NOTICE: The proposed amendment revises Article III of the Constitution by adopting one new section to be known as Article III, Section 39(g).

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended as follows:

Section A. Article III of the Constitution is revised by adopting one new Section to be known as Article III, Section 39(g) to read as follows:

Section 39(g) 1. Any entity licensed by the Missouri Gaming Commission may offer Sports Wagering in this state. Sports Wagering means wagering on professional athletic or sporting events.

2. The Missouri Gaming Commission shall promulgate rules to regulate Sports Wagering including, but not limited to:

(a) Requirements that licensees cooperate with investigations conducted by law enforcement agencies or professional sports leagues;

(b) Standards requiring the use of official league data to determine the outcome of certain types of wagers on a professional athletic or sporting event;

(c) Standards and procedures for licensing excursion gambling boats, sports and entertainment districts, and internet based sports wagering platforms to offer Sports Wagering; and

(d) Rules prohibiting all Sports Wagering activity within a sports and entertainment district unless approved by the professional sports team that plays its home games within the district, except such rules shall not prohibit the sole activity of offering Sports Wagering over the internet via a licensed internet based sports wagering platform that is accessible to persons physically located within the sports and entertainment district. A sports and entertainment district shall be comprised of:

(i) the premises of any facility where a professional sports team plays its home games and the 400 yards surrounding such premises; or

(ii) any area owned or operated by an entity or affiliated entities licensed to sell liquor at retail as an entertainment district pursuant to chapter 311 of the Missouri statutes and such entity or affiliated entities have a verifiable financial investment of more than two hundred million dollars to develop such district, provided, however, that, for purposes hereof, the boundaries of such entertainment district shall not be enlarged after the effective date hereof.

3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Section 39(d), to the contrary, a wagering tax of 6.75 percent is imposed on the adjusted gross receipts received from Sports Wagering conducted by a licensed entity. Fifty percent of the revenues received from any tax imposed on sports wagering shall be appropriated to support pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade educational institutions and fifty percent of the revenues received from such a tax shall be appropriated for the construction, repair or maintenance of highways, roads or bridges.

(b) The state auditor shall perform an annual audit of the revenues received and appropriated pursuant to this section to ensure they are being used only for authorized purposes. The state auditor shall make such audit available to the public, the governor, and the general assembly.

(c) The additional revenue provided by this section shall not be part of the "total state revenue" within the meaning of Article X, Sections 17 and 18. The expenditure of this additional revenue shall not be an "expense of state government" under Article X, Section 20.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Article III, Section 39(9), to the contrary, the general assembly may enact laws consistent with this section.

5. All provisions of this section are severable. If any provision of this section is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or unconstitutionally enacted, the remaining provisions of this section shall be and remain valid.
