My dear Colonel,

Referring to your note of March 20, relative to Spear, Hamilton &c., I find that the papers were never with me, but were with the Prov. M. Gen. in the Prov. M. Gen.'s office, in case of Spear's death, one of them stated that the papers were there in June 1864, but through neglect there is no record of what became of them. It is believed they have returned to Spear.

In the case of Hamilton, some papers were referred to Dept of War in Washington, May 13, by Col. Buck, but have not yet been received. There called for Buck's attention to same, and request him to let you know all he can at an early date.

In haste! Truly yours, Thomas Ment.

Petition of the citizens of St. Augustine to purchase from the Commissioners stores, such articles as they stand in need of for the maintenance of the City.
Captain.

We, the undersigned citizens of Saint Augustine, Fl., would respectfully beg to call your attention to the destitute and extremely destitute condition in which we are placed by the total absence of the common necessaries of life at this Post. Sales to citizens from the Commissary having been stopped, the traders at the Post having no articles of food for sale, the country market affording but very little or nothing—we are prompted by our suffering condition to appeal to the Commanding General for relief. To this end, we would respectfully ask permission to purchase from the Commissary store, such articles as we stand in need of for the maintenance of life.

Great suffering already exists among the poorer classes, who are unable to purchase at times. More than sufficient for one day's subsistence, and they have no other way of living but by purchasing in small quantities from the C.S.

That this suffering may not increase, we submit the above, imploring your favorable and very earliest Consideration.

The above isentory is correct and this is the actual amount for which the backing should be and the rest written amounts to $12,000. The profit of each party during the time Wood and

Miller had Change amounts of $12,000. The amount of goods is cut off at the date of 18th. On the goods in accordance with ending notice the isentory is again Profit of $10 per cent which would amount to $12,000. Adding the profits of goods and profit per cent on these the total would be $14,000. On which the backing is entitled to the amount which amounts to $992.

Third Quarter, Six of Rolls.
Office of Prothonotary
Rolla, Mo., March 23, 1865.

Personally appeared before me, this twenty-third day of March, 1865, Berry C. Adams, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says: My name is Berry C. Adams. I am about twenty-one years old. I live in Phelps County, Missouri, and about two miles from the town of Rolla. I am engaged in buying cattle for J. W. Tabor and D. L. Riley, government beef contractors, living in Rolla. I have been engaged in buying for them since the first day of last October. About the first of last February I was engaged in buying cattle for Tabor and Riley at Solon, best cows, Missouri. About this time last fall, Thursday, commanding at Solon, told me to go in a certain neighborhood and buy cattle to buy all I could, and which I could buy to bring to Solon, as he wanted the women to come in any how. I do not know the names of the women. I went and some of the district and took with me Tomas Haysman. I think I bought in ten or twelve cattle that I did not buy, consisting of cows and steer. I took these cattle from three or four different women. They bargained by not to take their cattle but according.
to adopt Whybark's instructions, he took the cattle with me to Solomon and turned them in the corral back pen. I afterwards saw one or two of the women from whom we took the cattle in the town of Saline; but I never held any conversation with them. The deponent the complainant himself and said the women from whom he finally took the cattle came into Saline the next day, and he paid them for all that they would sell. One of the women took her for the cattle then they asked I did not tell the women that the cattle should be returned to them in case I did not buy them, nor did I ever speak. Whybark promised them they should have the cattle in case I did not buy them. I did not pay the woman all the asking for them. When Mr. Black was asked by length Whybark what she would take for the cattle she told him that she did not want to sell them and that she had no other cattle and would soon have them than the money. The lady in this he could not give her cattle back to him as he had turned them over to the cowmen, but instructed me to pay her for them. I paid her fifty-five dollars for them all, the oxen and cows. The cattle were not turned over to the government, but are bought for Hooker and Riley, by contractor of Colla. The transaction is agreed to these cattle taken from the women looked to be a change kept by both wanted to help us to help to use my back I'd have to tell me in making payment. After this, both the other hands were under his direction in April 5, three cattle, which was voluntarily offered. Mr. Knows that I was buying for Hooker and Riley. Mrs. Nancy Johnson and a Mrs. Axem were taken in the same way and were kept doing back's directions. The women seemed very anxious to help their quarter ends and their work cattle as they said they were all they had to depend upon. I thought it was wrong to have the cattle as we did, but I followed the direction of both my back. All three cattle with others that I bought were driven to Colla to Hooker and Riley. In the case of Mrs. Axem I recall that I said he had his two cows, fifteen dollars the day after we took the cattle, and in those days afterwards. Both my back or and me to pay him six dollars more.

Off. Pro. Man General
St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 29th

2. What is your age?
   A. Thirty six.

2. Where do you live
   A. At High Hill, Montgomery Co., Mo.

2. Do you know Mr. Manley?
   A. I do. I have known him, I suppose for about 8 or 9 years. He was in jail last year last winter. I heard him say and Mr. Miller. I knew Manley to be a dangerous man in the community.

He has acted with Bill Anderson in the raid at High Hill. I saw him there last winter. He was keeping a store there at the time, and I heard him act as soon as Anderson was gone, to get up in the street and shout: "Hurray for Bill Anderson! By God, he is the man for me." He left the town the next morning. I understand he cam to St. Charles and remain there some a few days and then returned to High Hill and myself and Capt. Davidson arrested him. The next day we took him to Velleville, from there he was sent here. He was released from Gratiot St. Prison and I heard his partner say that a friend outside and a few greenbacks got him and others out. Money is a bad man. That Miller made similar declarations about the same time and at the same place. He left immediately and said he would go with Paul Anderson sooner than go into the Militia. The morning they left they came into Mr. Cole's Grocery and pulled out a roll of greenbacks which Mr. Cole said was as thick as his arm. Miller said to Cole, 'Here's our share of the proceeds of this damned Town.'

Miller was arrested over here in Illinois by myself and a couple of men sent by the Pres. Mar. after them. He was put in Gratiot St. Prison and was released at the same time. About a week ago, in High Hill, he said 'By God all we want is a friend outside and a few greenbacks to get out of Gratiot St. Prison.' These words I heard from... make myself. He was at High Hill yesterday morning and Manly too.

Miller remarked the other day, just as as soon as the leaves come out, By God, we are going to make this country ache. I heard that too.

Q. What else known about these facts?

Dear Sir Some Time

Since I wrote to the Provost Martial General and gave him a list of the names of many persons who during last Summer and Fall were regular Booshwackers Murderers and Robes and notified him that George W. Williams and Fabricious Thomas would be before the General Court and that if he would have them taken through the Prisons in St. Louis they would I identify many Booshwackers who were passing under fictitious Names This was not done and is it not a shame that those Scoundrels should be executed or turned loose to come back her to Murder and Rob I now find the Name of one other who is or has been in Prison at Alton but what good does it do to give the Names of Booshwackers
by which they were known here the person is John Green was with the Booshackers and Mottock when they killed or murdered a Soldier near by and Bobed Colige Mount but I learn he is passing by as a fictitious name, but I did not learn the name and I know of no way to designate him.
but to send some one through the prison and point him out. The party is about 20 or 21 years of age and may have been exchanged. I wish you to see the Martials and use your influence to get these Devils identified who has committed so much crime and has well nigh ruined one of the best sections of the state. I know many of them, so do you. If the Martial wants any assistance point out some one to him who can identify the parties and hunt up the evidence to bring them to justice. I have to say in my opinion found where Bob and James Rusk is they are the full partners of Green and all humanity will blush if the proper means is not used to have these fellows punished to justice.

I am in with much respect your friend

Upon perusal of the within affidavit it seems that the Complainant, Dolar, demands through the Mayor and Commandant the District Judge against Mr. Compton, for losses sustained by the advance of the Confederates in the late Campaign.

Dolar bases the justice of his claim upon a statement that Mr. Compton is a slavemaster and an aider and abettor of the rebels.

While Mr. Compton may be a "Sympathizer" a fact not by any means established by Dolar, however, I am of the opinion formed from a perusal of his statements and corroborated evidence sufficient under oath, that Mr. Dolar's claim is not a just one and should not be considered by the Military Authorities.

By the end of the day, he was filled with a sense of wonder and awe, and he knew that this was a place he wanted to return to someday.

As he left the village, he saw a small boy playing in the dirt. He approached the boy and asked, "What are you playing?"

The boy looked up at him and said, "I'm playing the game of life." He then went back to his game, but the words stayed with him for days to come.

He returned to the village and shared his stories with the people there. They were amazed by his tales and asked him to tell them more.

This was said in the most joyous manner, and happy to see the confederate Army once more in this Country. That the confederate soldiers were at Compton's house all the time during the siege of Nashville had all his colored servants cooking for them, and he was seen constantly going about with them—worn to skeleton—

General, Permit me to call your attention to the examination of the papers presented to you by me some time since, in the Matter of John D. Parke, vs Henry Compton. I am anxious that an investigation should be had at the earliest moment, as I think from my information in that matter it is one that loudly calls for the interference of the Dist. Commander and that delay may tend to defeat the end to be accomplished.

This Compton is a notorious original Secessionist, and although he has gone through the form of taking the oath, he is now as well appear fully from the sworn statements made, an undoubted rebel sympathizer and partisan. I trust you will

As we at the head of our force met with the other force when they came up. They demanded that we should give the men up. Which we refused and opened fire on them with such weapons as we had. They retreated and we learned afterward that they were surrounded. I have learned from my brother since that he is still at his home still suffering from the effects of the engagement.

This is to certify that Mr. Levi Rodgers came to my house on the night of the first of Feb and called me up and ordered me to go and bring out my mare. I refused. He threatened to shoot the boy, my wife and daughters prevailed on me to go. I went with some of the party to the Stable and the Nardavagon upon hearing I had a black boy called up and inquired of him where the Nardavagon was. He said he did not know where she was. Then he threatened to shoot him and his boy. Rodgers took a limb of a cherry tree and struck him twice and failed to find the mare. He threatened to whip me and burn my barn and if the mare was found about the place I would kill one and burn it. In what I had he then ordered the house to be searched and one saddle and bed and several other things and fired. To the command that has he Rodgers under arrest.

About 3 P.M. of said day, four men came riding to me and inquired the way to Winchester. They were dressed in gray men's clothing, except one who was dressed in brown colored clothing. They demanded if we had our pocket books or knives, neither of us had any pocket books, but we delivered to them our knives.

One of them asked me for my pocket book, I told him, I have none, the other said, if you have, and told me that he would shoot me, if I did not deliver it up, I told he could shoot for I had none, he then took my knife. They say about the same time in the morning which was about one hour by four girls before they came on the second day with the same girl at my house. They came to my house, respecting one or two or to their house, that the Robber had attacked him. Immediately after the girl started on her return home, Mr. Rodgers, Bollman, Brown, and one other, and I, did not know came in a great hurry from the direction of the said Parker's But told them that when they left Parker they went around in the direction of one house and then turned through the woods and came to my house and requested me to go to Parker and bring them that they left when they ran off and to tell the United States Guard to tell the said Parker if she refused to send the soldiers that we will burn everything that he had before tomorrow morning. Rodgers said when I

Mr. Parker stated when Mr. McGee came after their horses that he had not been for their Stock. Sir;

I have the honor to state that my brother Ed. forwarded to me your in reply to the request made by Mr. Hard & myself, for the appointment of Sutter to Camp Webster near Mansfield.

