NOTICE: The proposed amendment revises Article 1 of the Constitution by adopting one new Section to be known as Article I, section 36.

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended: Article I, section 36.1 of the Missouri Constitution to read as follows:

Section 36.1. This Section shall be known as "The Right to Informed Consent."

That individuals have a right to refuse interventions upon his or her person and that freedom from governmental interference with that right is a fundamental right. And that pursuant to that right, the state and any political subdivision of the state, including schools and institutions of higher education are obligated to ensure informed consent when promoting any medical intervention and shall be prohibited from passing or implementing any law, order, ordinance, regulation, or public policy that mandates, coerces, or infringes upon the individual right to refuse any medical treatment, technology, testing, facial coverings, medical devices and/or procedures, including but not limited to injections and vaccines.

Informed consent includes the right to be informed about exposure to mRNA and/or gene-altering therapies and medical technologies or treatments.

Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged to any person in this state because of the exercise of the rights ensured by this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to secure or protect a right to abortion.
