his corn. Went and found it, then he told me.

Samuel Brownfield states that a man came to my house wanting to put up his store, he said it belonged to the Bay. They and he was breaking it. The last day told him riding this horse, he told Joe it was a cheat and he intended to keep him. Told him that he must part with him. William Moore last spring told a plow from Alder, Moore says Morgan stole the plow. He he hired it and when Morgan heard Rhodes was hunting plow, he told Moore to throw it in a hole of water which he did.

E. H. Kennedy of Maries County, states on the 19th inst. was informed by William Simpson and

Shall I feel for thee, as a man,
Thou didst lead me on,
But now I must part from thee.

Oh, Nelson, friend, as a boy
Shall I feel for thee, as a man,
Thou didst lead me on,
But now I must part from thee.

And though in thy heart thou mayst
Have loved and caressed me,
Yet must I part from thee,

Witness I reside in Lafayette Co., Mrs. J. Mills, sister of Lafayette 2 years removed from plantation. I have another brother-in-law in Texas. My brother-in-law has been last summer. They saw him twice during the summer. His name is Patrick Maitland. His family lives in Texas. They are of Lafayette Co. Mrs. David, a refugee, at present one enrolled a sympathizer to have in sympathy for Bushwhackers. He has four Bushwhackers, as my neighbors, all winter. He occasionally allow me to get corn and never reports them to the Federal authorities.

Anna Hamer states December 7th, 1864, J. Taylor came to her house, and demanded of her, $1000 for damages sustained by J. Anderson. Wallace and Jones. They having been captured by the Rebels who took their horses and corn, they gave him 11 days to pay the money in.

Samuel Wall states: I know of Holloway about Feb. 15th, seen on a scout at Lafayette Co., and as I approached Holloway heard 12 or 13 men counting their horses. I supposed them to be Bushwhackers. I saw Holloway enter his Coop's hut. The papers Thave and followed to Holloway to fear him.
The fence he pulled down a fence, leading to the horse lot in place of pulling down the one leading to the field where the Bushwhackers were.

Mr. Miller came out and saw how he let the fowl go, but Mr. Miller remarked that it did not matter any difference whether he let it or not, that the fowl suited him. He was going to stand up in court and make Miller stand to it or words to that effect. Miller finally bent out and met him. I have since learned that the man who spoke to Mr. Miller belonged to Long Co. of Miller Co., Mo. I did not go out to see the termination of the affair for the reason given before in my notes.

John W. Coffee States his age is nineteen years. Live in Kansas. At the time of the incident in December last two men commander by a sergeant came into Kansas. But soon after 12th Mr. Mills rode off, a black horse and two riders, from the Exchange Road Mill.

Of (Sloan stated) I am by profession a physician, residing in Newville Johnson Co. I was called to the house of Mr. Combs on the 28th of December. Mr. Combs came to me in person at my house, and asked me to go see him. Enquired into the particulars of the case I was informed that he had gotten into difficulties with some of the neighbors, and had been stabbed. I enquired as to who was the neighbor, Combs told me he did not know who they were or who had taken him to his house. He said he was taken to his house in a carriage. I enquired of Combs as to how it was whom this man was killed. He gave me no positive answer. It was not reported.
to Mr. Hill. Stephens had a Congestion of the Brain. I went to Cumbus house to see Stephens upon my arrival at his gate. Cumbus Wife met me & told me that Stephens was dead. Cumbus told me to get my horse ready to go for Town. I dismounted & went in to the House. I went to the bed & raised the greath bed sufficient to enable me to see the face of the face. I did not make any further inquiry as to how he was killed. The night before I was called to see him when I arrived at Cumbus house. Mr. Cumbus informed me that he had been dead about 5 minutes. I did not feel his pulse or have any hands on his body. I made no particular inquiry as to his death after leaving that he was dead. Mr. Cumbus requested me to say nothing about the death of Spencer. Said that he had been taken by his intimate friends & he did not want to make it public. I inquired closely as to the instrument with which Stephens was killed whether it was a pocket knife. I also knew that the wound was where the mouth was. I was told that he was wounded in the abdomen. I was informed that the wound was about as large as a small little finger. I did not probe the wound or make any examination. I was informed that there was but one wound. Ordinarily a wound of that character would not have produced in a short time a death by a large blood vessel躺在 thorn & would not have caused hemorrhage. There were two persons at Cumbus house when I arrived there besides his family. Mr. W. A. Rigaud. and a man by the name of Andrew, Andrew, Andrew gave me reason for requesting me to say nothing about the death of Stephen so near as I can recall to mind it would be said that he had died of Consumption. Child. I did not make any suggestion that Robert had gone to dry. There would have been no reason that Stephen had died of Consumption. Quite right. Stephen or Robert had my suspicions I was not practicing in their families when called upon. I do not know if my suspicions were aroused. Thought that something was my right. Robert lived 40 or 50 miles from my house. I charged him 200 for my trouble if it was about 4 o'clock P.M. when I reached Robert's house. I was not at Robert's house from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. When Robert suggested to me that he should represent that Stephen had died of Consumption. Child. I told them that the first order I would be to dictate the facts as it would be done to right. I did not hear of the difficulty at Robert's house for 2 or 3 days. After the death of Stephen, I wrote to the other man of the death of Spencer and the same evening which for Martin. States. My age is nineteen years. I live in Green Co. Ark. was baptized in Prophet Pointing about the 12th day of January 1853. The name of my Baptist was made with a stick at Fort Scott. The 1853 was in arms against the United States Army. First in military at Kemper's Regiment. I was born into the Rebel army in August 1853. By the Rebel in Ark. for 3 years. I am not a Southern sympathizer.