I have been long enough in the service to know the difficulty of attempting to change an opinion formed by one of our Commanders & in addition, have some doubt in regard to the propriety of so doing.

It appears to me however that the fears you express in regard to the possible effect an Establishment of this kind might have upon the morals of the men, to the discipline of the Camp, are unfounded.

Neither, can I see how, an establishment regularly authorized to a great extent under the control of the Commandant of the Camp, can have a tendency to increase shirking or dodging of duty in the field.
Mr. Ward (who would have the control) is not only an old soldier, but an honest, conscientious man, above the superior to anything that would be improper or have an injurious effect upon the men.

It was at his suggestion that I asked my brother to give us the letter; for we had already ascertained that matters of this kind were left entirely with the Commanders of Dept. & their Lieutenants, the Sec. of War refusing to interfere. As we knew that a permit from you would be amply sufficient.

Nothing serious was contemplated, but we supposed that by proper management something might be made.

I regret that you have been forced to refuse the request. I express a hope that upon consideration you may change your mind.

Although personally a stranger, allow me to congratulate you upon the distinguished part the Cavalry has taken in the late campaign. For the first time in the West, at least in our Dept., it has been heard to felt in a general engagement.

I have the honor to respectfully request your advice in relation to a military order affecting my business. About a month since I leased a house in this place on Dickerson Pike, near Col. George G. Minors Camp at that time outside the limits of his Camp. And have spent considerable to repair said house, fit for business since that time. Said Camps have been extended so as to include my house within the Camp. I first inquired of Col. Minors if he would need the building that I now occupy for military purposes, and he said not. Since, I have received an order to remove my store beyond the limits of his Camp. Immediately, he says that he has no use for the house at present. Neither do I interfere with his Camp. I have all necessary papers to legalize my business. All the objection he has is that he has a butler within his Camp, and he thinks my store being in his Camp, will interfere or rather conflict, with his butler. Therefore General, I respectfully submit my claim to your very kind consideration, and request of you permission to continue on in business.

With due respect I am Your Ob. Serv.

Sir:

At the time you had permission to open a Salter Store, on the vicinity of Cavalry Depot, M. D. M., the store did not extend, only, as far as the Dickson Pike. Since that time, the boundary of the Camp has been extended, including the above mentioned Pike and the whole of Edgefield, Tenn. The Surunt granted for the Cavalry Depot, will include you from the land. You will therefore move your Stock of Goods, immediately outside the limits of Cavalry Depot, M. D. M.,

Colonel,

I most respectfully submit the following report of an investigation made upon the enclosed papers.

Mr. Kentucka is a regularly and dignitantly colored negro. The house in which he resides is in the vicinity of the residence of Mr. Kentucka's father of the same name, and in the vicinity of the town of Edgefield, and was built a few days past outside the lines of Col. Minor's camp, which has been occupied by the colored troops of this regiment. Mr. Kentucka's house has only been occupied by him since he was in the army and has since been extended to as to include all the ground on its right and to the rear, taking in the house of Mr. Kentucka.

Col. Minor states that the house occupied by Mr. Kentucka is not needed for military purposes, and that Mr. Kentucka's presence does not interfere with the camp. He ordered the removal of Mr. Kentucka's gate, upon the grounds that he (Mr. Kentucka) interfered with the rights of the officer appointed for the camp.
Mr. Sandale, the order to the camp was apprised of by Capt. W. F. Smith, approved by General
D. W. Johnson and others. Copies of such papers enrolled.

The orders for the camp east and west through the camp, it is prohibited by troops from the depot, and turned over to the instruction received from Capt. D. W. Marchall of Nashville. The camp was extended to the river upon the suggestion of Maj. Gen'l. Thomas, taking in, in the near the home of Mr. Kenmiller, and several other that are immediately on the town of Edgefield.

Very Respectfully,
Your obedient Servt.

I am unable to inform you by whom the outrage was committed.

When the servants in the yard were called upon for assistance they were also fired upon and firing was again opened upon the house, the doors and windows are shattered to pieces. I have also been wounded in the eye.

Giving information as regards to two pistols taken by him from Rebel prisoners.

A. E. Harwood 10th June 1863
Leesburg, Va,
March 30th, 1862

Dear Mr. Neal,

I got a letter a few days ago from Mr. Stockwell asking something about a pistol that belonged to a rebel who was taken prisoners in Illinois, neither Chiles nor some one else about the same time. I got the pistol from Chiles. I heard in some other indefinite. Reenau that these pistols were taken from him when he was captured, but I did not see them. I got two pistols from a man whose name I could not obtain. I have forgotten the name. He gave me. He was taken prisoner by the soldiers. I sent over the river two nights ago, one of these pistols, I told you was in the possession of the acting, and the other I had given to one of the citizens from Illinois who helped to capture Chiles. I also showed you an application from some doctor over in Illinois who asked that he might have a doctor's bill allowed against Stockwell, and I desired that these pistols should be turned over to him to pay the claim. You can find out from the man who took charge of the citizens when they hunted up there peculiars which one of his men. I let have the pistol I learned it is his to be returned when called for. If there is anything else you wish explained, please let me know from you and I will be glad to do so. Very respectfully,

Joh. Stockwell
I told Mr. Hick, I had heard three pistols were joined on child when taken out, but they are still in the possession of his father. He said they were restitution to these.

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to report that two union citizens, John J. Nigh and Andrew J. Nigh, were murdered about the twenty-third instant by a squad of Rebel soldiers under the following circumstances:

On the above named day, John J. Nigh and Andrew J. Nigh were visiting at Mrs. Elizabeth Hull's house in Hampshire Co., Va., and while they were captured by six Rebel soldiers named Joseph Vandiver, George Vandiver, James Crawford, one Jackson, one Boyd, and one man unknown, they were taken from the house and murdered. The following is the evidence in the case:

1. I, Nannie, citizen of Hampshire Co., Va., Sworn - John J. Nigh and Andrew J. Nigh were citizens of Hampshire Co., Va., they both claimed to be Union men, don't know whether they were ever in the Rebel Army or not. I saw them at the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Hull on or about the 23rd inst. whilst they were there six Rebel soldiers named Joseph Vandiver, James Crawford, one Jackson, one Boyd, Joseph Vandiver, and one man unknown, came to Mrs. Hull's and demanded John J. Andrew Nigh. To throw down their guns, they said, if a gun was fired they would burn the house down. They caught John J. Nigh and reached the house till they found John J. Nigh; they then proceeded to rifle their pockets. Fred Nigh said he would surrender, the Rebs swore them to the last time they were murdered. They put Fred on a horse & made John walk, when they left Mrs. Hull's, said Nighs were unarmed.

James Slane (citizen) of Hampshire Co., Va., Sworn - After one of the Nighs had been found dead, I

November 28th, 1865
New Orleans, La.
a small party went out to bring in the dead today when we found the body of the other old soldiery lying within 150 yrs of each other, there were three shots in A. J. High's face head, neck, all in the head. The other one was shot twice one ball entering the breast and coming out at the back, the other entering the back of the neck and lodging near the temple. It is reported that one of the Nighs had seen in the Rebel Army, but has been at home during the last two years, the other one has never been in the Rebel Army. Both have been giving assistance to the Union Causes during the last two or three months. I am well acquainted with the ground. The tracks of the horses were plain and showed that the parties were waiting and that there was no race to get away or escape.

Captains,

I have the honor to report that the Court on the 9th March 1865 was made by Permission granted from Nat Gov. 2nd Arm. 6th. The object being to bring in (Contrabands) the wife and mother of Grammar Darrell (Colored) who had been a Soldier in this Regiment for over Ten years and for had gone north with his family - and the statements made by citizens of Depredations being committed by men of my Command are in many particulars incorrect as to any officers of my Command refusing to look at any protection orders or the grounds of their being unless is denied by all the officers who accompanied me and after their being present at the Commitment of any depredations could hardly be possible as the whole Command were Marched in one column and, under my immediate Command except the advance guard and if any depredations in the way of taking poultry meat or provisions of any kind was done it must have been by Stragglers.
Of which every precaution was taken to prevent.
The Nona and mule were taken by my order being Government property and branded.
W.P. the Cart was taken by the Negroes the heavy rain the day Previous having made roads so muddy and the morrow so high it became an act of necessity as it would have been impossible for them to have travelled and carry their clothing. No affairs or men were given permission to leave the ranks. Except in pursuit of Rebel Scouts or Guerrillas one of which was seen to run from the house of Mr. Williams who has a son who belongs to a band of Guerrillas that infest that neighborhood all of which I designed to kill or capture not unfortunately they had gone that morning to the right of our Cavalry Regiments. I have also been informed by the own servants that sometime previous to my being there that two scouts of our army (cannoned) came to his house in the evening and were persuaded by Mr. Williams to remain all night but not to sleep in the house but directed them to an out building a short distance from the house in the woods and by day the following morning to party of Mounted Rebels came Surrounded and captured them, and it is reported to have taken them into the woods and shot them all of which I am well pleased, indeed, it is also reported, as no uncommon occurrence for parties to the rebel cause to come there for meals, which are freely given. The latter part of my report I made to show the loyalty of W. Holliard and where the rations furnished go to that of supporting the most treacherous of all our enemies.

Dear Captain,

Very respectfully,

To Major A. H. Stout, Provost Marshall of the Department of Indiana

The undersigned citizens of Cass County would respectfully represent that Capt. McCown and Hardin McMahan have now in their possession a large lot of cattle which they have purchased mostly from farmers and citizens of this section of the Country, and knowing that an order has been issued from the Office of the Provost Marshall General's Department of Kansas for the seizure of all their cattle we would make the following statement.

That a portion of the cattle above mentioned is owned by them and have been purchased by them from citizens and residents of this vicinity, and that they have not been engaged in the trade in Southern or Indian cattle and that most of the cattle above mentioned are domestic cattle which have been raised in this vicinity, and we would respectfully ask that Capt. Hyde of the 10th I. & C. be authorized to try the question and release all domestic cattle or cattle which have not been brought from the Indian country, where they may have under land order or other orders issued.
To Major General Leach
Commander-in-Chief, U.S. Army,

Dear Sir,

I understand from Dr. Mannan, that he and his partner, Mr. W. M. Laws, are charged in your office as being extensively engaged in dealing in stolen cattle. I think, therefore, that a detachment of soldiers from the nearest force, numbering 200 men, will soon please hear a word from one who has lately taken quite an active part with the fellow citizens of this place, in endeavoring to stop the cattle stealing business, and who feels a deep interest in every good citizen's welfare. I know Dr. Mannan well, from my good motives I am sure, some one has given you false or erroneous information. They deal in cattle, bought a lot of 20 at a late Administrators' sale, some domestic, some slaughter. The latter have been owned here except here for nearly a year past.
They purchased last Dec. of John Osborn, 50 head, by Osborn guaranteeing the title under a permit from Bob Coffin, Capt. Indian Affairs. They have bought I have seen their best domestic cattle from Citizen of this Co. & all over the Co. numerous small lots.

