Nehemiah Odell Senr. a witness produced sworn and examined for the State Depository and saith that he was in the Battle between Capt Bogard and the Mormons on the 25th of October last and says Parley P Pratt was in the battle commanding part of the Mormon forces on that occasion. The officer who gave the command to the Mormons, after some kind of religious ceremony to about this amount "In the name of Lazarus God & the Lamb" fire Danites" and after firing twice they charged, but which party fired first I don't recollect and further this person saith not Nehemiah Odell.

Captain Samuel Bogard a witness produced sworn and examined for the State Depository and saith, that on the evening of the 24th Octr last while ranging under the orders of Genl Atchison as is below inserted I met with several Mormons & read it to them supposing they would inform the Mormons of the character of my company. We had been informed on that evening by citizens of Ray that we were in danger of being attacked by the Mormons that night, whereupon I fell back to an encampment on Crooked River in Ray county. On the next morning near day break my picket guard gave information that they were coming and in a few moments I saw the Mormon forces forming and a few guns were fired out of the brush by the Mormons, when the fight commenced the left wing of the Mormon forces were with in about 30 steps of my right, and in number were about 150 or 200 as I supposed and further this deposition saith not. Daniel Bogart The Order under which Capt Bogart was ranging the north part of Ray County when attacked by the Indian was produced and read in court as evidence