I do sincerely wish the Southern people joint arms in this war and the authorities of the Old Confederacy over there. I have one brother in the Rebel army. Please to join the federal army.

To the
Assistant Adjutant General
Department of Miss,

Sir: I have the honor to enclose herewith a list of leased and registered Plantations approved by me under the provisions of Regulations of August, 1862.

This list shows the location & of the Plantations, & my reasons for accepting or disapproving the leases or registers of the parties.

I would also state that, under authority of Paragraph 4 of General Orders No. 15, issued April 10, 1863, from Military Division of West Mississippi, I have located Parts of Bullitt's Bayou and Bayou Creeks, and commenced the execution of deeds at those points, for the further registration of leased & registered plantations bordering on Lake Concordia. This locality embraces some of the finest agricultural lands in this District.

No plantation leases or registris have few approach beyond the banks of the Missouri River, except in the locality about referred to, and within the circuit of Military Occupation around the Post of Satche's.

Sir,

You must excuse the liberty of two unfortunate Italians in writing to you. A month ago we had an exchange and we were hoping to get out from this prison because leaving your office you said to Polaco “you will get out after while.”

Our statements having been not disapproved, and acknowledging your kindness we take the liberty of begging you to remember us. While in Lexington the Provost Marshal did put our name on the list of those to be sent off. About forty men came from Louis to the said city with a very hard manner. One of them, a deserter from picket duty, saying to be condemned to be hanged said
to his guards that he intended to give the name of many as deserters
in order to try consoliation by making many men unhappy— For that he had given our name for the same reason— we have been sent with chains
in our feet from Lexington to Washington
and with hand-cuffs from Washington to City Point.
Since we have been captured we are sure that the deserters of all the regiments of the U.S. have been as, and no one has recognized as a soldier, nevertheless we remain
inchaed, and suspected—

We close this hoping you again to ex-curse our liberty in writing to you, and again we recommend ourselves to you.

Hoping that (if possible) you will do something in our favor; We beg
you, Sir, to accept our sincere thanks, hoped for an occasion to prove our gratitude more effectually, and we remain

I ordered a boat and proceeded on board to

The above facts were verified at Sandy Point, and the circumstances of the engaged in contraband trade. It appears that the schooner Lita Johnson, Capt. Wallboll, made fast to the dock at Sandy Point for the purpose of getting wood. While there, Thomas L. Smith came on board and entered a cotton bag for the Captain; according, and he traded some eggs for half a bucket full of salt. There does not appear to be any foundation in the supposition that the schooner made fast at Sandy Point, to engage in any contraband trade. Captain of the schooner says, that he stopped there once before for wood, and that no officer in the Revenue Marshall's Office, whom he would recognize, told him one day, when he was getting a pass, that there was no objection to his stopping there. He therefore did not know that it was wrong to do.

I would respectfully recommend therefore, that the above premises be set at liberty.

Office of the Provost Marshal General,

Sirs, I addressed Sam Walter Robinson. Just when I got on board the Escort, he was steady at work on the deck all the time, he was pumping. I was talking with another man about clothes, he came up to me and he said, 'Said if he had a good suit of clothes he would give a good chance to get away.' I would give him 150 for them, he said he would show me a chance to get away. This was about 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon. He went down at once for his clothes. I remained on deck till he returned, we were on the forward deck. I did not go myself for the clothes, because the guard would let me one pair oft. He put the clothes under the rigging in the stern of the boat. I got 50, when I enlisted. 150 I gave him. I lost the 50 on board the boat, it was in my pants, some one stole them. I put on the clothes where he put them. He put them under the bridge, where the rigging
I said, as far as I am the idea of the boat, I put the clothes on under the bridge; it was between 3 & 4 o'clock; the bridge is 3 feet above deck.