However today, your force had for some time, to exceed 20 head of domestic stock. The men will be able I think to convince you that his business has been legitimate, and I can assure you that he has been fully & heartily cooperating with the good people here to stop虐待本族 cattle dealing. The soldiers acting under your orders have ceased all his stock and all of it is domestic stock. This I feel sure you didn't mean. & I sincerely hope you will consent to hear, deal wisely, justly a encouragement by such action, the good citizen to hope for a speedy stop to all illegitimate cattle dealing.

Respectfully a truly,

Very respectfully,

Larnooite Kan.

My dear Sir,

In the year A.D. 1867 one Larnooite Nurlburt, purporting to have come from New York City, settled at this place and has resided here ever since. He has always been considered one of the best citizens of the county, maintaining a good reputation for honesty and integrity of character. He brought with him quite an amount of money and invested quite largely in real estate. His principal business has been dealing in lumber, horses and conducting a farm and for that purpose nearly always owning several yoke of hogs, cattle and considerable number of horses and other cattle.

In the winter of 1862 and 1863 he purchased of O. S. Learmont of Lawrence, forty cows which were taken by the U.S. Government in the Indian Country and Missouri and sold at Gov. Sale at Fort Scott by Said Commissioners to Learmont, Eldridge and other Said Parties last named having purchased at Said Sale several hundred head of beef and hogs. Since that time Said Nurlburt has invested quite largely in Stock of different kinds.
In the spring of A.D. 1864, said N curtis had on his possession with other cattle about 20 heads of those purchase ofLeonard. And up to that time he had not on any cow trafficked in Sonichem cattle except as stated.

Sometime in July last he purchased of Kent, Lauren, he reasons about 70 or 80 heads of Bulls cows calves, which last he delivered on the Town site of Burlington and immediately taking the balance of the season.

Sometime in December last he purchased of a Gentleman by name of Plassard, living on Fall River in Greenwood County, and generally considered by all who know him as a respectable farmer, an indivisible part interest in about 38 heads of Steers and Bulls.

These are all the purchases he ever made in Sonichem Stock as far as I am known by any one or can be ascertained, and out of this amount he has butchered & disposed of in different ways quite a number, having generally furnished the larger part of Beef consumed at this town.

He has not been engaged in driving Stock from the Sonichem lands all his transactions have been conducted openly and with the full knowledge of the Community generally who are interested in business of that kind.

On the 5th day of last January the said Lemuel N curtis died leaving behind about one hundred

1.) We have been well acquainted with Messers Hardin, W. Mahon and S. P. Holaday for several years and know them to be good, loyal, respectable citizens. S. P. In pursuance of orders and instructions received, Hampton Roads, Mar. 9th, 1865, I have the honor to report that after a consultation of all my records, and in consequence of an interview with Capt. Johnson, Sc. N. Y. and Lieut. Joy.

The citizens named in the different charges are fugitives -- or of not great importance. That removal of fugitives would be a burden and of some respect to no benefit to the Government. The number of men concerned in the alleged organizations known and if not known yet -- but, early to be found is at least 250. -- From Mrs. Breck is a fugitive -- and the only person of some influence. -- John Toole left the organization and furnished for himself as substitute- in the force permitted by law.

Capt. Johnson, Judge refusal, same at very best.
was perfectly satisfied with the course I took and did not wish to have you be present to many minor cases in him. Should I have erred in not arresting for the present, more men, I did it in good faith, to enable the Judge剜Boon to pursue after the loyal of several men in each section of this region, an opinion how matters really stand—feeling like me, least a number of men swore—that free reprieve, when placed at the hands of witnesses. I have the honor to refer to the difficulty the Government had in the case of James Alcorn who gave information in his affidavit and caused the arrest of a number of men—and placed on the stand would not identify—consequently he was ordered and with great difficulty—witnesses have been ordered to prove his own guilt.

I have the honor to cordially to be furnished with your instruction. If I am permitted to use my direction, I shall arrest the men consoled in the disloyal organization.

Letter Posted Feb 25 1865

Sir,

Mrs. Hannah Prince is the wife of Lieut. Col. Prince of the Rebel Army recently a prisoner of war at Andersonville, South Carolina and now a Sandlin and exchange.

The wife of this man wrote the brother, Mrs. Walker, who has written the acts of allegiance. It is said by a prisoner that the customary conversation of the family is as loyal and that the military authorities have the loyalty.

The customary custom of both is a frequent custom known.

The office of which I have told

Police is the sender's ticket as Catholic letter to be taken secretly outside the line.

These letters contained no information and were merely secret orders.

I contain herein the letter received by the from Mrs. Prince which contains a full statement of her case. I ordered Daric to investigate these fully for the facts and write. The moral that I can bring against her form is that she is the wife of a Rebel Officer without right of habitation inside our lines. Dear Sir,

Please to notify that her last letter... was written at the instigation of some of her family and intended as a step in which to catch some body. It contains serious statement and an offer to take "the oath of allegiance so far and may be able to understand its obligations." This language I was confident meant has been for a month him. But it is perhaps unimportant. She has many friends among loyalists of the second class who will avail themselves of an opportunity to make trouble in the event of offering recently much action in favor of.

Very respectfully,

Dear Mr. [Name],

My dear Mr. Whitman,

Provost Marshal, Sec.

Sir,

I have been informed that Mr. Atkinson is under arrest, in possession of a couple of anonymous letters. The fault is not here but should be attached to myself, if there is blame to be attached to any one. There was no intention or information sent south except to give Mrs. Atkinson direction where to direct the letters. My husband has been a prisoner of war at Johnson Island, since the fall of Port Hudson. My mother has been absent for several weeks on a visit to that place, so we means to get him released, on taking the oath of allegiance and I was very desirous to carry some message to a brother and sister in Texas. Pocahah Mrs. Atkinson to copy the letters. Without thinking of the responsibility and she took them equally, thoughtlessly, of harm, or danger, and put them on her person. With a small quantity of silver she had brought with her from her home. She had been a boarder at my mother's house for several weeks. She had visited the city to make an effort to get possession of some effects left by her husband, who died. He was in employ of the Government, and was returning to her home to move into Little Rock. I deeply regret the occurrence, and will be more thoughtful and prudent in the future if this inadvertent act can be pardoned.

Very Respectfully,

Henrietta Parish

My White
Commander Marshal, Gent.

Sir,

I am hereby sorry to give you trouble by my earlier or improper acts. I am writing to my brother and sister in Iona. I was not actuated by any wish or desire to violate any military laws or orders, but done by a desire to have them know my own situation and the absence of my mother, and the object of her recent marriage. If it has subjected me to punishment, or shall be the means of giving this McCann trouble, I might otherwise have not been implicated with any; I can but ask forgiveness, and am willing and ready to make atonement for it. I am prepared to take and abide by the oath of allegiance, so far as I may be able to understand its obligations. My mother and myself have used much exertion to get my husband home, and believe he will get return as soon as an opportunity is offered, if she can do so by complying with the President's proclamation of amnesty.

My mother is alone with a family of small boys and it is my wish to remain with her and I will promise in good faith to abide by the laws and military order of this country.

Very Respectfully,

we need to Anderson and he was not at home so I left him there and went over to Mr. Martin but did not find him there so that since I was afraid he might be a suspicious man but he moved the

Robert I and you James there were the children of mine. And Robert had never been here so I opened to him the door kept away long desired to partake in the neighborhood: we left her and went to Alfred Langford's and met with good reception and Langford harbored two blockheads among his boys there and went to Hanley's Store where the goods were that belonged to the Crow family. That night, we went out to Hunnicutt's in company with Langford and the goods when we came to get the goods they were stolen and we could not go that night the men who had the goods in our name: Samuel Roddick, Christopher Comer, and Jemmy Broadale they visited the goods in the next morning we went for them and found them for them and the night we opened them in Darby and Christopher Comer, Thomas Comer, James Broadale they opened the goods down to the boats and got them in and by order for all goods we got about one mile from there and ordered a subscription which they did give out and we brought them there and it went on and arrived at Darby Thomas Comer, Thomas Comer, James Broadale and then in the necessary bound of the goods there numerous hundred fine tallow candles, a hubble of butter along with several pieces of wood logs, and goods the waders and a little for some cloth from Mr. Ricketts and we ordered to be sent over here, the year is from Richmond, belong to the lady and are ready under the regular business from Darby. Your obedient servant,

Lieut. 14th Texas

Lieut. Col. John Woolley
Provost Marshal
Middle Dept

Salisbury, March 7th, 1865

Colonel,

I have delayed making my report in reference to the seizure of goods and arrest of the blockade runner, awaiting the arrival of Detective Dawson, and because I had ordered an investigation into the escape of a prisoner named Hart, a Jew, one of the blockade runners who had been sent to Baltimore with three other prisoners in charge of a guard of a Sergeant and four privates of the 10th New York Cavalry.

Upon the return of the guard I was actually engaged in preparing for an expedition down the Peninsula in obedience to instructions from you 14th, but upon the receipt of the report of the Sergeant of the guard I forthwith issued an order reducing him to the ranks and directed an investigation to be made into the circumstances of the escape, which has been delayed owing to the absence of Capt. Smith's company. It returned day before yesterday but the prisoner whose custody the prisoner Hart was given was left with the detachment at Annapolis and as soon as I received the result of the investigation by hand I ordered him to be brought here. I have directed Capt. Smith to prefer charges and he will be sent to Baltimore for trial — Hart escaped by jumping from the car while in motion.

I had proposed to have sent the goods that were reloaded to Baltimore by the Steamer Cecil but owing to her being disabled I ordered them to be shipped by railroad and on yesterday Col. Woodley was notified and at inventory of them sent to kind. It appears that it was Detective Dawson who discovered the blockade runners and with the assistance of the detachment of Smith's company of cavalry stationed at Annemessix arrested the parties and seized the goods. I have the honor to forward hereewith his report of the 24th ult., see \( \text{on the 3rd inst.} \) and his report of the 4th ult., see \( \text{on yesterday.} \)

I did not feel at liberty to withhold sending Detective Dawson's report to your H. E. in obedience to your instructions of the 1st ult., as soon as I learned his whereabouts, and on yesterday he reported in obedience to my orders and transportation was furnished him to Baltimore.

