Chapter 50—Federal Regulations for Implementation of the Disability Determinations Program

Title 5—DEPARTMENT OF ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION
Division 90—Vocational Rehabilitation
Chapter 50—Federal Regulations for Implementation of the Disability Determinations Program

5 CSR 90-50.010 Pertinent Regulations Relating to the Disability Determinations Program

PURPOSE: This rule prescribes standards for implementation of the Disability Determinations Program as contained in the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 20, Chapter III, part 404, subparts J, P and Q and part 416, subparts I, J and N.

Editor's Note: The secretary of state has determined that the publication of this rule in its entirety would be unduly cumbersome or expensive. The entire text of the rule has been filed with the secretary of state and is summarized here by the agency adopting it. The entire text of the rule may be found at the headquarters of the agency and is available to any interested person at a cost established by state law.

(1) The disability program under the Social Security Act is administered in states under rules contained in Title 20, Chapter III of the Code of Federal Regulations. Two (2) parts of the Code concern the Disability Determinations Program.

(A) Part 404, subparts J, P and Q pertains to the disability insurance benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act. It includes the pertinent regulations regarding the administration of this program and the criteria for determining eligibility for these benefits. It has an appendix which contains a detailed listing of impairments, which is used to determine medical eligibility for disability benefits.

(B) Part 416, subparts I, J and N pertains to the Supplemental Security Income disability benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act. It includes the pertinent regulations regarding the administration of this program and the criteria for determining eligibility for these benefits.
