11 CSR 10-2.010 Public Access to Army
National Guard Training Areas

PURPOSE: This rule defines public access to Missouri Army National Guard Training Sites.

(1) Camp Clark. Limited public access is allowed. Hunting is allowed during quail season and deer bow hunting season. Hunters must sign in upon arrival and sign out at post headquarters prior to departing post. The post is closed to all public access at any time units are in training.

(2) Camp Crowder. Limited public access is allowed. In accordance with the terms of a Wildlife Management Agreement with the Missouri Conservation Department, access and hunting is allowed in the portion of the post located south of the range complex during the period October 1 through March 1. The post is closed to all public access at any time units are in training.

(3) Wappapello Training Site. The Wappapello Training Site is located on United Forestry Service land and has unlimited public access with the exception of the administrative area. The administrative area is delineated by locked gates and is limited to military use only.

(4) Macon Training Site. Public access is limited to foot traffic only. Parking areas are available at entrance gate(s). No military training will be scheduled during the spring turkey or the fall firearms deer seasons. Fishing is allowed in accordance with the state wildlife code. The post is closed to all public access at any time units are in training.

(5) Truman Training Site. The Truman Training Area is located on Corps of Engineer Truman Reservoir property. Public access is limited to foot traffic only.

(6) Ike Skelton Training Site. Public access is limited to normal daily hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and drill weekends. Public hunting, fishing and river access is prohibited at all times.

AUTHORITY: section 41.160, RSMo Supp. 1991. Original rule filed Dec. 29, 1993, effective July 30, 1994.*