It may be that an efficient detective would prove serviceable in breaking up contraband trade and blockade running, but If the officers and detachment now there in the neighborhood of Annemquer will do their duty zealously and efficiently they can stop the illicit traffic as they are natives of the district and thoroughly acquainted with the Country. I propose to send Capt. Geo. W. Smith into the district to pursue it and make full report concerning the Contraband trade with the western shore of Virginia.

I am not very well, but I hope I will be in good spirits and writing soon. I must say I feel a little tired at the time I am writing this letter. I went to Washington and the day after you left, I was through with some business. I went to my cabin and found you gone. You were not in the cabin, and behind the door I found your note. I went to go to Salisbury and I had some to go to. I went off after the word of God and found you near the road. I went back to the cabin at Graphe in a hurry. Then I came down and the rest of the day and I stood at the door, where I stayed until I met up to Matthews. Mr. Williams and represented to him that I knew a Rebel guerrilla under Mr. Bolling's command and the said two men was drafted more from there and went to join the rebel army. The gentleman I sympathize with him and told him to keep away as he had a number of enemies there. I saw you and every one he had been there. I said he would read my book and send it to me. I go to Mr. Bolling's place and the man, Mr. Bolling went off and told me to go to the house and see what I could get. He gave me a start off. I went to the office and told him we were Government. He told me to understand he was a merchant and could do anything. He gave me a start off. I went to Mr. Bolling's place and found him at Mr. Bolling's place. Mr. Bolling was at home last.
for Stephen was in charge of horses and farms and the said Corbin told me he had a brother in the rebel army and that he accompanied with him and remained in the south, he then told me he was a喳ish for an account of the time he dwelt in Pinellas county that he and a number of others got up a load of blockade goods and he and about four more was caught. They were caught by some Ohio soldiers there was horses and wagon goods all captured but the men got off and the horses and wagon was claimed by Mr. Charles Wilson, he stated to the commander of the guard that the horses was stolen away from when the said Charles Wilson had the amount of two hundred dollars invested in the goods but the false story gotten up for the purpose of getting his horses and wagon back again.

I informed out of the officers and present enough affairs ahead and then I was directed by Corbin to a speak by the name of Mr. Anderson, he represented this Anderson as a true southerner and that Anderson had been in the Rebel army or at least had been south for about a year and that Anderson had come home to attend a race at a week of election and had never taken to what this man was named as owning the rebels as being one of the sharpest and best pilots a Rebels around as he gave to me and I finally found out I was all right and began to talk to and as a confident he said Anderson slept one of the men and Mr. Martin and James Boston the other in the woods two days and the second day the consist was made to carry us to the bank of the Cumber River at a place called Redotch while staying at Boston I received a letter from them and a chain of horses they sent some into the Rebel army and Anderson and Boston made a large wish for

James Wilson, with the full understanding that we were to go south and Boston and Andrews cut us down of to Robet's house to serve our mess in the name of Edwards and Theodoro, two black gentlemen, made us and taken good care of us and Mrs. Edgord Ross carried and bridle horses, with the blockade runners and the word with the other they gave us all possible information and took us aboard to see the best vessels of the city, three or four days before a number of others come on and there was late 12th, galley, and told us he just ridden here from his brother and that he was a broker of property that he had built over, week previous to the time I come over there in his party and would a must help us the gentleman and who, we was March 24th, and around on the same time, was John Motte, the merchant, Pete Williams, and they found good Rebel ships and came, rebel ships and one of the ladies in a rebel flag in the afternoon of any handkerchief and told, and that they had seen the blockade, the great plan harbored a rebel soldier at the same time, the next place was Henry F. Hall's house and the said Hall harbored no men, contraband to get an access into Virginia and the same hall, night goods in his house, and harbored two ships, the said Hall has a man that I will make affidavit. That I need the said Son Hall in Monocry, with a load of goods and a man of name of Mr. Long, John Mitchell, and this Sam Hall led all of us forth where he was, free he had not one cent but by being a very careful n; blockade runners, he built his house, he stayed at Messina, Long's house, and he told us that he had seen the blockade runners. He knew it without their telling it, the next house was Edward Smith's and Frank Jones on the other side of the house.
in stayed there and they searched that farm and arrested a child in one of the houses there and then went to John Broxtoil and there he acknowledged he sent two black men and he presented me with the rebel flag in a large and threw to James Anderson about 23 it was a rebel mare collected he told us he had been in Richmond over wintered and said he had never taken the oath of allegiance and intend the next show was Daniel Head he had lived with and the said Ford among swords and the watch for the cows the next place was Alfred Simms and he harbored us and the said Thad Connor also about the night was left for Virginia the posse was brought down to the boat self way was paid and we started from the house and bid our friends good bye and after sailing out one mile I ordered a surrender and they closed the boat up and then we have given them up in column named creek and went to camp and arrested three more men and while I was gone to arrest the others the boat got off the bank in charge of four soldiers and one of my men the posse consisting of two or three but not more white men and Ricks and a dress for Miss Clara Greer sent together by her mother the few was marveled about and therefore a license issued to him by Lem's Bradford to sail in the enemy and this made them think that he was a Richmond man and the few was in the army fought I have told you all and I have got till last one the car and the other a large boat with a cabin general I wish I could send me a order to move up towards Chimney and Pamlico I can finish out more then if you want any of these men arrested whom I have mentioned you had better send me this order for I can find them better than most any one else.

On Tuesday last about 9 o'clock, I was instructed by Captain Silva to go and get a dress, the next day into our lines. I went to Captain Colk, and the dress I asked for was a man's dress of temporariness, and asked me if I wanted a canvas coat, I told him I was not. He then asked me what Regt I belonged to. I told him the 37th Mass. He then asked me if I understood how to make a coat or not, meaning whether I could fix it or not. I told him I did not know, and asked for one to prove the process. He then took my time, and then went back to the tent, and asked if the Corporal ought to the city, I then promised I would meet him on Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, and let him know. From that time on, I was promised I would meet him on Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, and let him know. He promised me to stay all night until then, as he would have the clothing ready only to put on, and in the morning, I told him there was no cloth there in the morning, I then referred the case to the Provost Marshal before I met him, which was 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning. At 7 o'clock, the cloth ought to the city, and he promised me to meet me at 7 o'clock, and he came over to the clothing, I made him 10 o'clock to have the clothing he knew with

In relation to Henry Miles, the conductor on theoppelousa Rail Road, I have been running on that road since the 29th day of March, with monthly transportation given by Mr. E. K. On the 20th inst. while in the first-class car, in the discharge of my duties, Mr. Miles came to me and accused me very roughly in the presence of the passengers just where are you going to? I told him to Terrebonne. He then said to me, you fare I told him that I had transportation which I showed him. His reply was that it was not worth a Dam, and said that I must pay or he would stop the train and put me off. I told him that I should not get off. He then demanded all of my papers which I refused to show. He still insisted upon my getting off, by this time we were getting near Bayou Selma where there were some colored troops stationed. Sir,

Your communication has been handed to me an hour since. And in reply I will say that I know very little of the difficulty you speak of. I saw Officer Marks jump off the train, what the conductor has acting under order in putting him off, is more than I can tell: I consider the Conductor Miles very much of a gentleman, he is very popular as a conductor, and would do nothing I am sure that he met his orders as he has been to long in the government employ.

Office hands is very vigilant, and allows nothing to pass, in examination. He is bound to do his duty, whether with friends or foe. And if he were to do his duties sometimes, is more than I can tell. Keeping this information will prove satisfactory.

J. R.
Mrs. Olypy, citizen and non-combatant, rented her plantation in the Parish of Chalmette to Major Reynard & Reading for one year, which term expired Dec. 31st, 1864. In consequence of the non-payment of the full rent by Majr. Reynard & Reading, Mrs. Olypy instituted suit against them, and the U.S. Marshal seized to the value of about three thousand dollars ($3,000) the products and goods then remaining on the plantation. Several sales of cotton and many tons of sugar having been previously disposed of, in violation of the published regulations, the state, the products not to be removed till the laborers were paid, in consequence of the decision of the court that the laborers had the first lien. Mrs. Olypy's suit was withdrawn, as the wages due to Majr. Reynard & Reading's laborers amounted to about twenty seven hundred dollars ($2,700). So the products5 already above mentioned were taken and ample to repay that amount. Either by mismanagement or intention, the laborers have only been paid in part. The planting of the Parish seems to be on the verge of ruin. Majr. Reynard & Reading bought the sugar at $1.25 a gallon and resell the same to the sugar for $2.00 a gallon, consequently the same still due, Mrs. Olypy is called upon to make good the pay of the wages of those who were employed by Majr. Reynard & Reading. It is represented to her that her property... and more particularly the seed came upon the plantation is held liable, and has been supplied for sale.

Mrs. Elyz protests against the premature sale of the seed in question, as reserved according to the civil contract made at the time of leasing the plantation to Maj. Rigwood & Sanders. The latter complained in such a manner as to cause delay sufficient to plant five instead of two hundred acres. It is only by command of Gen. Barnetit one fourth of the land raised to be reserved for seed, which Mrs. Elyz purchased from Maj. Rigwood, having the contract signed and in compliance with the contract, the rest of purchased

Necessity. Mrs. Elyz, after Maj. Rigwood & Sanders relinquished all right or management of the plantation, received back from the plantation, and in consequence of Maj's Rigwood & Sanders' neglect in not having the same quantity of hay that they found upon the place for which the contract called, Mrs. Elyz proceeded to secure sufficient hay for provision, employing laborers by paying them. Within the last ten days all the hay is made and stored, has been by force removed to the adjoining plantation of Mr. Rigwood, leaving Mrs. Elyz's plantation without provisions to present to which she was to have, through Lieut. Riggs P.M., to pay back her own hay. Mrs. Elyz wishes to draw attention to the fact that if the crop is worth $200 a gallon the value should have been placed to the credit of the slaves, as well as that of the produce removed from the plantation prior to the signing of the same. The slaves would have been paid, instead of the profits going to Mrs. Ogle and Dr. Reading, who will render her property responsible for this debt. Moreover Mrs. Ogle cannot cultivate as she has no security that her property will be left undisturbed, even the sellers from the blacksmith's shop having removed, and many other articles. The foregoing facts considered.

General,

I have the honor to state
for your information, that I have made the arrest of some 12 or 15 persons connected with the Fort Changing Beauch on the southern waters. The leading man is now in "Great Patan River," his principal assistant is below somewhere, a man named Thomas L. Black.
The evidence is conclusive as to their guilt, and also shows that others of the same stamp are down the river, perhaps in your department. One of them is Bob Bunden, who is now evading the authorities, he being under sentence of death. He is about 5 feet 8 inches high, square shoulders, complexion fair, large blue eyes constantly rolling and displaying a great deal of white hair, and whiskers (these), usually wear a fine
mustache, wear his hat on back of his head.

(1863)
Another is Isaac Murphy, or balloon. He is about 5 feet 6 inches, slim, small eyes (proudly looking), narrow forehead, hair dark brown, small nose, appearance shabby and careless. Of theft, deception, unknown.

