PURPOSE: This rule informs applicants of the requirements, procedures and qualifications necessary for obtaining a license.

(1) Licenses shall be granted only to persons who present, and corporations, associations or partnerships whose officers, associates or partners present, satisfactory proof to the commission that they are persons of good moral character; bear a good reputation for honesty, integrity and fair dealing; and are competent to transact the business of a broker or salesperson in such a manner as to safeguard the interest of the public.

(2) All applications for license shall be made on forms approved by the commission and completed and signed by the applicant. The commission may deny issuance of a license to any applicant submitting an incomplete application or an application containing any false or misleading information or to any applicant failing to submit the correct fees with an application.

(3) Salesperson.

(A) Every application for original salesperson license shall be accompanied by proof acceptable to the commission that the applicant has met all applicable requirements of sections 339.010 through 339.190, RSMo and these rules, including but not limited to:

1. Proof of successful completion of an approved forty-eight (48)-hour course of study known as the “Salesperson Pre-Examination Course” prior to the date of examination and no more than six (6) months prior to the postmark date applied by the postal service or hand delivery date of license application to the Missouri Real Estate Commission; and

2. Proof of satisfactory completion of both national and state portions of the required course(s) and examination will expire, and satisfactory completion of the required course(s) and examination must be repeated before applying for license.

(5) Applicants will have six (6) months after satisfactory completion of the required course(s) of study within which to pass the required examination and apply for license. After six (6) months, credit for such course(s) and examination will expire, and satisfactory completion of the required course(s) and examination must be repeated before applying for license.

(6) The respective pre-examination course must be completed and the completion certificate received prior to the candidate attempting to take the required examination.

(7) The commission may require an applicant for a license to furnish a recent passport-type photograph and court documents, as well as any other information deemed necessary by the commission to determine the applicant’s qualifications for a license.

(8) The commission reserves the right, at its discretion, to hold any application for a reasonable length of time for investigation.

20 CSR 2250-3.020 License Examinations

PURPOSE: This rule establishes how and by whom the examination shall be given. The requirements, fees and prohibitions are included in this rule.

(1) The form, content, method of administration, passing standards and schedule of written license examinations shall be determined by the commission and the date and place of examinations shall be announced as far in advance as is practicable. In conducting examinations, the commission may utilize professional testing services.

(2) Fees payable by applicants for broker and salesperson license examinations shall be established by agreement with the commission and testing service administering the examination. Fees shall be paid as directed by the commission.

(3) No applicant shall be permitted to take any memoranda, pamphlet, book or paper into an examination room and otherwise shall be subject to the rules imposed by the administrator of the examination. If any applicant violates any rules imposed by the administrator while taking an examination such act shall be reason to deny issuance of a license to the applicant(s) involved.