The same next morning, I said I stole her clothes; I was walking forward on the steamer, it was 6 1/2 on the morning, we quarrelled; he said I stole her clothes. I told him, I stole them for 50 cts if he give me the 50 he might take her clothes.

Walker Robinson: Deck hand on the "Barcett", belong to Norfolk. I young men took my pants, they were lying on my bunk, with my cap & shoes, in the after cabin. I did not see him take them. It was Tuesday morning, he told me to give him back the 50 cts I gave me for them; he had them on, I told him he had taken them. We got quarrelling, the Captain came down & asked him, where he got those pants; he said he got them from me. I was most the same at work on deck. I slept in the after cabin. We had beef

very little water, one man was kept pumping for the colord all the time.
These were 3 pumping wackers, a colored man, & a man besides myself, the colored man had just been pumping water before me, & I relieved him.
I pumped as long as an hour. I had just commenced pumping when two men came near me asked me if I had a suit of citizen clothes. I told them I had only one suit & could not sell them; they asked me if I did not know where I could get any. I told them no, one of them said he'd like to get a suit, he said he
that he could not buy any of he got them.
When I got this pumping I left & went forward, the colored man relieved me.

I relieved the colored man, whilst Thomas got his supplies, I continued to pump all the time. It was near dark. It was 5 o'clock at when the first of whe comb.
Of the two men, I think Walter Robinson by far the best & believe his statement. The other, "Big John Anderson," is a sharp fellow & his statement is contradictory. He positively stated on examination that the guard would allow no one to take the clothes off the deck unless the person getting them was not yet the clothes himself, replied, because the guard would let in our "face off." By his own statement, he was on the forward deck when Robinson came up with the clothes, placed them under the bridge in the stern of the boat. Yet the officer he went off to put them on, although he had no authority for taking the clothes himself, the refusal of the guard to let any one pass. The place where he alleges he has put on the clothes is exposed, it is improbable that he should have put them on in broad daylight in sight of the guard. I would recommend Robinson's release.

Gives statement relating to a difficulty, which occurred between 2 men named Collier and Singleton at Centralia No. 60, on the 20th day of January 1865.
Head Quarters 1st Iowa I. 27th Iowa Inf.
Jackson's Battle Ground, Petow Mio.
Feb 26th, 1865

General

I have just received a letter from
Mr. W. H. Switzer of Columbia, Boone Co., in which he tells me that in a conversation with him, you expressed a desire to see or hear from me in regard to a difficulty which occurred between two men, named Collier and Singleton at Centreville, Mo. on the 3rd day of Jan. last, to which I happened to be a witness. I regret being called on in such an affair but your 'wish' is 'Law' in such a matter and I will give you as correct a statement as my memory of the circumstances will permit. Premising with the remark that I am a stranger to both parties having never seen either until they attracted my attention by their quarrelling. The difficulty took place in the office of Collier who acts as Express Agent at Centralia. The man, Singleton, asked for a bridle and saddle which he expected there by Express. Collier replied that the saddle had arrived and had been delivered, but that no bridle had ever come there for him (Singleton) as further, that none had been shipped to him, for it "waist on the bill." Singleton told him he was certain the bridle had been shipped, and further, that it had arrived at Centralia, for it had been seen there. Whereupon Collier called him a liar and further said "all his family were Liars." This Collier repeated in a loud menacing tone several times, Singleton seemed a little "cowed" at his loud language and told him that he did not come there to quarrel or fight. That he, Collier, "was welcome to say what he chose." He cared nothing for his.
abusive language" All he wanted was his property which he felt certain was there! Collier told him it was not and never had been there and that if he said it was again he would rich him out of his house. Singleton repeated that he could prove that the trindle had "been seen there". At this, Collier rushed out from behind a railing which divided one corner of the room from the remainder and in which corner the Post Office and Express office were situated, and made at Singleton with his fists doubled and with loud oaths. Singleton drew a revolver presented it and said "stand back old man"! Collier turned at once and returned inside the railing saying: Lay aside your weapons & go out doors and stand up like a man and I will whip you. Singleton said, "this is a Public Office, and I have a right here and shall remain as long as I" please"! While he was speaking Collier again rushed out of his corner with a Revolver in both hands—not a Revolver in each hand, but both hands grasping one revolver, the left hand grasping the barrel and the right grasping the butt, and the right thumb in the act of cocking it, as he rushed forward he said "God Damn you! Now I'll see whether you'll leave this office or not." As he advanced Singleton sprang back out of the door and which was open, and fired, the ball took effect in the base of Collier's right thumb—Collier finding himself disabled closed the door and passing out of a side door, saw Singleton standing in the front yard; a woman—I suppose her to be Mrs Collier, ran out with a club at him and with many loud threats and furious flourishes of her stick ordered him to leave the yard, which Singleton slowly did in the meantime Collier came out and as soon as Singleton got out of the yard called out in a loud tone "You God damned son of a bitch I'll kill you as sure as there is a God in Heaven!" Singleton made no reply but got on his horse and rode off across the prairie. Up to this time not a word concerning political differences had been spoken, but as soon as Singleton was gone Collier began to talk in a loud tone of hisSingleton's disloyalty and accused me of standing by and allowing Rebels to shoot down loyal men. I told him that it was needles for him to make any such remarks as that, for I was an utter stranger to both and could not possibly know anything of either, and furthermore that political feeling had nothing whatever to do with the quarrel. That it was purely of a personal character.