If you can arrest any of these men I can furnish the evidence to convict them.

General

Beloved Sir,

About the first of Oct last, I handed you a paper from the President of the United States requesting you to investigate the Order of Major Gen. Banks making us an exception to his general order protecting loyal African American citizens if we were found to be true and loyal to have us treated in all respects the same as other loyal men. After investigating the matter you directed Gen. Buel to issue an order setting aside Gen. Banks's order. Am reinstating us in our original position. I understand now that you made a subsequent order and refused the whole matter to the Adjudicator at Washington believing that the purchase of this property could not be valid and innocent. In response, I am now taking steps to have the true owner, who ...receive the notes for the different payments as soon as the sale was consummated...

The Order Maj. Gen. Hulbert has been drawn on Mr. Anthony and he refuses to give us possession of the Plant. He's gone place over about the Office Marshall of the Parish of St. John Baptist put up in possession of one Moore.

Sirs,

In accordance with instructions issued from your January 18th, 1865, I have the honor to transmit the following statement:

Having thoroughly perused the letter books of the firm of Messrs. Dole, Jones & Co., and the ledgers, commencing August 16th, 1863 to do business for and on account of the United States Government, I find that there is nothing open to the censure of the United States Government in any of their written transactions.

The letter books, commencing February 1864, and ending July 1864, contain letters concerning the purchase of, and shipment of foreign and foreign exchange, but the letters contain no evidence of any illegality on the part of the parties, but all tend to show strict legal commercial transactions for a house doing such extensive business.

The records of the day books, cash book and ledgers, may show to what use and exchange respect, whether for the illegal purchase of cotton, or for creating secret bonds.

I have the honor to remain,

Yours, etc.,

In accordance with your directions, I am to submit for your consideration a statement relating to the property of the heirs of Rev. Dr. Barron, situated East of the City on the Nisconntuck lead, within the jurisdiction, being the former residence of David T. Barron Esq.

I was informed the Governor's about the 10th October took possession of said residence and grounds, which contained the house, the furniture, books, and buildings. The town, recently (my daughter) Mrs. David T. Barron died leaving an only daughter, with the said residence. I am, therefore, the Grandmother of said residence. The furniture books, etc., in the residence property of said child. Also 73 of said real estate, amounting at 45 days $13 to Messrs. A. B. & Co. I hope I have of the city for a year, and the remaining $13 to Mr. Dudley Barnes of Athol, who I will pay.

I would be greatly obliged if the Governor could come in with the device indicating all of said furniture, book, etc., to the former occupant. But if not, I would most respectfully request you would direct all the furniture and other personally belonging to the property of the said Minor Childs to be returned to my custody. When the house was first taken, I was by order of the Governor to retain in said residence two rooms for the purpose of occupancy, and the said furniture not so used by them, which I have since removed, either to continue or at least until I can make other arrangements for the same. And also for protection for all the land and buildings. Not in the immediate occupation of the Military between some distance of

The Domestico, furniture, and farming stone informed him first, then the following by letter about 15th September last by Col. Jones, one by Col. Bryant and lastly a letter from by Col. Mr. J.F. Turner
Pursant Marshal General of the Orleans

Dear Sir: At the request of many ladies of the parish, and knowing it to be an unanimous wish of nearly all, I pen you two few lines to inform you that there are several women that made regular visits to your city from here, for the purpose of getting family supplies. These family supplies, which are always so shipped and packed as to be twice the amount permitted, are sold through out the County to any one, at an enormous profit, of not less than 200 percent. I have known many good lady to go to New Orleans only to get cloth which was necessary to sustain life for a short time and was refused everything but even a piece of cotton cloth, while there arrived refused to, the dyer, Mrs. Reeder and Miss Erwin O'Connor, by some deception accused of L.D. Day, of New Orleans, whom respected by no one here, and arrived with a large lot of family supplies. How they do this without great deception I cannot tell, as they have taken down no cotton, as no worse confederates than Mr. Dyer, Reeder & O'Connor, are to day in our Parish, but they bag here they hand fooled the Yankees,
and, by this means, are assisting the Confederates.
Our wish is that we may all be allowed the privilege of getting our family supplies, or, that these actions be not allowed to the public or other people. I have been informed that these parties are arrested by Collins, John D. Deputy Collector in C.H. and Mr. Mauers. By putting a stop to these women who get these supplies, each, every three weeks, you would greatly oblige the ladies of Rayon East and St. Thomasville.

In your haste

Commody D. Y.

General:

I have the honor to acknowledge the reception of your note of the 25th inst. respecting the suit in admiralty for possession of the Steamboat "Savoy."

As regards the advice of Capt. Col. Laurens, in pursuance of which I filed the libel, I can with difficulty believe myself mistaken, as the advice was given to me personally by that officer at his office in St. Charles, S. L., about the 20th of February last. I stated the case asked for an investigation and was informed by Col. Laurens, that the simplest and most just method for all concerned was a suit in the U. S. District Court.

The same day informed me, that if I should obtain a decree in favor of the owners it might yet be, that General Conoby would not permit the case to be given up, but would be governed by the evidence elicited on the trial. If the evidence was clearly in favor of our right to possession Gen. Conoby would submit to the decision, if not he would resist it as far as he legally could.
I agree with Col. Santelle that an investigation before the U.S. District Court in admiralty would not only further the merits of solemnity and impartiality, but would save the time of officers of the army, whose duties in connection with strictly military and public affairs are always arduous and engaging.

I thank you for the recommendation you make in regard to procuring a submission of the case by Genl. Sandby to the Court, and shall immediately apply for it.

But from what Col. Santelle told me respecting the cases of the "Red Chief" and "Starlight," as well as from my own impressions as a lawyer, I have supposed that Genl. Sandby's interference in the case would be limited to a contest of the final decree in cause, it should seem unjust, and that he would not deem it within his power to stay proceedings in a Court of the United States.

Permit me, General, to add a word respecting the merits of this case. It is a mistake of Col. Holabird, sincere of course, but no less entire, to suppose that the "Savoy" is captured property. I have indubitable proof that she was taken from the peaceable private possession of the late Mr. J. Savoy, his builder, a man eminent for ability, loyalty, with a promise that she should be been returned, that if damaged, he should be repaired, and that a fair compensation should be paid for her use. The sudden death of Mr. Savory by a frightful accident, last May, interrupted the efforts he was making in a quiet way to assert his claim. The Administrator now feels it his duty to urge the rights of the intestate. He would be answerable to his duty both to the estate and his beneficiaries if he did not take all proper means to recover the boat.

You will observe that the prayer of the libel is in the alternative; that possession of the Savory be decreed to us, or that her present possessor be required to adjudicate. Under the Col. Morden bird may, if he have legal reasons, cause the boat to be labelled, either as prize, or under the Confiscation Act.

It would seem that, if he have such reasons, he should label the boat; if he have not, the should be given up.

Respectfully yours &c,

Your note to Col. Holabird in relation to lobel filed against the insane W.B. Jenny has long been known me.

In this you state that the debt is filed by a card as a matter with the St. Co. Sarettales.

I think you are mistaken about County as there is very few debt that no such debt shall be entertained.

I would recommend you before taking any further steps to pursue said County's order submitting this case to the proper actors of the U. State, otherwise under his general instructions.
I shall be compelled to state it prosecuting Suffer

Matter of Claim

To

Steamboat W. H. Savory

State of La. No. 3

Parish of Orleans

Belmont

Warronneaux being duly sworn, says that he resides in the Parish of Iberville, and is a loyal citizen of the United States.

That he is administrator of Mrs. John William Savory, deceased.

That said Savory was known as a strong Union man while the insurgent forces were in possession of Louisianna, and before the national forces took possession. That during that time he refused to subscribe to, or enter into, or in any way to encourage them to become a part in their success, and he refused, and when they tried to force him to go into such service, he had himself kept out of.
their way.

That about May 1862, when the city of Vicksburg had been occupied by the national forces, the insurgents began to burn cotton and other property at Vicksburg, and said Savery, knowing their sentiments towards him, was afraid that they would burn his boat. So there-fore ran her (the said Steamboat W. B. Savery) down Bayou Vicksburg about three miles and a-half to a landing on his mother's property, where he resided himself.

About the 2d of June 1862 the said Steamboat W. B. Savery, the said property of said W. B. Savery and John Felix Grand, was seized by United States forces under orders of Captain Shuey, of the Propeller Saxon.
Defendant states that said vessel was not captured from the enemies of the United States, but was taken as a prize for military use from the private possession of said Capt. S. for the reason described above.

Defendant is informed and believes that when boat was seized said Capt. Sturges said that he would take good care of her, that if she ever sank she would be paid for, but that the vessel be returned, and her time paid for while she should be in the employ of the Government.

That the said Savory relying upon said promise did not for a long time urge his claims, but finally about a year since made some efforts to call the at= tention of the military authorities to it, but in what manner,

defendant does not precisely know. Said Savory was a very quiet
man of easy business
habits.

About the 16 day of May 1864, said Savory (with his brother-in-law
and child) was killed
near his mother's farm
by the accidental explosion
of an old shell which he found in the woods, and immediately attempted to open.

This said steamboat
Savory was built by Mr.
Savory about 1857 and one T. Orellen acquired a half interest in her,
and she was registered in their joint names. Ever in about the 28 day of March 1859, said Orellen
conveyed his half interest

to John Helen Orellen
to John Helen Broad

who shall lawfully own
the same and jointly with defendant, makes this claim for her return to her owners.

Defendant as administrator of said Wil-J. Savory (jointly with-said Broad and part owner)
prays that said boat
may be returned to her lawful owners, and that they may be paid a reasonable sum for her loss
during the time she has been so employed by the Government.

That at the time
said boat was kept, defendant is informed and believes that there were on said boat and taken with her the items of property
set forth in the Schedule
attached annexed marked
"A."

sited states residing in the Parish of Chenville.

Defendant took the aforementioned statement
on or about the 1st day of February, 1864.

Defendant has heard

Co-claimant, B. Harman-

statement thereof contained respecting the loyalty of Mr. W. J. Savary, he—

Being duly sworn says that he is a loyal citizen of the United States residing in the Parish of Iberville, and is now Clerk of the Fifth Judicial District Court in and for the Parish of Iberville.

That defendant has heard near the affiant of B. Larrone to-was heard to announce of this date, and as regards the statement respecting the loyalty of Mr. J. Savery he knows it to be true.

Defendant was present at a conversation shortly after the seizure of said boat between Mr. Savory and one DeBeaure in which the latter asked him why
He had not seen her boat off into the Confederate lines so that she might not be seized, to which Savery replied that the boat was at her proper mooring, that he was the owner and had no other place to put her.

Defendant knows that shortly before the unfortunate death of W. J. Savery he was making some efforts to get the boat returned.

Defendant knows that said W. J. Savery voted at the election of Feb. 22, 1864, and took the oath of allegiance prescribed at a qualification about that time.

