Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:

Article III of the Constitution is revised by adding one new Section to be known as Article III, Section 54 to read as follows:

Section 54.

1. The legislature shall be prohibited from attempting to repeal, amend, or undermine any measure enacted by citizen initiative, unless eighty percent of legislators refer the change to voters, notwithstanding sections 2(a) and 2(b) of Article XII of this Constitution, sections 27, 29, 31, 32, and 52(a) of Article III of this Constitution, and any other provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary.

2. No legislatively-referred constitutional amendment shall impede citizens' initiative or referendum power, notwithstanding sections 2(a) and 2(b) of Article XII of this Constitution, section 1 of Article III of this Constitution, and any other provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary.

3. Ballot measures proposed by petition or the legislature shall be decided at general elections, except when the governor and eighty percent of legislators approve special elections, notwithstanding section 52(b) of Article III of this Constitution, section 2(b) of Article XII of this Constitution, and any other provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary.

4. Courts shall immediately rewrite misleading ballot titles to be unbiased, clear, and accurate, notwithstanding sections 2(b) and 3(c) of Article XII of this Constitution and any other provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary.

5. A simple statewide majority of individual votes cast thereon shall suffice to enact any citizen initiative, notwithstanding any other provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary.