I live in Bedford Co. Tenn. near Mr. David Cannon on last Sunday. I went to Mr. Cannon's house to get some clothes left there by my wife. She had left and driven away. I went in the house and told him I wanted the clothes. He replied I could not have them, that I would have to send someone else to get them. Then he left. My wife owns the farm. When he left, my wife sent the word to Mr. Milroy. He replied that he did not care for Mr. Milroy or any of his intentions. I threatened to shoot one if I came back for the clothes. Love my wife away after working for him all summer.

Referring to your letter of Oct. 5th, I have conducted an examination of the books of the city treasurer and the city collector. I find that the present City Tax is 75 cents per $100 on personal and real estate. 25 cents of this is appropriated to the school fund, leaving 50 cents for city expenses. I think this is insufficient for the school fund, leaving 50 cents for city expenses, and that a necessary part of the city expenses, such as salaries, etc., should be paid by generating revenue of market stalls. I think the present amount is not sufficient to pay the present expenses of the city, such as salaries, market expense,
fire department, etc.

To Brig. Genl. Sherman,
Commander-in-Chief.

A public announcement by authority, in terms to the effect that a large tax has been assessed on our property, to be paid within 30 days, with penalties of 10% additional for omission. This notice is the first information given to the public that a town and the brief time allowed, at a season of the year, when our limited means are absorbed in paying debts, and providing for winter, have necessarily produced much anxiety and distress. We andize the hope that some modification of the time and rate of taxation may be practicable, for reasons which we respectfully present for your consideration. For more than 20 years antecedent to 1852, the rate of city taxation on improved real estate, did not exceed 50% on the $100 valuation. This combined with the license tax paid a few other sources of revenue, created a fund, from which was paid the ordinary expenses of the Municipal Government. A large City debt ($750,000) has since been incurred for public works. Anticipations to pay the interest on this debt, arose from passenger, increased rates, in 1857 they rose to $1,150 on the $100 valuation, and many new items of personal property, once for the first time, subject to taxation. To sufficient amount was thus obtained, annually, with which the City Government was maintained, besides paying interest on the Rail road debt, and establishing a system of Free Schools, with the buildings, valued at $56,000, necessary to its successful operation. The people regarded the progressive increase from 50 to 3% as very severe, even in times of peace, but submission became holding a large proportion (about 3/5) of the City debt they were unable to bear it. The more recently, by the return to them, of a large amount, in the shape of interest, since these difficulties, however, a great change has taken place in our situation, affording materially our ability to meet taxation. The Blockade, and subsequently the existing time in commerce, the loss of the trade with Mr. Cardenas, it became in country. The have driven our people, with few of captives, from the present by which they supported themselves in great part; and from produced, have converted them into consumers. At necessity, so provided a relation could not last over-21, without its usual result of perfection among the many. Much suffering united, confined out to these only, the having no property or interest to draw on, are the first victims of such condition of things, but embracing also very many of limited incomes, membuat aided by some business employment, and experience, even to the few, who might be supposed to be beyond the reach of their influences. To this may be added, as deprivation for the lack from peace, of all income from stocks of the State, Banks, Corporations of our own, and other States, and the rapid depredation. Since 1862 of the domestic currency on the contrary, it ceased to circulate in exchange of the order, making its State currency, the legal tender of debt. To these causes of imprisonment, we may add, that the lack of produce;
with the few of captives, increased kept pace with the general advance of prices, and while down to the close of this year, they may be nominal the same as before 1861, their exchangeable value for commodities has been from 250 to 300 dollars. For the last year however, an advance of about 30% only, in this item of our resources, has been otherwise. We have more briefly, sketched the leading influences of the people, and shown that, while many have been cut off entirely, the others have been conscripted and the general idea. This in connection with the advance of over 200% on all articles of foodstuffs, will have to explain
our present condition. From this review, one ability to base taxation may be estimated, and perhaps the latter evidence of the restraining effect of these amicable influences, could be prodicate, than a reference to the very few of our people. We have been able, under the income tax of the U.S. for 63 & 64 to pay in a surplus income over the $650 allowed. The U.S direct taxation of this year consists of the income and real estate taxes, and in addition we may state, that the restrictions on our trade, and the annual taxes instituted by it, have constituted an indirect tax on us, in the un-shaved cost of all produce bought here. These burdens have been seriously felt, and of the contemplated City tax, of 75% nearly thence as much as the U.S. tax of 27 1/2% enforced, a real sacrifice of property, must be submitted to. In concluding this branch of the subject, we will suggest, that a change of the basis of taxation, from value to land or profits, as was formerly the case here, with a graduated rate, would better adjust the burden to the ability.