E. Francis Savoy, a loyal citizen who after being duly sworn deposes and says that I was present when the steamboat M. B. Savoy was taken by U.S. troops under command of Capt. Sturgis commanding the Transport Saxon on the 2nd of June 1864. I then had the said boat in charge, as my brother Wm. J. Savoy was absent. The boat was lying in front of my residence. There were two officers with the soldiers, who came to take the boat. They notice to me that they had come to take the boat. I then asked them for permission to take off the effects on board; they allowed me to take off my brother's trunk only. One officer then remained on with a squad of men and the other the balance of the soldiers marched me off to the Saxon brought me before Capt. Sturgis who asked me what was going on. When I told him that my vessel was preparing her for repair; Capt. Sturgis told me that he had orders from Head Quarters to take the boat for the U.S. service, and he asked me if my brother W. B. Savoy was there. I then stated to me that he would give me a receipt for the boat, but he never did it; he stated to me also that as soon as he had done with the boat that he would return her, and that if she was damaged in any way that the damages would be paid as well as the time they kept her in use. The boat was not captured; she was taken when in the possession of her owner, in front of our residence, when in process of repair, the boat had always been in private use and never was in the Confederate States service. I was always engineer on board of said boat when in use.

Personally came and appeared before me Joseph H. Welty, justice of the Peace for the Parish of St. Tammany, Edward Doherty, a loyal citizen who, after being duly sworn depose says, that when the Savoys arrived at Plaquemines, a large squad of militia Confederates soldiers under command of S. Daniel proceeded down the bayou to run off the steamboat. Mr. Savoy, Samuel applied to S. Don Savoy, the pilot of the boat, brother of Mr. M. Savoy, who was then about S. Don Savoy refused to them take the boat, stated that the machinery was partly taken. down & the boat could not be moved. He requested me not to move the boat. If he had desired to run off the boat there was ample time to do it by_flooring her.

I was in the squad of Confederate soldiers who were to run off the boat. I was then a corporal in the 30th Va. Regiment.

The reason we did not run the boat off was because he requested us not to do so. The Stokes M.G. battery was not captured; she always was in private hands & never was in the Confederate Service. She was taken in possession by the U.S. Troops on the 25th June, 1862 at her mooring in front of her owner's residence, on Battery Hauzenberg.

Captains:

I have the honor to report the following names of prisoners, who were captured off the coast of

Nov. 18, 1866, since my last report.

Prisoners:

John Brown, Fannie Ray,

Roscoe Rigg, Eli Green,

Frank Bragg, James Miller,

Dropped from our hospital.

J. & J. Adams, Hugh Rich, Paride,

W. J. Penny, Joseph,

You will have in hospital.

When I was in hospital, I have called them all

Paride's, the rest were colored men in hospital.

This is one more than I have in my book.

When I take command of the prison, the number reported to me as being in hospital over 120 men. Butner Paride was about 20 men over the figures, over-

120. Paride, the rest were wrong as the figures were there as I am furnishing with as well as none of prisoners, the fact would not be granted.

Captain, let the request of Major Davis be made the following statement in relation to certain facts developed by the testimony in the Case Against Mrs. Margaret By and others.

I caused to be deposed in the Case of Mary Alice and Mrs. Eliza Nichols, and other similar cases where the assistance of this testimony was that they prepared the articles, signs, and that I intended to send them to the coffin in the Confederate church, so that they sent to the house of Mrs. Hanlo, told her what they wanted, and then prepared the bundles.

It is also in proof that in these bundles were articles furnished by Mrs. William Page and Mrs. Martha Nichols, that the matter was Considered at the House of Mr. William Hays.

It is further shown of the testimony that Mr. Walter Stryker was known to the circumstances that he to a certain extent advised Mr. Hays and Mr. Nichols how to get the goods outside the Poodle— and that he appeared there promiscuously to prepare the proceeds of his house and that he would see that they were taken to Mr. Hays. He sent letters to that effect.

I have seen that the case do for as certain concerned—— The written defence is to be put in this morning—— I hope to be able to proceed it by Monday or Tuesday.

The examination has been delayed by my going from attending State Leg. from the fact that was put in earnest for not letting proper time. I shall show the circumstances that present—— and think I can relieve myself from culpably——

P.S. Respectfully,

Your obed. servt.

General,

I have the honor to state for your information, that I have made the arrest of some 12 or 15 persons connected with the Boat passing the River, on the western side. The leading man is now in "Federal Fort Pierre." His principal assistant is below some where, a man named Thomas L. Clark. The evidence is conclusive, as to their guilt, and also show that others of the same stamp, are down the river, perhaps in your Department. One of these is Rob. Slocum, who is now evading the authorities, by being under sentence of death. He is about 5 feet 8 inches high, square shoulders, complete face, large blue eyes, constantly rolling and displaying a great deal of white. Fair hair and whiskers (chin) usually wears a false moustache, wears his hat on back of his head.

Another is Isaac Echlin, or Echlin, He is about 5 feet 6 inches, slight, small eyes (cruelish looking) narrow forehead, hair dark brown, small nose, appearance slimy and cadaverous.
A third is — O. K. U. J., disposition unknown.
If you can assist any of these men, I can furnish the evidence to convict them.

Captain,

I have the honor to report, that the prisoner I sent to you yesterday by the name of John Culian O'dick had a mule and buggy with him at the time he was captured. There have been several parties here to claim the mule, for one Mrs Ogden. In my opinion the prisoner is a spy and there are parties connected with the matter, what leads me to think, that if the case was thoroughly investigated it should teach a lesson to some of the inhabitants of this Parish. Mr Alexander Girtle and Madame Ogden are implicated in the matter, the mule evidently belongs to Madame Ogden.

Sir:

I have the honor to make the following statement in regard to the two prisoners, citizens, John Graves and John Carroll, who escaped the guard on March 10th, 1865.

Corporal B. Longerbar on guard at the time says: he gave about half past 5 o'clock P.M. on March 10th, 1865, permission to the above named two prisoners to go for some coffee under the charge of Private Thomas Darrow, a member of the guard.

Private T. Darrow says, when outside the prison the two prisoners wanted to go to the Washington Hotel for coffee. As soon as they were in the Hotel, one prisoner went out the back door and while Private T. Darrow was looking for him the other prisoner made his escape through the window.

Immediately the case was reported to me, & I reported the same to the Provost Marshal and I at once sent out 2 patrols to search the town for said prisoners, but both patrols returned without finding the prisoners.

I would learn me further particulars in regard to the escape of the prisoners.

I have the honor to return

the enclosed papers in the case of William Murphy, James

Bates and Peter Lamson, citizens, convicted before a Military Commission, of which I was Judge Advocate.

Williams Murphy was tried, and the proceedings of the Commission in his case were forwarded to Albany about the middle of April last.

About the 17th of April I forwarded a communication to your office asking that Bates be brought to Rochester and forwarded here for trial. In that communication I never received any reply, but have since been indirectly informed that the proceedings against

Lamson were withdrawn.

On inquiring into the case of James Bates, I found that the only witnesses against the man had deserted the service and could not be found.

Two copies of Affidavits taken before a U.S. Commissioner, implicating the men named Dates, and Murphy in inducing soldiers to desert and re-enter. I am satisfied that there is an organization here maintaining or to object the enlisting of soldiers already in the service to desert and re-enter. These men can be tried by the U.S. Criminal Court, but it is too slow and remote from here to produce any effect.

What we want is the Summary trial of these men here, before a Military Commission. Such a trial with a severe punishment would do much good when it became imperative.

The affidavits above referred to present a strong prima facie case, against the man
William Murphy of hamiz, at Syracuse.
New York, induced one Patrick Kain, to the New York Cavalry, to desert the service, and to re-enlist therein.

They also show that James Bates, at Elmira, New York, attempted to induce one Edward M. Fairland, Co. F, 14th U.S. Infantry, to desert, and re-enlist in the service, and to offer to furnish him citizens' clothes to wear him so to do.

It also appears that he had admitted having furnished citizens' clothes to other soldiers for such purposes, but to whom is not stated.

The reasons assigned by Col. Tracy are considered pertinent, and it is recommended that the cases be referred to Maj. Genl.

The within described land is the only place in the immediate vicinity of Memphis suitable for Target practice for Light artillery, the Target now erected including Enchantment of the ditch occupies in all about 30 Thirty Feet Square. Maj. Gen. the late General Chief of artillery 5th of the Cumberland has signified his intention to order Target practice for the light batteries in the District of West Memphis in which case it would be difficult to select a more suitable place. In my opinion it would be desirable that the place be retained, even though it be necessary to compromise for the damage done.

To Capt. Geo. H. Sutton,

I was arrested as being connected with taking on board of the Sch. Gen. Scott certain goods to be delivered in Virginia—the goods now in possession of the Collector of Customs at New York, contain evidence of their destination. It was thought Sutton would expose the matter, and the General thought it best to order his arrest and detention. He professed to having taken the goods abroad to be delivered to a man called Jones at Baltimore, without the knowledge of the Owners of the Vessel, for which service he received Twenty dollars. The owner of the Vessel in Baltimore, Mr. James Sullivan, and his Agent in New York, are well known to the Authorities. No other proof, I think can be produced other than what I have stated. Captain Sullivan had a hand in this matter. All was suspicious.

Sir,

I beg leave to transmit, hereunto enclosed, copies of the affidavits of Richard Henry Lowe and John B. Graham, detailing the circumstances of another outrageous case of kidnapping of three negroes, British subjects, of whom two have been compulsorily enlisted in the United States Army.

I fear it will be difficult to trace and reclaim these two unfortunate men, but it may be be practicable to obtain information which will lead to their discovery, by arresting the coloured man Smith, who evidently acted in this case as an accomplice of the crimps that kidnapped the negroes. From the similarity of name, and the description given of Smith, I think it very probable he is the same man who decoyed the men of the "Browning Palliser" and "Phoenix" into the hands of the crimps. He will probably be known to the Police; and, if he were arrested, information might be obtained from him, which would enable the enlisted men to be tried, as well as lead to

to the detection and punish ment of the villains who Kidnapped them.

