BE IT RESOLVED BY THE PEOPLE of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:

Article IV of the Constitution of Missouri is amended by adding one new section to be known as Section 54 and to read as follows:

A state sales tax of one tenth of one percent will provide additional money for the State Economic Development Department to be used solely for the promotion and development of "Technology Parks in Missouri." Technology Parks serve as incubators helping create new companies, jobs, and research and development. Cities will be able to apply with the State of Missouri to have certified technology park status. Local counties or cities operating in the state may place voting yes or no on their ballot to seek approval or disapproval of the People to have such a development in their community.

The one year sales/use tax of one tenth of one percent (referred to above) is hereby levied and imposed upon all sellers for the privilege of selling tangible personal property or rendering taxable services at retail in this state upon the sales and services which now are or hereafter are listed and set forth in, and, except as to the amount of tax, subject to the provisions of and to be collected as provide in the "Sales Tax Law" and subject to the rules and regulations promulgated in connection therewith; the one year sales/use tax of one tenth of one percent is levied and imposed for the privilege of storing, using or consuming within this state any article of tangible personal property as set forth and provided in the "Compensating Use Tax Law" and, except as to the amount of the tax, subject to the provisions of and to be collected as provided in the "Compensating Tax Law" and subject to the rules and regulations promulgated in connection therewith.

Schedule

Section 54 amendment. All of the provisions of 54 amendment shall be self-enforcing except that the general assembly shall adjust brackets for the collection of the sales and use taxes. The above one tenth of one percent sales/use tax will sunset one year after imposition.
