PURPOSE: This rule prescribes guidelines and standards as required by section 36.510, RSMo regarding mandatory training for persons employed in management positions in agencies within the executive branch of state government other than elective offices and the institutions of higher learning. These guidelines and standards provide a framework for developing and maintaining leadership effectiveness consistent with the mission and needs of each department.

(1) As used in this rule, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms shall mean:

(A) Management position, a position involving responsibility for participation in management processes of a state agency either as a supervisor or manager;

(B) Supervisor, a person directly and immediately responsible for planning, organizing, directing, controlling and evaluating the work of employees to accomplish a limited function or activity;

(C) Manager, a person responsible for various general management processes including activities such as general program planning, development and coordination, or the organization, direction and evaluation of major program functions and operations or a combination of these. For purposes of this rule, the term manager shall include all positions in merit agencies which the Personnel Division finds to involve substantial supervisory or administrative responsibilities and also shall include comparable positions in nonmerit agencies of the state. The final determination of comparability shall be made by department directors after careful review of information furnished by the Personnel Division regarding these merit positions and the criteria used to identify them. Department directors of nonmerit agencies will advise the Personnel Division regarding the authority of the Personnel Division to meet the general requirements of state agencies;

(D) Successful completion within the past ten (10) years of a three (3)-semester credit personnel management course from an accredited college or university; or

(E) Successful performance for at least three (3) consecutive years during the past five (5) years in a merit position classified as supervisory or managerial by the Personnel Division or in a nonmerit position which a department finds to be comparable to a merit system supervisory or managerial classification.

(F) Each department shall require their supervisory employees to meet both of the following basic requirements:

1. State departments which in whole or in part have adopted a standard performance planning and appraisal system meeting the basic requirements of the Personnel Division as established in accordance with section 36.510.1(5), RSMo shall require its supervisors to complete a formal training course approved by the Personnel Division on how to implement, maintain and administer that system. This requirement may be met through other training courses, formal education or work experience in using other performance appraisal systems; and

2. A state department shall require supervisory employees to comply with any one (1) of the following minimum alternatives:

A. Successful completion of training courses in basic supervision, effective discipline and motivation which have been offered by the Personnel Division to meet the general needs of state agencies;

B. Successful completion within the past ten (10) years of training courses which the department and the Personnel Division find to be of substantially equivalent quality and content as the courses that the division offers in the areas of basic supervision, effective discipline and motivation;

C. Successful completion within the past ten (10) years of a three (3)-semester credit personnel management course from an accredited college or university; or

D. Successful performance for at least three (3) consecutive years during the past five (5) years in a merit position classified as supervisory or managerial by the Personnel Division or in a nonmerit position which a department finds to be comparable to a merit system supervisory or managerial classification.

(5) Each department shall ensure through its programs, systems and procedures that equal employment opportunity and upward mobility objectives are implemented as part of its supervisory and management career development processes.
objectives. Each department shall appraise the competency and skill of supervisory employees. When a department finds action to be practicable, it shall take reasonable steps to provide in-service, other training, or both, as it deems necessary to maintain, remediate or enhance supervisory skills.

(7) For managers, the minimum mandatory training guidelines and standards consist of certain basic requirements which must be completed before a person becomes a manager or must be scheduled for completion within a period not to exceed one (1) year after becoming one, unless the department extends this period because appropriate training was not available to the department on a timely basis and notifies the Personnel Division of the extensions on an annual basis.

(A) Departments of state government shall require their management employees to meet both of the following basic requirements:

1. State departments which in whole or in part have adopted a standard performance planning and appraisal system meeting the basic requirements of the Personnel Division as established in accordance with section 36.070, RSMo, shall require their managers to complete a formal training course approved by the Personnel Division on how to implement, maintain and administer that system unless this course has been completed previously while the employee was a supervisor. This requirement may not be met through other training courses, formal education or work experience in using other performance appraisal systems; and

2. A state department shall require management employees to comply with any one (1) of the following minimum alternatives:

A. Successful completion of training included in the middle management institute offered by the Personnel Division to meet the needs of state agencies;

B. Successful completion within the past ten (10) years of training courses which the department and the Personnel Division finds to be of substantially equivalent quality and content as the training offered by the division in its middle management institute;

C. Successful completion within the past ten (10) years of a three (3)-semester credit personnel management course and a three (3)-hour organizational development or closely related management course taken from an accredited college or university; or

D. Successful performance for at least three (3) consecutive years during the past five (5) years in a merit position classified as managerial, which the Personnel Division identifies as involving substantial supervisory or administrative responsibilities or in a non-merit position which a department finds to be comparable to a merit system management classification.

(B) Each department shall require management employees to successfully demonstrate ongoing ability to plan, organize, control, direct, coordinate and evaluate the work activities for which they are responsible and to motivate assigned staff to accomplish organizational objectives. Each department shall appraise the competency and skill of management employees. When a department finds this action to be practicable, it shall take reasonable steps to provide in-service, other training, or both, as it deems necessary to maintain, remediate or enhance management skills.