Respectfully requesting your attention to this matter.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

E.W. Archibald.
Richard Henry Love, coloured man, made a bet with another, that he, at the age of thirty-eight years, would return to the Bahamas, and bring his brother and two other coloured men to the plantation of the late Mr. Green, Turtle Cay, Bahamas. He was joined by James Russell and Robert Lyon were cleared on board the Dutch ship Rhenland and were landed at New York. From there he proceeded on his way to New York in order to return to the Bahamas. He reached New York on Thursday the 23rd of July. None of us except Robert Lyon had seen New York before. All our money was spent before we arrived here. A man named Charles Smith, a mulatto man, said giving us 200 West India pence and reassuring, and had nothing paid he would take care of us. He belonged to us. He took us to No. 11 York Street, New York; a mulatto woman lived there. Smith told us to give us a bed and take care of us and he would pay for us. He said he did not keep a boarding house but would take us in to the room. He slept there, and Smith provided us with food, giving the woman (the woman recalled his name) money to buy something for supper, and in the morning day since taking us into some sort of boarding or eating house and spung us some food which he paid
for. We cleared very kind to us, 00
Sunday evening about half past six.
We took Fred and Smith to get some cappucc. We got some cappucc at an eating house. Smith paid for it and as we all gone walking home
and had got about three blocks away from the eating house and near to York Street we were met by two men one of whom had a broken. They seized hold of Charlie that is Smith and said we all gone more deserter from the Navy. One of the men took out a sealed letter out of his pocket. Smith said he had done nothing and asked the two white men what they wanted. They replied he were all deserters from the Navy that they knew it, and that he must go with them, and if he did not they would call more help to compel us to go. Smith said "let us go and see what they want to do with us, we to have done nothing. We were afraid of being fired at if we ran off, and so we went with Smith and the two white men who took us to a place where one of the white men said it was his office and put us all four in a [Signature]
them up there. There was beds in the room, he slept there that night and the next night. They said they would put utilities at the door. Whether they did so or not I know not. On the morning after he was first picked up, the two white men, at five in the morning, took us all four men across the ferry to Sandy City and then by train to a place which they called Morro or Morro Town. I think it was to call, but am not certain. We had something to eat and then were taken by train to another place where they overheard us, stripped us and examined us. After some time they kept James Russell, the said he would do for the Navy. They said it would not pass. But I ruptured. They said that neither Smith nor Snyder would pass there. We three had more all crying. He said he wanted to go home. He did not know anything about the Navy. Russell cried very hard when they said he was to go into the Navy. He told them he had a wife and six children. They said they would put him into a Monitor or a Torpedo. He said if they did his family would never hear of him again, and if he must go he would rather be in the Army. One of the White men who took us then told I wish he must say he would go as a substitute, or something like that.
The white men said he must have another name. I do not know the name of this place it was a lot of large. There were a good many other white men there besides the two that went with us.

And the two white men drove South and Lynx and myself back to New York, and we slept that night in the same house we were locked the night before, but I was in the next room to the one we were in. The next morning after having some breakfast, the two white men took Lynx and myself between eight and nine o'clock cross another ferry, and then to a train from which they called James.

We went all the way in a carriage.
There were several white people there.
Lynx was examined there and he was told he must go in the Navy, and if he did not consent, he must be put into a monitor or frigate.
He said he did not want to go at all; he was a married man with one child. They told him if he did not go in the Navy, he must go in the army, and if he did not agree to that, they would take him back to New York and put him in a monitor. He said if he must do one or the other, he would rather go in the Navy. They told him he could better give his own name, as they would give him another name. They stripped me and examined me there; they said I should not do. I examined Smith too, but they said he might go back to New York only if they caught him again, they would take him again. Smith and I were then sent to Williamsburg in a cart. The two white men did not come both by the way, but the drivers. We (Smith and I) then came across the ferry. When he came to the side of the ferry, Smith left me, and I have never seen his face since. Then went to Sandyguts Hotel, it was right opposite the ferry, Smith told me where it was, and there I found Mr. Graham, the Engineer of the Blackheath. One of the white men who arrested us was tall. He gave me a hat and a thick coat, a lot of sea jacket. The other man was small bearded; he gave a small cap, and two black coats.
and a gold watch with a chain which looked like a gold chain. This man was the one that carried the runner, and the papers with a seal on it. He had no whiskers. The small man used to call the other man Brown. I am married, have a wife and four children. At Free Turtle Cay, Bahamas. I am not quite certain of the number of the former house in York Street. I think it was Number Eleven. It was a brick house. The small estate man used to wear a black coat, and a black cloak over that. By these I mean the coat.

John B. Graham late second engineer of the Steamer 'Blenheim' and Peter Batti and Saith, as follows:

I know the colonel, Mr. Richard Henry Lowe now live present. He was a seaman on board the 'Blenheim', as were also the two other men James Ruskell and Robert Lyon of whom he speaks. They are all British subjects. I was landed at Norfolk at the same time with them. I came from Baltimore to New York in the same train with them. I have lodged at Vandyeer's Hotel since I came to New York. Lowe came to me at the Hotel one day this week. He told me the particulars of himself and the other two men having been kidnaped and carried off, and of the forcible enlistment of Lyons and Ruskell, as he has now stated.

At Norfolk, there were people there who tried to get them to join the Navy but they would not. They all wanted to get back to their families. On the way to New York they used to talk of the danger of being kidnapped, and were afraid of it. I am quite confident that none of them wished to join the Army or Navy latter.

Dear Sir,

I have read and studied the resolutions of the Bank of the United States, and I greatly deplore the situation. It is a great pity that such a country as our country should be in such a state.

I believe it would be an excellent idea for the people of Memphis to meet together and discuss the situation. Let us have a public meeting and try to find a solution. Let us support the Union and let us all work together for the betterment of the country.

I think it would be a very good idea to have a very good speaker to address the people. I think the people would be very much interested.

Please think and act as may seem wise.

District of Tennessee.

Sir: I have the honor to forward to you under guard two men, George and James Clark, who were arrested by the pickets as they passed through this place without passers; the reason is known to have been residents of Hunker's Bluff, and that they were taken along on the retreat with the Army, and that they had been in the service of one Capt. Smith, Co. B, 1st Tennessee Infantry, attending his horses. I examined these two men in the presence of a wounded Officer of the 1st Tenn. Regt., who could not only recognize these men, and said that there never had been a Capt. Smith in said Regiment.
I have to state further, that I received a dispatch from Muskoville, dated February the 24th, 1865, with a list of six Federal Deserter(s), which may prove this fact, and required me to arrest them, the same of G. S. Clark's departure from that place, corresponding with the date of said dispatch, but not their names or descriptions. I therefore feel it my duty to forward them to you for disposal.

Your obedient servant,

Gen. Bedford Forrest

Dear Sir,

We the undersigned citizens of the County of Yazoo and State of Mississippi, have within our midst a set of Thieves, and in some instances Organized Bandits who depredate and rob to that extent that we feel the necessity of an organization of some kind whereby we may protect and defend our selves and property. Our object is not to interfere with regular Confederate or Federate Soldiers, but solely for the purpose of arresting and apprehending all outlaws. Should this meet with your approbation we have some hope of making a start, otherwise it is utterly useless to attempt it.

Braccia, March 13th 65.

To His Grace, the Duke of Northumberland,

General,

I beg leave to bring to your notice, a matter of injustice against the Bents of Northumberland.

In the month of July 1864, James, Megredy, then belonging to John A. Patrick of that county, stole two steers, a colt and some fine droving cattle from Dr. William Best, and brought them to Braccia City; when they fell into the hands of the Chief Authorities, the said property is still in such possession. About the same time, Capt. or Lieut. A. J. Cooke of the E. M. R. of Charlow County, then on active duty, in passing by, stopped at being the Hert's house & borrowed from him
a fine horse to ride to Beacon City.
Also a saddle, bridle & blankets.
This property also fell into the hands of the Building & is still held by their authority.
Said property has been held & used by the Chief for eight months
& the owners thus deprived of its use & benefit, without any shadow of claim or right being set up against them by government or any other party thereto. The property was not taken for confiscation by the government at all, but was merely stolen partly because above stated & partly by the hands of the Chief, partly by accident, the thieves, owners, being at the time
Good peaceable loyal citizens, fully entitled under existing Chief Oveling to the protection of the Government.

Being in the face of it, levant in rebellion as the rest. To quiet the rebellion voluntarily, both are oath of allegiance, gave bond for its observance, there strictly faithfully lived up to its requirements. But up to this time. Further, before the papers thoroughly free into Big Jeferson, the lawfully pardoned by President Lincoln, guaranteed protection both to his person, property and leads act of the President is now in full force effect. This I submit ought to govern in his case.

The facts above stated are not Controversial, but in his connection, they lead me to submit the statement of Messrs. Austin, Thomas & Turner Touching the Loyalty of the Claimants. Capt. Austin of the 8th. Reg. of Blount County has served under us and been known to you. John M. Thomas E. is also well known to you, whilst Joseph L. Bryan is the True Representative of the Radical Union party of Randolph County, in the State Legislature.

are blame for a long time been in active cooperation with the Brig. Accusators of Randolph County in suppressing rebellion & carelessness in that locality & have been treated & respected accordingly by the Brig. Authorities of that County. I therefore confidently submit that in all justice & under existing Orders, both parties are fully entitled to restitution of their property.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst. in regard to two horses (captured with the previous orders) by me to bring to the place at which placed. The horses are still here in the Court and have been kept for the past by your friends, but owing to the last having the opportunity of shipping them so far by steamer, they have been worth about $70.00 and it would cost me the Court $40.00 to keep them to be sold. If you please, I will send the horses ready to you or time here now to the Court, but they take this opportunity for you, please listen for which Court to bring.

Captain,

In reply to your communication of the 1st inst. I have the honor to report that the Boat reported to have been stolen from Halliday was sold to R.D. Sharp, of St. Augustine, by Floyd for the sum of Fifteen ($15) dollars. I had having no interest in the matter before as I am ascendant and receiving none of the money. He had previously sold the Boat in company with Floyd for fishing purposes.
The Boat has since been accidentally stove and abandoned.

Capt. D.,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 8th inst., directing me to cause William Turner to return to Ortega as a spy. Neither of the parties named are at present at this Post. Turner having gone to Jacksonville, and Ortega having his residence some twenty miles distant.

The spy has changed hands twice since Turner obtained possession, but is now under my control. What shall I do with her?

From statements of individuals who profess to be acquainted with the facts, it would seem that Mrs. Turner (late Mrs. Higginbottom) is the rightful owner of the animal. Wm. Monahan, well known as a 'legal guide,' stated that last Spring a Mr. Hawthorne was seen from the west side of the St. John's river by the rebels—that Capt. Halliday of the 75th Ohio V. M. I. borrowed the Pony of Mrs. Kingbottom for Hawthorne to ride in, and that upon arriving at Pickensville, Hawthorne told her. Since then she has changed hands several times.

Dear Mr. Wilson,

I am writing to express my concerns regarding the recent events in our community. As a member of the local board, I have noticed a significant increase in incidents involving vandalism and theft. These activities not only cause property damage but also create a safety concern for our residents.

I understand that the police department is aware of these issues and is working diligently to investigate and apprehend the perpetrators. However, I believe that a comprehensive approach involving community engagement and collaboration is necessary to address the root causes of these problems.

I am advocating for increased community awareness and education programs that focus on combating such behavior. Furthermore, I propose the establishment of a neighborhood watch program to enhance safety and security in the area.

I look forward to your feedback and the implementation of these suggestions. Together, we can create a safer and more inclusive community.

Sincerely,

& Provost Marshal.