The free school system has been popular with us, and has introduced years ago, but the support must be to be more properly, applicable to the beneficiaries, than to property. Hence there was an annual per capita tax of 50 (afterwards reduced to 25) for this object, and an ad.

herence to this policy, would appear more equitable. Any in encouragement of the very large addition to the population from other States, who are moving real property, would be in the benefit, rather the burden. Some adjustment of the tax, in amount and duration, and some reduction of that ascribed to property, would give our people time to eke from the prices of their necessities, and meet more easily and cheerfully the expenses of a City government, adaptable to our wants. It may be here suggestive, that as the U. S. have derived some benefit from the appropriation of property, under the Conscriptive Act and abstentions, and also on salaries, lighting and opening the City, the debt contracted for these objects, and to some extent necessary to the development and security of democratic expansion, so also should considerable debt be derived, and leave this, with an attention only, to our Conscription, in connection with the whole subject.

We would have been fortunate, to utter into a more critical state. ment, at another time. Our anxious access to official secrets, ena. ble us to present the subject, otherwise than formally.

for from the 3rd Brigade to relieve this portion of the line, joined by troops of the 1st Brigade. Major White called at the 100 yard of my left to direct me to the line of the 13th of the 3rd Brigade Staff. But me to proceed immediately to the line where I was not to report to
No. 98 of 3.50 A.M. for instructions, but to receive all my instructions from Major White. I then in the presence of White, asked the Major for his instructions. He told me he had received no further instructions than to hold the line. I went his No. 98 at the shelter house, On the 12th was led by the ladies at the shelter house, that an old lady daughter & infant were in a severely condition

in the house in eight from a short distance in front of the line, Captain Kinsey 5th N.C. in charge of this portion of the line also told me of two severe diseases, and upon further inquiry I found they were serious people, and the husband of the daughter, was a soldier or &c. in our army stationed at the time at City Point. On the 13th I was informed that every company was at once done for their relief they were certainly there & gave, I then allowed them to cross the line & go into a small tentment, close by the line (then occupied by the troops), and also allowed the soldiers to get themselves for fire, & give them more food as they were there. I consider 3 they people are being held in the line I have never crossed it (at least not while I was on duty). I suppose they are there just as I left them, I left the half the building in occupied by them, the other half by the reserve picked, I had not been in it for some time at the time I had a full knowledge of the Order by 10. M. P. at 10. M. P. But was perfectly ignorant of the existence of the Order till the 14th. M. P. at 10. M. P. 1864. M. C.

Apprently no instructions from above had inquiry regarding the matter referred to in the accompanying telegraph of Lieut. Trenchard, and being thus honor'd to make the following report as the result of my investigation.

The War Department referred to in the telegraph's communication are Mr. W. Bancroft, and his wife, Mrs. Bancroft. They were admitted within theenemy lines, near the "Coalman Road" by permission of Raj. Staffer, 107th Penn. Vol. Inf., on the day they were admitted (Monday Feb. 13th 1866) the division officer of the troops for that division. They remained there supporting at the "Shelby House" until the 15th when Raj. Staffer's letter were permitted to come within the lines, because they were destitute of food. Capt. Reinald, 94th N.Y. Inf., 94th N.Y. Inf. went to the house and brought the effects of the women from the "Shelby House". Mr. W. Bancroft had a husband, in the employ of the Government at City Point.
