

was present and followed Mr Rigdon after he had made the above declaration and said he did not wish to do any thing unlawful, he then spoke of the fate of Judas & said that Peter had hung him (Judas) & said that he approved of Mr Rigdon's sermon & called it a good sermon and further this deponent saith not

Reed Peck

James C Owens a witness who was produced on a former day and ~~but his name is called in the book again~~ further deposes and saith, He does not think William Whitman was in the last expedition to Daricis, I think he was left at far west as captain of the town guard though he may have been in Daricis for aught I know and further this deponent saith not

James C Owens

William Splawn a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf the state deposes and saith I was at Eli Baglys in Daricis County when an armed company of men about 100 or 12 in number James St Paulins and Jesse J Hunter two of the defendants were of the company came to Baglys they enquired who I was and if I was a mob character and learning I was not they let me alone they enquired for John Raglin and said they heard he was a mob character and had gone for men to fight them and if they got their eyes on him they would take his life & that he had better keep out of the way to prevent that Hunter was of the company I will not say I had a little or no doubt of it from his appearance this was on Saturday after I learned that Gallatin was burned the Thursday before and during the time the mormon troops were in Daricis County and further this deponent saith not

William Splawn

Thomas M Odell a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf the state deposes and saith, that on the Saturday after Gallatin was burned an armed company of 12 men rode up to Mr Raglin's house in Daricis County where I resided, they enquired for John Raglin, I told them where he had gone, they said their object was to drive the mob from the County and said that I must go, I replied I could not, that I had no way to get off and that my family was here, they replied that made no difference I must go, and said if I was not gone by next morning by sunrise they would take my life, they told Mrs Raglin she must just sit it, that there she could not stay and that Raglin had better never shear himself there that they would take his life if ever they set their eyes on him next morning, by the assistance of friends we did start leaving most of our property there, since then I have returned and found the houses burnt & the property gone consisting of household plunder and 29 bee gums they enquired for guns and got down one and took it away from the house belonging to one Josiah Littlefield they further said that they had been there as long as they were a going to, that they had got strong enough now to defend themselves that they intended to do it by the sword that they knew at the defiance of any set of men who could come against them & that they now intended to make it a war of extermination, the following of the dependants were in the above Company vizt. James H. Raultens Jesse S. Hunter Darwin Chase & I think from his appearance Maurice Phelps was there but may be mistaken, Hunter appeared to be Captain or Commander of the Company as he did the most of the talking, but most all of them had something to say and further this deponent with his

Mrs M<sup>rs</sup> Adle

John Raglin a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf the State deposed and said I was in Fallstein when the Mormons made an attack on it which took place on <sup>the</sup> Thursday in October all the persons that were there left the town and the Mormons as I believe them to be to the number of about 150 or 200 all armed took possession of the town and the store and other houses were burnt as I learned that evening and further this deponent with his

Allen Rathburn a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf of the State deposed and said, On the day before the battle with Rogoid I was in far West and early in the morning Daniel Carn One of the dependants here asked me to help him to grease his Waggon I did so and asked him where he was going he said he was going out to Mr Raglins in Davis County that there were about 40 bee stores there they were going for. directly after words I was down at Morrisons Store in far west there was a Company of 10 or 12 men with 2 or 3 waggons I heard Mr Huntingdon ask for brimstone some of the Company said they had 2 pounds Huntingdon answered that would do, Mr Hunter one of the dependants here, gave the word of command and they marched off Mr Daniel Carn with his waggon with them late that evening I saw Daniel Carn with his waggon at his grocery door in far west I saw Carn and Huntingdon unloading the waggon was loaded with one bee gum and household plunder consisting of beds or bed cloaths Kinder tied up also there were onions in the waggon Mr Carn that evening remarked that there would be in that night