Title 20—DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND INSURANCE
Division 2245—Real Estate Appraisers
Chapter 7—Prelicensure Course Approval

20 CSR 2245-7.010 Standards for Prelicensure Course Approval

PURPOSE: This rule regulates the standards for approval of a prelicensure real estate appraisal course including the subjects, curriculum and the minimal requirements of instructors.

(1) Providers of prelicensure real estate appraisal courses, shall obtain approval of each course from the commission, that will be granted upon proof of compliance with the following requirements:

(A) The prelicensure courses of study offered by the course provider shall include the subjects set forth in the three hundred (300) classroom hours for state-certified general real estate appraisers, the two hundred (200) classroom hours for state-certified residential real estate appraisers, the one hundred fifty (150) classroom hours for state-licensed real estate appraisers, or any combination of;

(B) Each area of study shall be conducted and supervised by an instructor who shall be present in the classroom at all times. Each instructor shall be qualified by specialized preparation, training and experience to ensure competent instruction. The qualifications of each instructor shall be approved by the commission prior to participation in a course of study. As a minimum requirement, each instructor shall—

1. Be a certified or licensed Missouri real estate appraiser with at least two (2) years of real estate appraisal experience acquired within a period of five (5) years immediately preceding the filing for approval. The commission may waive the certification or licensure requirements for good cause; and

2. Have verifiable practical experience in an area of study to be taught which, in the opinion and discretion of the commission, is substantially equivalent to the foregoing requirements. The commission may request documentation be provided to them; and

(C) All audio or visual teaching aids employed by a course provider shall be used under the personal supervision of the instructor approved to conduct the prelicensure course and may not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the total prelicensure course presentation. Guest speakers may not be used for more than ten percent (10%) of a prelicensure course presentation and they do not have to possess instructor credentials.

(2) Providers of prelicensure real estate appraisal courses shall attain approval for each course from the Appraisal Qualifications Board (AQB) Course Approval Program or an AQB approved course approval program prior to submitting for commission review as outlined in section (1) of this rule. Approval by the commission will be automatically withdrawn if the course is no longer an approved course by the AQB.

20 CSR 2245-7.020 Application for Prelicensure Course Approval

PURPOSE: This rule states the documents necessary for prelicensure course approval. It includes requiring supportive documentation of the educational qualifications of instructors.

(1) Until July 1, 2007, any person or entity seeking initial approval from the commission for a real estate appraisal course of study for certification or licensure examination in Missouri shall submit the following:

(A) Completed application on a form provided by the commission and accompanied by supporting documents specified in the application;

(B) A complete curriculum showing all courses offered and the times allocated to each course;

(C) Application for approval of each instructor on a form provided by the commission and accompanied by a resume' showing the qualifications of the applicant; and

(D) A copy of the course provider's final examination and the correct answers. No course provider may provide a certificate of completion to a student who has not satisfactorily completed an appropriate in-class final examination.

(2) Instructors shall teach all courses in close adherence to the outline on file with the commission. In the event a substantive change is proposed, the sponsor shall file a revised course outline at least thirty (30) days in advance of the scheduled course offering. Approval in writing from the commission shall be received prior to implementation of any substantive course change.

(3) Effective July 1, 2007, providers of prelicensure real estate appraisal courses shall attain approval for each course from the Appraisal Qualifications Board (AQB) Course Approval Program or an AQB approved course approval program.

20 CSR 2245-7.060 Investigation and Review

PURPOSE: This rule establishes the policies of the investigation and review of prelicense courses.

(1) The commission may investigate approved or proposed course offerings by conferring with a representative(s) of the Appraisal Qualifications Board (AQB) Course Approval Program or by the representative of an alternate method established by the AQB, the course providers or instructors, visitation with or without prior notice, or by surveys to participants, instructors or course providers.

(2) If the commission determines that a course provider, instructor or course is in violation of any of these rules or otherwise fails to maintain reasonable standards, notice in writing specifying the defect will be transmitted promptly to the course provider, the instructor, or both. Failure of the provider, the instructor, or both, to correct the defects within thirty (30) days shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of approval. The commission may deny, revoke, suspend or place on probation the approval of an instructor or course, if not in compliance with the license law or these rules or if the level of performance or credentials are not in the pub-
