Head Quarters. Richmond. Nov. 11th. 1838

His Excellency L. W. Boggs.

Sir. Inasmuch as the Commissary General of the State could not follow
the movements of the army under my command, and it becoming absolutely necessary for the preservation of the Stores & munitions of war to have an acting Commissary, I appointed to that office Alfred W. Morrison, & desire your Excellency to ratify that appointment, & have forwarded to me or Mr. Morrison at Fay: ette, a commission to that effect. It is de:
:sirable if possible to have it before my final report of the expedition is made

I have the honor to be your Obdt. Humble servt:
John B. Clark
Maj: Genl. 1st. Division
M.M.

Let the commission
be dated 29th Oct. 1838