Sir,

Vesting a bill of $62.00 for the loan of a horse against Mr. J. H. Corbett a Citizen of the State of New York who with permission of the Secretary of War is manufacturing Naval Stores at Jacksonville, Fla. and being not able to collect this bill from said W. H. Corbett therefore hereby respectfully beg leave to make the following statement and to transmit this said bill for collection.

On the 25th day of January 1865 the above named J. H. Corbett in company with Dr. James, Dr. Neeles 1st Lt. 4th U. S. A. came to my house, asking me for the loan of my horse, for two or three days only to go outside the lines on privatebusiness promising me reasonable pay i.e. whatever the customary price would be and prompt return of the horse. Having previously to this made arrangements with Dr. Alexander Bamber about Dr. Bamber's fee in exchange for the use of my horse, I informed Dr. Bamber that providing Dr. Bamber could have no objections, he, Corbett, would have the horse for the above mentioned time, but of course not longer, as I needed the horse beside, for my Farming use. Dr. Bamber giving his consent, I let Corbett have the horse Dr. Weeks in charge of the U. S. General Hospital at this place who, as I was here informed, was going into partnership with Mr. J. H. Corbett & Co. and who was accompanying Corbett when he went out into the lines with my horse, informed me, after his returning without Corbett, that the latter went on to Jacksonville, but would be back as soon as possible. Scarcely days having passed by, and a Corbett finally returned here without bringing my horse, of which, as I at these plans, I was too much in need, told me, after I went to him for inquiring that he left the horse with Robert Monroe, a colored man living this side. I told Mr. Monroe, answering Jacksonville, as he had not time to get the horse on board the steamer on which he left, came back from Jacksonville, but could not find the horse at once. I again waited patience several days but being informed, that Corbit left here, and hearing nothing further of my horse except that it was used for ploughing service by the above mentioned Robert Horne, as it was noticed by Mr. Henry, a citizen of this place, who happens to go to Jacksonville on private business, I sent my son George to bring it back, which, after considerable trouble was accomplished on the 17th day of February, the horse being absent exactly 24 days, for which time I am compelled to charge $300 per day, a more than reasonable price as horses at the present can not be got less than at least five dollars per day. Besides, I have to charge $100 for expenses which I had to get the horse back, making in all eight hundred dollars, and thereby losing not only the agreement made with Dr. Bamber, as he had to make arrangements for another horse, but also considerable time viz. the cultivation of my land, and having no money to meet such losses at the present, and being not willing to submit to the unreasonable treatment I received from said Mr. Porritt in regard to our agreement made, and in regard to his refusal of me the above mentioned forty, I once more respectfully beg leave to call your attention to the above statement to receive justice through the military authorities; Civil law being not sufficient to reach speculators.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Very Respectfully,

Your obedient Servant,

If consistent with the safety and Military Policy of the City I

impossible I would ask that the store

Personally appeared before me, the said W. D. Abita, who being duly sworn says, that until towards the last of December 1864 he was in possession of the record books and papers belonging to the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the Eastern Circuit of Florida in Duval County. That about that time they were taken from his possession [except the record books which had been previously taken to St. Augustine] by order of the defendant—indicted, from that quarter, & were placed in the custody of John W. Price.

That among the papers on file with the defendant, relinquished the custody of them, were the original books consisting of Bill, &c., as in the Case of Farmer Moody against Joseph W. Scott & William D. Pyle, in January in said Circuit Court. That some time in the month of February last as well as he never recollects, he the defendant saw the said papers in the said case lying on a shelf back of the Convent in a Grocery shop kept by the said John W. Price on the corner of—Bay & Ocean Streets. That he saw the said papers when more than one occasion lying in the place aforesaid. That the said papers disappeared from the place aforesaid on the day as well as he now recollects, when Philip Jacob Judge of the U.S. District Court arrived here back on his way to St. Augustine. The date he cannot now perfectly state. That said Prior had an assistant in said shop by the name of John Moss. That he defendant did not see the papers in question handled by any one, but that he saw them there on more occasions than one when the said Prior was present in said shop.

Subscribed & sworn to before me the 21st day of March 1865.

Memos

Differences seem to exist between Mrs. Sarah Hutchins, Mr. Isaac X.
Nero & Capt. Thomas in merchandising.

It seems that they commenced

as partners on the 5th of Aug. under an agreement that he should purchase goods, & she should furnish the permit & the building to trade in, on this place Jacksonville. That he should have 2/3, or the 2/3 of the profits. At the time of the agreement it seems that he had nothing worth of goods stipulated

To furnish from 6 to 20000 a month more, that they made a settlement, & the expiration of every ship month.

That they had one settlement, which was 20000 for the first six months.

It came further that, during the past winter, Mr. Nero brought out 20000l. of goods, destination for this establishment here. That Mrs. Hutchins, who held the permit to trade made them to clear the goods in her name. That the

she furnished the cartage, & store. While the word went ever over 20000 l. that this feat being determined, she, the store was closed by the Treasury Dept. for an infraction of the revenue regulations.

This left them without further funds, or revenue, during which time of course no judging could be done. That a fine was finally imposed upon Mr. Howe for this offence, & it was further ordered that the bench's should stand alternately on the first of May next. The closing of the stone, for several weeks previous, sales & sales of lands a damage to the concern - if it shall be closed on the first of May, there will be a full quarter left. For their agreement, was to continue in business for one year which will end on June before the 8th of August next. The terms of any business then Dunshee, 48 days before the 8th of Aug.

It seems further that the profits on the goods are about one hundred per cent. Mr. Geo. Wilson, who is in charge, says by order of the Adjutant, or some military authority here, says that they are ordered to make the goods one hundred per cent above the market price, though they protest as I suppose will not average that.

Should the business continue to the end of the year then, would be no difficulty in determining the profits, subject however to an allowance for the interruption of business by the closing of the stone for several weeks in the year. While - both parties are desirous to close the business now - and the question is, What place is Miss. Hutchins under the circumstances entitled to? This cannot be demonstrated mathematically. If so the days of the business were interrupted for Several months through the first 6 Mo. Mr. Ne., is finally to be closed. More than three months sooner than the former stipulated for in consequence of his disengagement, the ought not to have by it but ought to find just what the would have been entitled to had the business gone on without interruption. What that sum would have been we can only conjecture. One third of the profits on 42,500 worth of goods worked at a profit of one hundred per cent, any one can arrive at. But, what the goods have been all told, if this would not be 100% have been the profit? Probably not. If they worked, he would have been about 8%—without being able to say what would have been the profits with certainty, we are left to probabilities. The whole question it seems to me must be determined by them—Mr. Hutchinson claims that under the circumstances Mr. Ne. ought to give him 50%. Perhaps so—but as he cannot I cannot say that I am satisfied that such would have been her claim. Let the business continue without interruption. Of course he must be left to the military authorities to decide where the parties concerned agree. I should think between that 40% or not less than 38% would be more a fair estimate of probable profit. I mean her share.

Very truly,

S.D. Dunbar

My Dear Colonel,

I have the honor to call your attention to the report of Capt. Jones, in reference to the cases of Mrs. Grace and Jane George. Dr. Palmer, should also be seen if they have committed any aggravated act. I would hold them several days.

Mr. McFulton was here to see me about them. I told him that the trouble was that each one as he, holding God’s office, was the cause of much of their trouble. Because they were the first always to speak in their behalf when in trouble, he left one, angry, & out of the mouth of God, Maria. So be prepared for his coming. I hope to go to bed under the doctor’s order. I am quite sick.

Capt. Vaughan will receive your order and execute promptly.

Major,

I have the honor to inform you that on the arrival of the train with 500 rebel prisoners at Bolton Station at 12 this afternoon, two young women dressed in black, names unknown, succeeded in eluding the vigilance of the guard and held communication with the prisoners. One of the women threw a package covered with a pocket Alexander among the prisoners; what the package contained I am unable to state as it could not be procured. I procured the handkerchief and turned it over to Capt. [name] commanding the guard.

The route taken by these women to pass the gare, and have communication with the prisoners furnished evidence that they had knowledge of the existence of orders prohibiting such communication, and that they intended to give aid and comfort to rebels in opposition of military authority. I at once ordered their arrest in accordance with Special Order No 48 Oct 9th

After a careful investigation of the within case, I have the honor to comply with enclosed instructions to make the following report:

I Edward Brown, by order of this Office on the 22d day of March 1865, for examination, was rejected by the Surgeon of this Board, as being suffering deficient development, and in the opinion of the Surgeon, about sixteen years of age.

II. Fredrick Hunterville and Peter Leveau, are generally known as ‘Munnor’s Brothers’ and are engaged in taking men and boys rejected by the Surgeon here, as physically unfit for the service to other parts of the state and I am informed they sell them to the Brothers of other states. over Joseph Eaton is a good contractor and my company with Mr. Merritt signifies the recruit for the soldiers at this Post he has no authority to recruit has never offered a recruit or substitute at this Office but like Montville and Laton is engaged in taking men and boys to other parts of the State.

In conclusion I would say that I sent for Eaton Montville and Laton and after an examination separate and apart from each other I learn the connexion or the Boy Edward Nisb went place after he had been examined and rejected at this Office and they knew such to be the fact. I asked said Eaton for his authority to recruit said he did not have any written authority but that Capt. Townsend best his man General told him he ought recruit in any part of the State.
I had reason to believe he was taking some men to Concord New Hampshire. His wife says he has but it is a difficult matter to get positive proof. I have no language with which to express my contempt for this class of men and I would earnestly recommend that the East Contract between the United States and said Eaton be revoked.
and that I may be authorized to send all the men here engaged in this kind of business to Gannah Box to be dealt with according to the nature of their offense. I am, Colonel, very respectfully, Your most obedient servant,

MISSOURI AND WESTERN TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

No. 1. Terms and Conditions on which this and all Messages are Received by these Companies Respectively.

In order to guard against and correct as much as possible some of the errors arising from atmospheric and other causes attendant on telegraphy, every important message should be repeated by being sent back from the station at which it is to be received to the station from which it is originally sent. That the usual price will be charged for repeating the message, and while this Company will endeavor to send messages correctly and promptly, it will not be responsible for any errors or delays in the transmission or delivery, nor for the non-delivery of repeated messages, beyond two hundred times the sum paid for sending the message, unless a special agreement for insurance be made in writing and the amount of risk specified in this agreement, and paid at the time of sending the message. Nor will the Company be responsible for any error or delay in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any unrepeated message, beyond the amount paid for sending the same, unless in the manner specially insured, and amount of risk stated herein, and paid for at the time. No liability is assumed for errors in cipher or special messages: nor is any liability assumed by this Company for any error or neglect by any other Company over whose lines this message may be sent to reach its destination, and this Company is held under the order of the sender of this message to forward it over the lines extending beyond those of this Company. No agent or employee is allowed to vary these terms, or make any other or verbal agreement, nor any promise as to the time of performance, and no one but a Superintendent is authorized to make a special agreement for insurance. These terms apply through the whole course of this message on all lines by which it may be transmitted.
